The written submission shall be delivered within 15 days from the date of the incident giving rise to the grievance or from the date the grievor first had knowledge of the incident, whichever is later. The submission must explain the grievance and the article of this agreement which is alleged to have been violated.

16.3 If the grievance is not settled within 15 days after the date of submission of the grievance, then on or before a further five days have elapsed from the expiration of the 15 day time period, the grievance must be referred in writing to the grievance committee. The grievance committee must be composed of two representatives of the Employer and two representatives of the Alberta Teachers' Association local. A quorum of this committee must consist of all members. The grievance committee must meet and give its decision in respect to the grievance within 21 days following receipt of the submission and shall dispose of each grievance before proceeding to another, except where by unanimous consent of the grievance committee, the hearing of such grievance is adjourned for the purpose of obtaining further information. If the grievance committee reaches a unanimous decision as to the disposition of any grievance, that decision shall be final and binding.

16.4 If the grievance committee does not reach a unanimous or any decision within the said time, then either party may by written notice served on the other party require the establishment of an arbitration board. Such notice must be given within 10 days after the date of the expiry of the 21 day limit.

16.5 Each party shall appoint one member as its representative on the arbitration board within seven days of such notice and must inform the other party of its appointee. The two members appointed must, within five days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the chairman. In the event of any failure to appoint a chairman either party may request the Director of Mediation Services to make the necessary appointment.

16.6 The arbitration board shall determine its own procedure but must give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and to be heard.

16.7 The arbitration board must not change, amend or alter any of the terms of this agreement. All grievances or differences submitted shall present an arbitrable issue under this agreement and must not depend on or involve an issue or contention by either party that is contrary to any provisions of this agreement or that involves the determination of a subject matter not covered by or arising during the term of this agreement.

16.8 The findings and decision of a majority is the award of the arbitration board and is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it. If there is not a majority, the decision of the chairman governs and it shall be deemed to be the award of the arbitration board.

16.9 The arbitration board shall give its decision not later than 14 days after the appointment of the chairman, however, this time period may be extended by written consent of the parties. Each party to the grievance shall bear the expense of its respective appointee and the two parties shall bear equally the expense of the chairman.

16.10 The time limits referred to in the grievance procedure shall be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays, statutory holidays and vacation periods.

16.11 If, at any stage of the procedure (except in respect of appointing persons to the board) the grieving party fails to take the necessary action within the time limit specified, the grievance shall be deemed to be at an end.

16.12 Any of the time limits in the grievance procedure may be extended at any stage upon the written consent of the parties.
