PREAMBLE

The Great Canadian Railtour Company Ltd., (hereafter referred to as "the Company") and the National Automobile, Aerospace, Transportation and General Workers Union of Canada (hereafter referred to as "the Union") have a mutual interest to maintain a harmonious labour/management relationship, create a safe and positive work environment and build a new concept of tourist railtour service in Canada.

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION AND SCOPE

- 1.1 The Company recognizes the National Automobile. Aerospace. Transportation and General Workers Union of Canada or CAW-Canada as the sole collective bargaining agent with respect to wages. hours of work. and other working conditions for employees of the Company, as per Article 3.
- 1.2 Where the masculine gender appears in this Agreement. it will also infer the feminine or vice versa.
- 1.3 A new employee will at time of hire apply for membership in the Union. If accepted, he will become and continue to be a member of the Union in good standing, as a condition of continued employment.
- 1.4 The Company agrees to deduct from each employee's pay the amount of any Union dues and general assessments, and remit same to the Union subject to the provisions of the Canada Labour Code. Dues deducted will be forwarded to the Local Secretary-Treasurer of the Union by the 15th day of the month following. and will include a list of the names of the employees so deducted.
- 1.5 Should there be a "sale of business" within the context of the Canada Labour Code, the provisions of this collective agreement will be binding upon any successor or merged company or companies or any successor in the control of the Corporation.
- 1.6 The main function of supervisors should be to direct the work force. Supervisors and employees outside the bargaining unit will not displace or replace employees in this bargaining unit. There may be instances where supervisors will find it necessary to engage in bargaining unit work. These instances should be kept to a minimum.
- 1.7 The Company will hire all employees.
- 1.8 The Company agrees not to enter into any agreement or contract with the Union employees, individually or collectively, which in any way conflicts with the terms and provisions of the Agreement. Any such agreement will be null and void.
- 1.9 This Agreement may be amended, revised or altered at any time upon mutual agreement in writing between the Company and the Union.
- 1.10 The Union will elect a Chief Shop Steward and Shop Stewards in the bargaining unit and will notify the Company, in writing, forthwith of such appointments and deletions of those employees so elected. The Company will recognize the Shop Steward and Committee members and not discriminate against them for lawful Union activity as long as it does not reasonably interfere with regular work. If possible, the Company will notify the Union forty-eight (48) hours prior to the dismissal of a Shop Steward, giving the reason in writing.
- 1.11 The Company will not discriminate against any of the employees who are members of the Union Committee and who, from time to time, represent other employees.

- 1.12 The Union will promptly notify the Company in writing of the names of the employees comprising the Union Committee and of any changes in the personnel thereof. The Company will inform the Union. in writing. of the supervisors with whom said accredited Representatives will deal and any changes in personnel thereof. As well as providing notification when changes occur, the Union and the Employer will exchange lists of representatives at the start of the tour season each year.
- 1.13 The Union agrees that there will be no Union activities carried out during working hours. except those necessary in connection with the administration of this Agreement. Accredited Representatives of the Union will have access to the Employer's premises during working hours for the purpose of adjusting disputes.
- 1.14 The Company will not require an employee covered by this Agreement to cross a legal picket line or to deliver any product or goods to any person, or employees or any persons with whom a union has a legal picket around or against. If another union implements a picket line after a train is in progress, the Company and the union will immediately meet to deal with any concerns that may arise. Both parties Will take whatever measures possible to ensure the safety and security of employees and guests.
- 1.15 It is mutually agreed that there will be no strike, lockout or slowdown, whether sympathetic or otherwise, during the term that this agreement is in force.
- 1.16 It is agreed that there will be no harassment or discrimination toward an employee based on the employee's age, marital status, race, colour, national or ethnic origin, political or religious affiliation. sex, sexual orientation, family status, pregnancy, disability or union membership.

ARTICLE 2 - SENIORITY AND ABILITY

2.1 Seniority

- 2.1.1 Seniority order of employees will be based on the date and time of the offer letter of employment.
- 2.1.2 A seniority list will be posted and a copy provided to the Union at the time of posting once a year; on the first day of training.
- 2.1.3 Disputes regarding seniority must be grieved within seven (7) calendar days of the annual seniority list being posted.
- 2.1.4 Seniority will prevail for the purpose of posting and awarding of assignments, layoff and recall.
- 2.1.5 When a former employee is recalled in the subsequent year, that employee will retain his seniority relative to all other employees also recalled.
- 2.1.6 An employee who holds seniority within the bargaining unit and accepts an excluded, non scheduled or official position with the Company will forfeit all seniority rights under this Agreement after the completion of ninety (90) calendar days of such excluded employment.

- 2.1.7 The Company can hire casual seasonal Onboard Attendants under the following terms:
 - Has to be a member of the Union.
 - Used on an incidental basis and will not replace or displace full-time employees.
 - Will be offered by seniority, the first opportunity to advance to full-time capacity before hiring new full-time seasonal Onboard Attendants.

2.2 Probationary Period

- 2.2. I Newly hired full time seasonal Onboard Attendants will be on probation from their start date and until the completion of their first twenty-four (24) working train days. All full time seasonal Onboard Attendants recalled for their second season will be on probation for their first eight (8) working train days.
- 2.2.2 Newly hired casual seasonal Onboard Attendants will be on probation from their start date and until the completion of their first 24 working train days. The training days while onboard the train will be considered as train days (4train days). All casual seasonal Onboard Attendants recalled for their second season will be on probation for their first sixteen (16) working train days.
- 2.2.3 When changing categories from casual seasonal Onboard Attendant to full time seasonal Onboard Attendant, the probationary period of the full time seasonal Onboard Attendant applies with the understanding that the combined probationary periods cannot exceed the time allowed for the full time seasonal Onboard Attendant.

ARTICLE 3 - JOB CLASSIFICATION AND DESCRIPTIONS

- The term employee or employees refers to a person who holds seniority under this collective agreement as follows:
 - 3.1.1 A full time seasonal Onboard Attendant is an employee who is assigned to work on a regular basis as set out in Article 6.
 - 3.1.2 A casual seasonal Onboard Attendant is an employee who works shifts which are not assigned to full time seasonal Onboard Attendants as set out in Article 6.

- 3.2 Seasonal Onboard Attendants report to and at all times work under the direction of the Vice President of Guest Services or his supervisory staff.
- Jobs requiring a new classification and wage rate or existing jobs that have been changed will be established by negotiations between the parties. Should an impasse be reached, jobs in a new classification may befilled, pending a resolution through arbitration.

 The Union will be advised as much in advance as possible of any new proposed classifications.
- 3.4 Seasonal Onboard Attendants perform a range of customer service functions:
 - greeting guests and providing guest assistance with entraining and detraining
 - inspecting and preparing assigned coach prior to departures
 - maintaining coach in clean and tidy condition while en route
 - general train cleaning and servicing, replenishing provisions and miscellaneous jobs to maintain staffing base on out-of-town layovers away from home terminal
 - providing food and beverage service
 - providing a tour commentary and general guest assistance/services
 - performing assigned station duties (e.g. ticketing, baggage tagging and movement, assisting guests with connecting transportation)
 - performing other related duties assigned by the Manager (e.g. assisting with Onboard Attendant training)
 - performing duties assigned under extenuating circumstances which include. without limiting the generality of the foregoing, general administration. marketing and promotion and acting as tour guides
- 3.5 Train management staff will support Onboard Attendants in the successful performance & their assigned duties and any problem will be resolved in a timely manner.

ARTICLE 4 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

- 4.1 The Company operates the Rocky Mountaineer. a seasonal tourist railtour operation. At the end of the season, all seasonal Onboard Attendants will be laid off.
- 4.2 The Company will recall an employee based on the employee's seniority.
 - 4.2.1 The seasonal Onboard Attendant must inform the Company not later than Sixty (60) days prior to the start of training (such dates to be stated in writing to each employee within 30 days of the end of the previous year's season) of their intention to return for the next season. It will be the responsibility of the employee to ensure that the required notice is provided to the Company. Upon request the Company will provide a copy to the Union Chief Shop Steward.
 - 4.2.2. When an employee is recalled, his seniority will be determined as per Article 2.1.5.

4.2.3 All recalled employees will make themselves available at a mutually agreed time for a pre-season interview prior to the start of training and an end of season review and debrief as defined in 19.10.

ARTICLE 5 - CONSISTS PER TRAIN

5.1 The crew consist per train will be based on not less than one seasonal Onboard Attendant per passenger car.

ARTICLE 6 - WORK SCHEDULE

6.1 Trip Eligibility:

- 6.1.1 Full-time seasonal employees will be allowed to bid to work up to twelve (12) train days in each twenty-eight (28) day cycle.
- 6.1.2 Full-time seasonal employees will be guaranteed a minimum of fifty-six (56) train days. To ensure the minimum guarantee t train days in a season, employees must reasonably make themselves available for work.
- 6.1.3 If, when a bulletin is posted, there are more than twelve (12) train days available for every employee, full-time seasonal employees will be notified that they will be allowed to bid an additional trip.

6.2 Scheduling Procedure:

- 6.2.1 Procedure for scheduling first (most senior) 20% of employees.
 - The Company will post a bulletin of available shifts twenty-eight (28) calendar days prior to the start d the cycle.
 - The most senior 20% & employees will be allowed to bid in this round to work up to twelve (12) train days in a cycle, and will be allowed four days to submit their bid sheets from the day & the bulletin. Trips will be awarded in seniority order.
 - Scheduled assignments will be issued to these employees within 3 days of the bidding close.
- 6.2.2 Procedure for scheduling the remainder of employees.
 - a) The Company will post another bulletin ← available shifts twenty-one (21) calendar days prior to the start ← the cycle.

- Remaining full-time seasonal employees (comprising 40% & employees) will be allowed to bid to work up to twelve (12) train days in a cycle, and will be allowed 4 days to submit their bid sheetsfrom the day & the bulletin. Trips will be awarded in seniority order.
- c) Trips will be assigned to Casuals on a rotating seniority basis.
- d) Station duties (including Departure-packs) will be assigned to available employees on a reverse seniority basis.
- e) The final schedule will be posted fourteen (14) days prior to the start c the cycle; within 3 days c the bidding close.

6.3 Special Provisions:

- 6.3.1 For the first 28 day cycle c the operating season, the timeframes noted in the scheduling procedure will be compressed.
- 6.3.2 Trip start date, from Vancouver, will determine the cycle to which the trip is allocated.
- 6.3.3 Language qualified assignments will be awarded by seniority to qualified Onboard Attendants. If a language qualified trip is not requested, it will be assigned to the mostjunior qualified employee that is available.
- 6.3.4 Both parties recognize whenever possible that it is desirable to avoid working back-to-back train cycles.
- 6.3.5 Wherever possible, full-time seasonal employees will not be scheduled for station departure duties on the morning after completing a trip. Attendants with lesser seniority will be used most often. but not exclusively for station duties. Full-time OnBoard Attendants hired prior to August 15, 1993 who have special provisions outlined in Letter of Understanding #1 accompanying this agreement are expected to be available for station duties when requested. Every consideration will be given when scheduling these employees after they have returned from a trip.
- 6.3.6 Employees may be asked to be available for non train service as set out in Article 3.4. This will occur during normal business hours (8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.) except in the case of an emergency.
- 6.3.7 The schedule will be available to the Union upon request.
- 6.3.8 For any partial cycle at the conclusion c the operating season, the number c train days allowed to be bid will be prorated.

6.4 Scheduling Changes:

- 6.4.1 Casual employees may refuse one trip and remain at the top of the availability list. The second and third refusal will result in the employee moving Io the bottom of the availability list. Four refusals in one season, without a bonafide reason, will result in the termination of the employee's services.
- 6.4.2 When a full-time seasonal employee is unable to work, or when additional shifts become available, the assignment will be given to the next available casual employee on a rotating seniority basis. If all the casual employees have been scheduled for twelve (12) train days in that cycle, then the additional shifts will be offered by phone message to available full-time seasonal employees in seniority order who will have IS minutes to confirm their acceptance.
- 6.4.3 If an employee wishes to trade a shift he/she must apply in writing and obtain authorization from the Onboard Crew Manager at least 72 hours in advance for a trip and 48 hours in advance for a station duty.
- 6.5 (a) Regular scheduled assignments will be maintained for the entire season except where load predictions are reduced beyond the expectations or control of the Company. The Chief Shop Steward will be advised as soon as possible of any possible reduction in the number of scheduled assignments with a view of reducing any adverse effects by mutual agreement.
 - (b) In the event that passenger reservation cancellations reduce the crew consist for that trip the junior Onboard Attendant will be displaced and be offered first refusal on the next available trip.

6.6 Breaks:

- 6.6.1 For each working train day, the Company will provide the following breaks free from work:
 - lunch break of thirty minutes
 - a minimum of two fifteen-minute coffee breaks
- 6.6.2 These breaks will be scheduled according to operational requirements.

ARTICLE 7 - VACATIONS

7.1 Vacation entitlement is based on the number of completed tour seasons. A completed tour season is equal to 56 working train days. The time required for casual Onboard Attendants to accrue an increase in vacation entitlement will depend on the number of train days worked and accumulated from year to year. Example: A casual Onboard Attendant may accumulate 168 working train days over 5 seasons to be eligible for an increase in vacation entitlement from 4% to 6%.

7.2 Seasonal Full Time and Casual Onboard Attendants Vacation Entitlement Schedule:

Number of Completed Tour Seasons	Vacation Entitlement
	Weeks of Vacation	Vacation Pay
less than three (3) seasons seniority	2 weeks	4%
three (3) seasons up to and including the fifth (5)season seniority	3 weeks	6%
greater than five (5) seasons seniority	4 weeks	8 %

7.3 Onboard Attendants may request a vacation leave during the operation season. Vacation requests require the approval of the General Manager of Guest Services or a designate and are subject to operational requirements.

ARTICLE 8 - STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

8.1 Statutory Holiday Pay

- 8.1.1 If an employee works onboard the train or station duties on the Statutory Holiday they will be paid for the Statutory Holiday as well as one and one-half (1-1/2) times their rate for that day.
- 8.1.2 If an employee does not work a Statutory Holiday he will be paid for eight (8) hours at the hourly rate as per section 16.1.
- 8.2 The ten (10) Statutory Holidays are the following:

Daily Rate	$34.00	$35.00	$36.00

10.2 Employees required to overnight away from their home terminal will be provided with clean. secure and quiet accommodations. Single accommodation will be provided by the Company except under circumstances beyond the company's control. Under no circumstances will employees of opposite genders be required to share accommodation. Taxi fare or company transportation will be provided to employees required to overnight at such accommodation.

10.3 When an employee is required to commute to or from a location away from their home terminal, the Company will reimburse transportation expenses based on competitive and economical rates between terminals and airports.

ARTICLE 11 - BEREAVEMENT LEAVE

Upon the death of an employee's spouse, child, parent. brother. sister. step-parent. father-in-law. mother-in-law, brother-in-law. or sister-in-law. or any relatives permanently residing in the employee's household or with whom the employee resides. the employee will be entitled to three (3) days bereavement leave without loss of pay.

ARTICLE 12 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

The following grievance procedure does not preclude the principles of open communication between employees and management, and the union.

Any complaint raised by an employee or a Union representative concerning the interpretation, application or alleged violation of this Agreement or that they have been unjustly dealt with shall be handled in the following manner:

Step 1

Within ten (10) calendar daysfrom the cause of the grievance or complaint, employees and/or Shop Steward must present the grievance or complaint in writing to the General Manager, Guest Services or the Director, Human Resources.

As soon as possible, but in any case with ten (IO) calendar days of receipt d the grievance, the Company will provide a decision.

Step 2

Within ten (10) calendar days of receiving a decision under Step I, the regional Union Representative and Senior Vice President, C.O.O. will meet, or otherwise communicate to review any unresolved grievance.

Within ten (10) calendar days & the meeting, the Company willprovide a decision.

Arbitration

Withinfourteen (14) calendar days ★ receiving a decision at Step 2, any unresolved grievance will proceed to arbitration, or by mutual consent, Alternate Dispute Resolution.

a) Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) - ADR is a process to assist parties in reaching a consensual settlement through the facilitation of a mediator. The mediator cannot impose a settlement on the parties who voluntarily make their own decisions. ADR can be used as an alternative to Arbitration. If the parities do not reach a mutually acceptable settlement, they may proceed to Arbitration.

- Arbitration The Arbitrator will not have the right to amend or change this Agreement in any way and his decision is considered final and binding.

 Arbitration can be used instead of ADR or when ADR does not result in a consensual settlement.
- For the duration of this contract, the parties will agree to a list of acceptable individuals who are qualified as Arbitrators and/or Mediators in Canada. The list may be amended by mutual agreement.

Note: The time limits outlined herein may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties. Requests for extensions shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 13 - DISCIPLINE

- 13.] An employee will be put on notice that discipline is being considered within a reasonable time period of the incident being known.
- 13.2 Any discipline forthcoming will be issued in a timely manner providing tire employee has made himself/herself available to meet with management.
- 13.3 An employee being disciplined by management may be accompanied by the first available shop steward should they so desire.
- 13.4 The Company will provide a copy \mathbf{d} a disciplinary notice to:
 - 1. The employee being disciplined
 - 2. The employee's personnelfile
 - 3. The union, unless otherwise requested by the employee being disciplined
- 13.5 References to specific disciplinary notices assessed will be removed from the employee's disciplinary record after two seasons have been completed without any further related incidents requiring discipline.

ARTICLE 14 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

- 14.1 The Company will consider any reasonable request for leave of absence subject to available employees to cover the absent employee and reasonable time is provided to enable the Company to schedule an extra employee to cover for the absent employee.
- 14.2 The decision of the V.P., Guest Services regarding the above is considered absolute and final.

One shop steward at a time may be allowed to a leave of absence for bonafide Union business. The Union will provide reasonable notice and co-operate with the Company to ensure that the absent employee position is covered during his absence. A request for a leave of absence under this provision will not be unreasonably withheld.

- 15.5.2 Each full time employee will be provided with one free one way trip for up to two (2) people based on double occupancy. The time of the trip has to be approved in advance by the Vice President of Guest Services and can only be used by the employee and/or his immediate family members or friends. It is not the intention nor will it be allowed for the employee to sell or receive any compensation for these free seats. All trips must be taken during the operating season and are not to be carried forward from one season to the next.

15.6 Other Benefits:

The Company will provide:

- Accommodation and meals while working on the trains;
- Accommodation while on out-of-town layovers; (Seasonal Onboard Attendants will be responsible for their own meals at a per diem set out in Article 10.1)
- A uniform which must be kept clean and neat and which is to be returned by the employee at the end of the season.

ARTICLE 16 - OVERTIME AVERAGING

- Due to the nature of the work in a continuous operation involving regular hours of work and days of assignment. overtime will be averaged according to the following schedule.
 - 16.1.1 Hours worked by Casual Seasonal Onboard Attendants for each designated eight (8) week period will be totalled. Hours in excess of the total basic hours of three hundred and twenty (320) for the period involved will be paid at time and one half (1 ½).
 - 16.1.2 Hours worked by full time seasonal Onboard Attendants will be recorded and divided by the number of weeks worked during the tour season as set out in 19.9. If the average hours per week exceed 40 hours per week for the season then the Company will pay time and one half for each hour or portion thereof.
- Overtime pay will be calculated based on the employee's hourly rate inclusive a the bonus rate as defined in Article 15.1 and 15.3.

ARTICLE 17 - HEALTH AND WELFARE

- 17.1 Every employee must have B.C. Medical Service Plan coverage.
- 17.2 Fur all returning employees. the Company will pay 50% of the B.C. Medical Service Plan premiums and the employee will pay 50% of the premium during the season.

ARTICLE 18 - NOT REPORTING FOR ASSIGNED DUTIES

18.1 Employees are expected to report on time, ready and capable to perform their assigned train and non train duties. If an employee is late and subsequently misses a train trip. no wages will be paid for that trip.

ARTICLE 19 - GENERAL

- 19.1 All terms and conditions not covered by this collective agreement will be governed by the Employee Standards provisions of the Canada Labour Code.
- 19.2 Pay days will be every fourteen (14) days by Direct Deposit. Any employee short-paid must be given the balance within forty-eight (48) hours.
- 19.3 The Company and Union both recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free of sexual harassment. Any complaints of this nature will be submitted at Step 2 of the grievance procedure, which will be handled expeditiously and as confidentially as possible.
- 19.4 Employees called in for staff meetings when not on a trip will be paid their hourly rate for a minimum of two (2) hours.
- 19.5 All pre-season training for seasonal Onboard Attendants will be paid based on the employee's hourly rate as defined in Article 15.1.
- 19.6 If an employee is unable to work for medical reasons of longer than three (3) days, the Company may request a medical certificate. Where an employee is demonstrating a consistent pattern of absences less than three days in duration for sickness. a medical certificate verifying that the absence is due to medical reasons may be requested by the Company.
- 19.7 When responsible for selling Company products or services, the Attendant is expected to follow Company procedures and to maintain accuracy in counting cash and collecting and recording guest payments. If an Attendant miscalculates the amount of a guest payment, the Company will be responsible for any financial loss incurred. If the guest payment has been accurately collected and the full amount of the payment is not submitted, then the Attendant is responsible for returning revenues collected to the Company.

- 19 8 The Company will provide a cash verification process at each terminal station.
- 19.9 Where a tour season is referred to in this article or in any other article of this collective agreement. it is defined as the operating season established by the Company each year. plus the training and any pre and post season work performed.
- 19.10 An end of season review and debrief is scheduled between each Onboard Attendant and their respective manager (see Letter of Understanding regarding performance reviews). The focus of the discussion is to enhance employee performance and career development and assess ways of improving the work environment and leadership effectiveness of the management team. The discussion is a summary of experience over the past season and a planning forum for the next season. Active participation of the manager and the employee in the discussion is emphasized to enable everyone to be successful in their positions and to support the Company's growth and development.

ARTICLE 20 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 20.1 The term "Management" shall refer to management and supervisors not covered under the certificate of the bargaining unit.
- 20.2 The Union recognizes, except to the extent Management Rights have been abridged or modified by specific terms and conditions in this Agreement, that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to:
 - 20.2.1 Hire, classify, promote, demote, lay off, suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline employees for just cause.
 - 20.2.2 Maintain order, discipline and efficiency; establish and enforce rules and regulations governing the conduct of employees, and which will be consistent with the provisions of this Agreement.
- 20.3 Only those defined as Management will have the authority to hire, classify, promote. demote, lay off, suspend, discharge or otherwise discipline subject to the provisions of this Collective Agreement.
- 20.4 The above clauses will not deprive employees of the right to exercise the grievance procedures as outlined in this Agreement.

ARTICLE 21 - TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT

GRATUITIES

Purpose: The Company recognizes that gratuities are an integral part of the employees' total potential income and will make the following assurances:

- 1. Sales Brochures will include a statement with the following intent: "Gratuities are not included in Railtour or package tour prices for Onboard Attendants. It is, however, acceptable to recognize good service in a tangible manner."
- 2. Written documentation given to guests at the station of their departure will confirm in addition to the statements above, an additional statement indicating that guests wishing guidelines as to the acceptable amount should ask the Onboard Managers. The Company will consult with the Union, examine market trends and use guest surveys to determine the suitable range of gratuities to be suggested to guests (passengers).
- 3. A section of the training for all Reservations Agents, whether year round. returning or new. will be conducted to ensure that the Reservations Department staff is appropriately supporting the above concepts.

The Company will review policies and procedures regarding gratuities periodically and any changes will be discussed. in advance with the union and in keeping with the purpose of this letter.

In accordance with the Company policy any gratuity solicitation by an Onboard Attendant or for another employee is prohibited.

AN Onboard information will be translated into German, Japanese, Spanish arid French.

PAID EDUCATIONAL LEAVE

During the 1996 negotiations between the Company and the Union for a new collective agreement the Union presented a proposal for the inclusion of a Paid Education Leave Program whereby employees of the Company would be permitted to attend CAW Labour oriented Education Leave. The cost of this program would be partly sponsored by the Company.

The Company recognizes the importance of this program to the Union and commits to discuss during the "closed period". the possibility of the inclusion of this program in the Collective Agreement.

In the event the Parties are unable to reach mutual agreement on this issue during the closed period it is understood that Paid Educational Leave will be a priority issue in the next round of collective agreement bargaining.

DEALING WITHHARASSMENT

The Company and the Union will NOT tolerate harassment in anyform. As per the commitment in Article 1.16, the Company and the Union agree to the following.

Procedure for dealing with harassment:

Step 1: Talk to the Individual

You are encouraged to begin by telling the harasser that his/her conduct is unacceptable arid unwelcome. If you havefound that your attempts to stop the behaviour(s) have not been successful or if you cannot attempt to do soforfear d reprisals, proceed to make a complaint. Try to keep a record d the behaviour. Write down dates, times, locations, names d witnesses and any other details.

Step 2 Make a Complaint

You may discuss the nature d the harassment with Human Resources, a Supervisor, or other Management representative with whom you feel comfortable. Since the complaint is d R sensitive nature, you will be given the opportunity to have a coworker or Shop Steward in attendance, if you wish. It is agreed that an employee may refuse to work in a situation where his/her safety is threatened.

Step 3: Investigation

All acts \mathbf{d} harassment will be taken seriously and will be investigated in a sensitive, impartial, timely and confidential manner.

Step 4: Consequences

Based on the outcome \mathbf{c} the investigation, the appropriate action, up to and including termination will be taken.

This procedure in no way circumvents an employee's right to file a complaint with the Canadian Human Rights Commission and seek redress under the Human Rights Code.

Training: The Company will ensure that all employees are informed d their rights to a harassment-free workplace through training. In preparation for the 2001 pre-season training program, the Company agrees to consult with the Union and to consider in goodfaith the Union's resources and expertise in anti-harassment programs.

MEMORANDUM

PERFORMANCE REVIEWS

The Company's annual performance planning and review process is a summary and review of all areas of an employee's performance throughout the year and a plan for performance and career goals. The review process is not intended nor is it to be used for the purpose of accessing disciplinary action.

Performance issues which require disciplinary action will be dealt with by the Company when the issues arise.
