No. OF EMPLOYEES	220
NOMBRE D'EMPLOYÉS	220

SEPTEMBER 1, 1997 TO AUGUST 31, 2003

AGREEMENT BETWEEN:

MISCELLANEOUS EMPLOYEES TEAMSTERS LOCAL UNION 987 OF ALBERTA, with Head Office in City of Calgary, Alberta, hereinafter referred to as the "Union"

AND :

FEDERATED CO-OPERATIVES LIMITED, Edmonton, Alberta, with Head Office in the City of Saskatoon, Saskatchewan, and THE GROCERY PEOPLE LTD., with Head Offices in the City of Edmonton, Alberta, a wholly owned subsidiary of Federated Co-operatives Limited, hereinafter referred to as the "Co-operative".

It is hereby agreed by and between the above-mentioned parties that:

ARTICLE 1 - PURPOSE

In consideration of the mutual value of joint discussions and negotiations of all matters pertaining to Co-operative employee relations, the purpose of this Agreement is to promote the viability of the Co-operative and its retail member-owners, elevate the trade and promote peace and harmony between the Co-operative and its employees; also to facilitate the peaceful adjustment of any disputes and grievances to prevent strikes and lockouts, waste, avoidable and unnecessary delays.

ARTICLE 2 - SCOPE

The following terms and conditions shall govern all employees engaged or employed in a Warehouse at 14404 - 128th Avenue or 13232 - 170th Street or in a Feed Plant at 1818 - 121st Avenue N.E. excluding office staff and persons with a right to hire and fire. Out-of-scope employees will not normally perform the work considered jurisdiction of the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 3 - MEMBERSHIP

Every employee who is now, or hereafter becomes, a member of the Union, shall maintain his/her membership in the Union as a condition of his/her employment. Every new employee in accordance with Article 2, whose employment commences hereafter shall, within thirty (30) days from the commencement of his/her employment apply for and maintain his/her membership in good standing in the Union, as a condition of employment.

ARTICLE 4 - RIGHTS OF MANAGEMENT

1. The management and planning of the Co-operative's business is vested exclusively in the Co-operative, including the right to hire, to promote, to discharge for just cause, to transfer, to demote, to lay off and rehire.
2. The Co-operative shall assess the relative merit, ability and fitness of the employee. However, the exercise of any rights listed or not listed in this section shall in no way limit, void or affect any of the provisions of this Agreement and shall at all times be subject to the Grievance Procedure as set out herein, under Article 16.
3. The foregoing enumeration of Management's rights shall not be deemed to exclude other functions not specifically set forth. The Co-operative, therefore, retains all rights not otherwise specifically covered by this Agreement.

RECEIVED
NOV 12 1998

Stephan Yammur

ARTICLE 5 - DEDUCTIONS

Upon written request from the employee, the Co-operative agrees to deduct and pay to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Union, on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of each month, out of wages due to each employee, the Union dues and initiation fees of such employees for the previous four (4) weeks. A list of the names of the employees concerned shall accompany the monies.

ARTICLE 6 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

- 8.B
1. The standard work week in the Warehouse and Feed Plant shall consist of forty (40) hours, comprising of five (5) consecutive eight (8) hour days. The lunch period shall not exceed one hour per shift. In order to provide flexibility in the Co-operative's operations, the day shift will normally commence between 6:00 and 9:00 a.m., the afternoon shift will normally commence after 11:00 a.m., and the evening shift will normally commence after 9:30 p.m. When shift work is involved at the Feed Plant, employees in similar classifications shall be rotated. 8.A.3 40

Notwithstanding the above provisions, the Co-operative shall have the right to establish a shift at the Warehouse commencing at 4:00 a.m., subject to the payment of a premium equal to three ($3.00) dollars per day'.

- 9.C
3/D
2. All time worked in excess of standard hours shall be deemed overtime, and shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1½x) the regular hourly rate for the first three (3) hours and double time (2x) thereafter. All time worked in excess of twelve (12) hours in any one shift shall be paid for at the rate of double (2x) the regular rate. For all time worked on the seventh (7th) day of the employee's work week, the rate shall be double (2x) the regular hourly rate.
 3. For overtime after the end of the normal working day, notice of two (2) hours' working time shall be given by the Co-operative to the individual employee unless it is mutually agreed to waive the notice by the parties concerned.
 4. Employees will be allowed one fifteen (15) minute rest period prior to their lunch break and a fifteen (15) minute rest period between lunch and the end of their eight (8) hour shift.
 5. Wherever possible, overtime shall be offered to the senior employees within the department, provided they have the ability, as evaluated by the Co-operative, to perform the work required.

Departments are:

1. Grocery (including Loaders, Repack, Carousel).
2. Traffic.
3. Maintenance (including Janitorial).

It is understood that in situations of pressing and/or major emergencies such as, but not limited to, fire, flood, and racking collapse, overtime will be assigned as determined by the Co-operative, which may not be in accordance with the above paragraph.

The following requirements will apply: ~

- To be eligible for overtime, employees outside the classification required must sign a weekly availability sheet.
- All employees who work overtime must be able to meet the standards established by the Co-operative.

- Employees who have signed their names on the Overtime Availability Sheets, prior to the cutoff, taking first priority. Employees on this list will be approached by seniority, provided they have the merit and ability to do the job required.
- If additional employees are required, over those on the Overtime Availability Sheet, the Supervisor will approach the most senior employee in the classification where the Co-operative requires assistance (eg., if additional Material Handlers are needed for overtime, the Supervisor will approach the most senior Material Handler first and so on...).

6. Department Overtime Availability sheets will encompass Fridays through Thursdays. The sheets will be up Thursday morning for each department. Employees must sign up for overtime three (3) hours BEFORE the end of their shift. Supervisors will mark the sheet when the cutoff occurred, so late sign ups are avoided.
7. If an employee has left the plant following completion of his/her regular shift and is called back to work after so leaving, he/she shall be paid for four (4) hours at his/her basic straight time hourly rate, or, be paid for actual time worked at the applicable overtime rate, whichever is greater. He code

If an employee has left the Feed Plant following completion of his/her regular shift and is called back to work after so leaving, he/she shall be paid for four (4) hours at his/her basic straight time hourly rate, or, be paid for actual time worked at the applicable overtime rate, upon completion of two and three-quarter (2%) hours worked.

Article 6 (7) will not apply to employees at the Feed Plant who are called in to reset the alarm system. The employee will be paid a flat rate of twenty-five ($25.00) dollars to reset the alarm.

8. For Feed Plant Classifications - A shift premium of fifty (50) cents per hour for the full shift shall be paid in addition to the employee's regular hourly rate where the majority of the hours worked in the shift fall between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 a.m; effective September 1, 1998 the shift premium will increase to fifty-five (55) cents per hour; effective September 1, 2000 the shift premium will increase to sixty (60) cents per hour; and effective September 1, 2001 the shift premium will increase to sixty-five (65) cents per hour. HC 1
HC 2
9. For Warehouse Classifications - A shift premium of sixty (60) cents per hour for the full shift shall be paid in addition to the employee's regular hourly rate where the majority of the hours worked in the shift fall between the hours of 5:00 p.m. and 7:00 am; effective September 1, 1998 the shift premium will increase to sixty-five (65) cents per hour; effective September 1, 2000 the shift premium will increase to seventy (70) cents per hour; and effective September 1, 2001 the shift premium will increase to seventy-five (75) cents per hour. HC 1
HC 2

12. All work performed on the sixth (6th) day of the employee's scheduled week, which is also his/her first day of rest, shall be guaranteed four (4) hours pay at time and one-half (1½x) his/her regular rate, for the first (3) hours and double time (2x) the regular rate, for the balance of hours worked on that day. All work performed on the seventh (7th) day of the employee's scheduled work week, which is his/her second (2nd) day of rest shall be guaranteed for (4) hours' pay at double (2x) the regular rate. All work performed in excess of four (4) hours on this day shall be paid at double (2x) the regular rate for all time worked.

1200

13. During the term of this Agreement, the Co-operative agrees to continue its present policy on overtime lunches. The Co-operative agrees to provide Warehouse employees with a meal voucher redeemable in the cafeteria to a maximum value of five dollars ($5.00) for all overtime assignments of two (2) hours or longer duration; effective September 1, 1999 the meal voucher will increase to five dollars and fifty cents ($5.50); and effective September 1, 2001 the meal voucher will increase to six dollars ($6.00).

1200

The Co-operative agrees to provide Feed Plant employees with a meal to the minimum value of five dollars ($5.00) for all overtime assignments of two (2) hours or longer duration; effective September 1, 1999 the minimum value of the meal will increase to five dollars and fifty cents ($5.50); and effective September 1, 2001 the minimum value of the meal will increase to six dollars ($6.00).

14. Uncompleted Work at End of Shift:

There are instances where remaining after the end of a shift is necessary in order to get the orders out, especially in the Loading classification.

Employees unable to remain after the end of their shift are to advise their Supervisor early in the day. Also, if employees are able to foresee difficulty in completing a specific job, they are required to inform their Supervisor, in advance of quitting time, to enable the Co-operative to make necessary arrangements to get the job done.

ARTICLE 7 - STATUTORY HOLIDAYS

1. Regular employees shall be entitled to the following statutory holidays off work with pay:

12A
TIPS

New Year's Day	Canada Day	Remembrance Day
Alberta Family Day	August Civic Holiday	Christmas Day
Good Friday	Labour Day	Boxing Day
Victoria Day	Thanksgiving Day

2. Should a Statutory Holiday fall on any employee's scheduled day off, the Co-operative shall have the option of granting eight (8) hours' additional pay or a day off with pay. In the latter event, the day off shall be within seven (7) days preceding or thirty (30) days following the Statutory Holiday.

905
30

3. All work performed on the Statutory Holidays in Clause 1 shall be paid at time and one-half (1½x) for the first three (3) hours and double time (2x) for the balance of hours worked that day, plus the pay for the said Statutory Holiday.

ARTICLE 8 - JURY DUTY AND WITNESS PAY

Employees serving on jury duty or subpoenaed as witnesses or for jury selection to a court of law will be paid their regular wages in full during the time of actual service, provided the day or days spent on jury duty or as a witness or for jury selection occur at a time when the employees were normally scheduled to work. The per diem allowances paid by the courts is to be turned in to the Co-operative. This article does not apply in situations where an employee serves as a witness before the Labour Relations Board or an Arbitration Board.

ARTICLE 9 - VACATIONS

1. Regular full-time employees, after completing one year's continuous employment, shall receive three (3) weeks' vacation with pay. 12B3/1000
2. Employees, after completing eight (8) years' continuous service, shall receive four (4) weeks' vacation with pay. 12B4/1000
3. Employees, after completing thirteen (13) years' continuous service, shall receive five (5) weeks' vacation with pay. 12B5/1000
4. Employees, after completing eighteen (18) years' continuous service, shall receive six (6) weeks' vacation with pay. 12B6/1000
5. Seniority shall govern with regard to choice of vacation period if circumstances permit. Employees shall be allowed to take their annual vacation between May 1 and October 31 inclusive, unless otherwise mutually agreed to by the Co-operative and the employees. The required number of years of service must be completed by April 30 in order to qualify for the full specified vacation. Vacation schedules will be established by May 1 of each year.

ARTICLE 10 - BUSINESS AGENT'S VISITS AND NOTICE BOARD

1. The authorized Business Agent or Representative of the Union shall be permitted to talk with any employee coming under the terms of this Agreement regarding Union matters during regular working hours after first obtaining the permission of the Distribution Manager or Feed Plant Manager or their respective designates. All interviews with employees shall be conducted in a place in the Warehouse or Feed Plant provided for and designated by the Co-operative. Each interview shall be limited to a ten (10) minute period at any one time, or longer if mutually agreed. 100
17
2. A notice board shall be supplied by the Co-operative and placed in the Warehouse and Feed Plant in a conspicuous place for any notices pertaining to Union business or Union social functions.

ARTICLE 11 - TIME OFF FOR UNION BUSINESS

The Co-operative agrees to grant necessary time off without pay and without discrimination to one employee designated by the Union to attend a labour convention or to serve in any capacity, on any official business provided, however, that notification in writing is given to the co-operative at least ten (10) clear working days prior to the date of leaving. Such leave of absence shall be limited to a three (3) month period. 104

ARTICLE 12 - STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

It is agreed that there will be no stoppages of work or lockouts by reason of a dispute between the Co-operative and the Union during the term of this Agreement. The Co-operative shall not request an employee to cross a legal picket line.

ARTICLE 13 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Any employee desiring a leave of absence without pay from the job, shall make his/her application to his/her supervisor in writing, shall secure a written permission from the Co-operative and file same with the Union. Failure to comply with this provision shall result in complete loss of seniority rights of the employee involved. Inability to work because of proven sickness or injury shall not result in the loss of seniority rights. 1210

ARTICLE 14 - EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

1. The Co-operative's present policy and subsequent amendments (in accordance with the bylaws of the plans concerned) of providing Superannuation, Group Income Guarantee Insurance, Group Life Insurance, Group Dental Plan, Sick Leave, and Medical and Hospital shall be continued during the term of this Agreement.
2. For all employees covered by this Agreement, sick leave pay will only be paid for the second (2nd) and subsequent working days of any absence due to illness. Should the absence due to illness be for four (4) consecutive working days or more, then the first day of such absence would be paid. The provision of this clause shall only apply to employees who have less than thirty-five (35) days of sick leave accumulated to their credit.
3. In the event of a death in the employee's immediate family, an employee will be granted a leave of absence with pay for purposes of attending the funeral. The length of such absence shall be at the discretion of the Co-operative for scheduled days missed by the employee. The term "immediate family" shall mean spouse, including common-law spouse if co-habiting for a minimum period of one year, mother, father, child, brother, sister, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, grandparents, spouse's grandparents, mother-in-law, father-in-law, step-father and step-mother.

ARTICLE 15 - DISCHARGE

The Co-operative shall not discharge any employee, including permanent part-time employees (Category A), without just cause and shall give at least one written warning notice of the complaint against such employee, except that no warning notice need be given to an employee before he/she is discharged if the cause of such discharge is dishonesty, harassment as defined in company policy, impairment due to alcohol or non-prescription drugs, theft, stealing Co-operative time while on the job, or leaves the job without notice while on duty. Appeal from discharge must be taken within two (2) working days by written notice and a decision reached within five (5) days from the date of discharge.

ARTICLE 16 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

1. Any complaint, disagreement or difference of opinion between the Co-operative and the Union or the employees, including permanent part-time employees (Category A), covered by this Agreement which concerns the interpretation, application or alleged violation of the terms and provisions of this Agreement shall be considered a grievance.
2. All grievances submitted in writing shall clearly set forth the issues and contentions of the aggrieved party including the Article of the Agreement allegedly violated as well as the remedy sought.
3. An employee who feels he/she has been aggrieved within the terms of Article 16(1) above may present a grievance. Any grievance which is not presented to management at Step One within ten (10) calendar days following the event giving rise to the grievance, shall be forfeited and waived.

4. The procedure for adjustment of grievances shall be as follows:

Sten One: By a discussion between the employee, with the Shop Steward present at the employee's option, and the immediate management supervisor, who must render a reply within three (3) working days of the meeting.

Sten Two: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at Step One, then within seven (7) calendar days of the supervisor's reply, the grievance shall be submitted in writing on a form supplied by the Union and dealt with at a discussion between the Shop Steward and Union Representative, and the Warehouse Manager or Feed Plant Manager, who must render a reply in writing within five (5) working days of the meeting.

Sten Three: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at Step Two, then within fourteen (14) calendar days, the grievance shall be submitted to the Industrial Relations Director of the Co-operative who will review the matter with the Union Representative and render a reply within fourteen (14) calendar days.

Step Four: If a satisfactory settlement is not reached at Step Three, the matter may be referred to Arbitration as per Article 17.

5. A grievance shall be deemed to have lapsed if the specified time limits in this Article are not followed by the aggrieved party.

ARTICLE 17 - ARBITRATION

If the parties fail to reach an agreement under the above procedures, either party may, by written notice to the other party stating the nature of the difference, require the establishment of an Arbitration Board chaired by a single Arbitrator. Such written notice must be served within ten (10) days following the completion of the preceding step.

The parties shall select a mutually acceptable person to act as an Arbitrator. If agreement cannot be reached on the appointment of an Arbitrator within seven (7) calendar days or a longer period mutually agreed upon, the parties shall then request the Minister of Labour to appoint an Arbitrator.

The Arbitrator may not change, modify or alter any of the terms of this Agreement. All differences submitted shall present an arbitrable issue under this Agreement, and shall not depend on or involve an issue or contention by either party that is contrary to any provision of this Agreement or that involves the determination of a subject matter not covered by, or arising during, the terms of this Agreement.

The Arbitrator shall give his/her decision not later than fourteen (14) days after his/her appointment except that with the consent of both parties such limitation of time may be extended. The findings and decision of an Arbitrator on all arbitrable questions shall be binding on all parties.

Each party shall bear equally the expenses of the Arbitrator.

ARTICLE 18 - LOSS OR DAMAGE

Employees will not be charged for lose or damage except where clear proof of negligence is shown and if the employee concerned denies negligence, he/she shall not be dismissed or laid off for nonpayment of damage or loss, unless and until the question of his/her negligence has been decided, by one representative of the Union and one representative of the Co-operative and a third member to be mutually agreed upon. Then, if no agreement has been reached within fourteen (14) calendar days or such longer time as may be mutually agreed upon the questions of his/her negligence will be referred to Arbitration as per Article 17 of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 19 - SHOP STEWARD'S COMMITTEE

The Co-operative recognizes the right of the Union to appoint or elect a Shop Steward's Committee. The Union shall inform the Co-operative of the names of the Committee members in writing and of any changes.

The Union Committee shall have the right of meeting the appointed representative or representatives of the Co-operative at least once every month. Members who happen to be on duty shall be paid straight time for that part of their regular scheduled working hours devoted to attendance at such meetings when held on Co-operative property. It is understood that a representative of Local Union 987 may be in attendance at such meetings. 1 D.3 /NL

ARTICLE 20 - PAY PERIOD

The Co-operative agrees to pay its employees on a bi-weekly basis.

ARTICLE 21 - SENIORITY

1. Seniority shall be established from the date an employee last ent last enters the service of the Co-operative subject to the condit Clause 2 below.

2. Probationary Period

No seniority shall be acquired by an employee during the first months with the Co-operative. However, after having worked this per employee's seniority shall be established from the beginning of the month period and he/she shall then be designated a regular employe

*Je crois ne pas

à pied, de rappel
Qu'en pensez-ils!*

3. Seniority List

The Co-operative shall post in a conspicuous place a seniority list ~~seniority~~ regular employees. This list shall be revised every six (6) months. For the purpose of compiling the seniority list the official employee record cards shall be used.

4. Job Postings

The Co-operative shall post permanent vacancies on the notice boards for five (5) full working days, and shall advise all applicants within ten (10) days of the status of their application.

5. Promotions and Vacancies

In the event of a vacancy occurring in any department, first consideration shall be given to promotion of senior employees in that department or group and secondly to promotion of properly qualified employees from other departments or group. Promotions shall be awarded on the basis of seniority, provided the employee has the ability, skill, merit and fitness to perform the work satisfactorily.

For a period of thirty (30) calendar days following a placement resulting from the successful bidding for a job vacancy, the employee shall be permitted to return to his/her former job. The Co-operative shall also have the right to return such employee to his/her former job within the sixty (60) calendar day period. If he/she is found to be incapable of satisfactorily performing the duties of the job vacancy, the job will not be reposted, but will be filled by the second preferable candidate on the original posting.

6. Lay-Offs and Transfers

Employees doing generally the same work in the Warehouse or Feed Plant shall be laid off when staff is reduced and taken on again when staff is increased according to their seniority in that department, provided qualifications are adequate and provided such procedure does not unduly penalize the economical and efficient operation of the plant. Employees being temporarily transferred from one department to another shall not lose their seniority rights. The senior employees in the Warehouse shall have shift preference.

7. Bumping Rights for Layoff Situations

In the event that a full-time employee has been given a layoff notice, the following list of options and criteria will apply:

- (a) The employee may bump another employee with less seniority than him/her in any classification within the same department provided they have the ability, skill, merit and fitness to do the job. It is understood that only the most junior person within a classification will be laid off initially. Any employee moving into a different classification because of bumping will be on a sixty (60) day probationary period, during which they must meet the job requirements and/or production standards. 100
- (b) The employee may bump into the most junior position only, in another department, provided they have more seniority than the most junior person and have the ability, skill, merit and fitness to do the job. They are also restricted by the below listed items: 100
- (c) The employee cannot exercise any of his/her seniority in this new department for a period of one year.
- (d) The employee will be on a sixty (60) day probationary period, during which they must meet the job requirements and/or production standards.
- (e) The employee's seniority will continue to be recognized for postings in original department.
- (f) The employee can return to their original department by means of being accepted on a posting only.
- (g) The employee may accept the layoff.

ARTICLE 22 - GENERAL

1. The Co-operative agrees that where an employee's shift is changed he/she will be notified one week in advance of such change unless an emergency arises precluding a full week's notice.
2. Employees temporarily assigned to lower rated positions shall not have their rate reduced.
3. An employee temporarily assigned to a higher rated position for a period of three (3) days or more of continuous employment in that classification shall receive the (next) highest rate in the higher classification or eight ($8.00) dollars per week, whichever is the greater for the whole period of time in that position; effective September 1, 1999 this will increase to nine ($9.00) dollars; and effective September 1, 2001 this will increase to ten ($10.00) dollars. Should the employee be fully qualified in that higher rated classification, he/she shall receive the maximum rate of the classification. 100

Any employee temporarily assigned to perform work in the freezer for a period of one continuous hour or more, will receive in addition to his/her regular rate, the freezer premium.

The Co-operative shall assign employees to temporary relief positions in excess of eight (8) hours on the basis of seniority providing they have the ability to do the job.

- 4. The Union agrees that if an employee is hired and subsequently cannot be bonded or where an employee's bond is revoked, he/she may be terminated.
- 5. The Co-operative, in order to encourage the use of safety shoes, will provide a subsidy of 50% of the cost of a pair of safety shoes or fifty ($50) dollars, whichever is the lesser. Effective September 1, 1999 the Co-operative will provide a subsidy of 50% of the cost of a pair of safety shoes or sixty ($60) dollars, whichever is the lesser. Effective September 1, 2001 the Co-operative will provide a subsidy of 50% of the cost of a pair of safety shoes or seventy ($70) dollars, whichever is the lesser. Such subsidy will be provided once per year per employee.
- 6. The Co-operative shall supply snowsuits, gloves and insulated boots to employees required to work in the freezer. Such clothing shall be the property of the Co-operative and shall remain on the Co-operative's premises at all times.

ARTICLE 23 - DURATION

- 1. This Agreement shall be in force and effect as of, the first (1st) day of September, 1997 until the thirty-first (31st) day of August, 2003 and from year to year thereafter unless either party to this Agreement serves notice upon the other party of the desire to change or modify the terms herein not less than thirty (30) days or more than ninety (90) days prior to the date of expiration.
- 2. A list of the proposed changes shall accompany the written notice to open the Agreement and the other party may submit a list in reply; provided it is submitted at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of expiration. These changes shall be the only items to be negotiated.
- 3. In the event that the negotiations extend beyond the expiry date, then the revised Agreement when executed, shall be retroactive to the expiration date of the last Agreement.
- 4. The Labour Relations Act will prevail during the period of change or negotiations.

RE: SUPERANNUATION

Both parties agree to ongoing dialogue on the contribution rate to Co-operative Superannuation Society. Such discussion will involve a review of Canada Pension Plan Contribution increases and the subsequent impact on total pension contribution by the employee and the Co-operative. This review will also include recommendations from the Co-operative Superannuation Society.

PART-TIME EMPLOYEES - CATEGORY B

The parties agree that the following shall constitute the terms of employment governing part-time employees:

1. Shall be employed to cover peak periods and other such times as necessary, such as vacation relief, illness, etc.
2. Each employee shall, as a condition of continuing employment, pay each month Union dues in accordance with Article 3 of this agreement.
3. Part-time employees shall not:
 - (a) acquire any seniority;
 - (b) be guaranteed a minimum number of hours per week;
 - (c) be entitled to a regular full-time employee benefit package except as may be provided by the Co-operative.
4. The rate of pay for part-time staff shall be one ($1.00) dollar per hour less than the start rate in the wage appendix of this Agreement.
5. Part-time employees shall not be employed or scheduled to the extent that their work results in a dieplacement or prevents the hiring or recall of regular full-time employees.
6. Part-time employees (Category A) will be given first opportunity to apply for full-time positions. A part-time employee who becomes a regular full-time employee will be placed at the bottom of the full-time seniority list provided they successfully complete the probationary period as stated in this Agreement.
7. The Co-operative will maintain an accurate list of part-time employees by location. This listing of part-time employees will include the hours and days each part-time employee has worked. A shop steward will have access to this list upon request.
