- A Policy Grievance will be signed by a Steward or a CLAC Representative, or in the case of an Employer's Policy Grievance, by the Employer or his representative.
- 22.03 All the time limits referred to in the grievance procedure herein contained will be deemed to mean "work days".
- 22.04 The Employer or the Union will not be required to consider or process any grievance which arose out of any action or condition more than five (5) work days after the subject of such grievance occurred. If the action or condition is of a continuing or recurring nature, this limitation period will not begin to run until the action or condition has ceased. The limitation period will not apply to differences arising between the parties hereto relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement. If the Employer does consider or process a grievance which has been presented late, the Employer will not be stopped or precluded at any stage from taking the position that the grievance is late and not arbitrable.

22.05 No employee will have a grievance until he has discussed his complaint with his Superintendent. If the employee's Superintendent does not promptly settle the matter to the employee's satisfaction, an employee's proper grievance may be processed as follows:

Step 1

Subject to the conditions of Article 6.05, if a grievance is to be filed it will, within the five (5) work days referred to in Article 22.04 above, be reduced to writing and will be presented to the designated Employer representative by a Steward or a CLAC representative. The designated Employer representative will notify the Union representative of his decision in writing not later than five (5) work days following the day upon which the grievance was submitted.

The grievance referred to above will identify:

- a) the facts giving rise to the grievance;
- b) the section or sections of the Agreement claimed violated;
- c) the relief requested;

and will be signed by the employee or employees involved.

Step 2

If the grievance is not settled in Step 1, a CLAC representative will within five (5) work days of the decision under Step 1, or within five (5) work days of the day this decision should have been made, submit a written grievance to the designated Employer Representative. A meeting will be held between the Steward or CLAC representative together with the grievor involved and the designated Employer representative and other representatives of the Employer. This meeting will be held within five (5) working days of the presentation of the written grievance to the designated Employer representative. The Employer will notify the Steward or CLAC Representative of his decision in writing within five (5) work days of such meeting.

Step 3

In the event that the grievance is not settled at Step 2 the party having the grievance may serve the other party with written notice of desire to arbitrate within five (5) work days of the delivery of the decision in Step 2 to the Steward or CLAC Representative but not thereafter.

22.06 Union Policy Grievance or Employer Grievance

A Union policy grievance or an Employer grievance may be submitted to the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, in writing, within ten (10) work days of the time circumstances upon which the grievance is based were known or should have been known by the griever. A meeting between the Employer and the Union will be held within five (5) work days of the presentation of the written grievance and will take place within the framework of Step 3 of Article 22.05 hereof. The Employer or the Union, as the case may be, will give its written decision within five (5) work days after such meeting has been held.

If the decision is unsatisfactory to the grieving party, the grievance may be submitted to arbitration within fifteen (15) work days of the delivery of such written decision and the arbitration section of this Agreement will be followed.

If the Employer is not advised of the Union's intention to proceed to arbitration within five (5) work days, the Employer will not be liable for any damages during the foregoing fifteen (15) work day period.

The provisions of this paragraph 22.06 will not be used by the Union to institute a grievance directly affecting an employee or employees which such employee or employees could themselves institute, and the provisions of Articles 22.04 and 22.05 hereof will not thereby be bypassed.

ARTICLE 23 - ARBITRATION

- 23.01 If a notice of desire to arbitrate is served, the two parties will each nominate an arbitrator within seven days of service and notify the other party of the name and address of its nominee. The two arbitrators so appointed will attempt to select, by agreement, a Chairman. If they are unable to agree upon a Chairman within seven days of their appointment, either party may request the Minister of Labour to appoint an impartial Chairman.
- 23.02 No person may be appointed as Chairman who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.
- 23.03 The decision of a majority is the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority the decision of the Chairman of the Arbitration Board governs.
- 23.04 Notices of desire to arbitrate and of nominations of an arbitrator will be served personally or by registered mail. If served by registered mail, the date of mailing will be deemed to be the date of service.

- 23.05 If a party refuses or neglects to answer a grievance at any stage of the Grievance Procedure, the other party may commence arbitration proceedings and if the party in default refuses or neglects to appoint an arbitrator in accordance with Article 23.01, the party not in default may, upon notice to the party in default, appoint a Single Arbitrator to hear the grievance and his decision will be final and binding upon both parties.
- 23.06 It is agreed that the Arbitration Board will have the jurisdiction, power and authority to give relief for default in complying with the time limits set out in Article 22 and 23 where it appears that the default was owing to a reliance upon the words or conduct of the other party.
- 23.07 An employee found to be wrongfully discharged or suspended will be reinstated without loss of seniority and with back pay calculated at an hourly rate or average earnings, as applicable, times normal hours, less any monies earned, or by any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the Arbitration Board.
- 23.08 Where the Arbitration Board is of the opinion that there is proper cause for disciplining an employee, but considers the penalty imposed too severe in view of the employee's employment record and the circumstance surrounding the discharge or suspension, the Arbitration Board may substitute a penalty which, in its opinion, is just and equitable. This cause will not apply to the discharge of a probationary employee.
- 23.09 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expenses of the arbitrator appointed by it, and the parties will jointly bear the expense of the Chairman of the Arbitration Board.
- 23.10 The Board of Arbitration will not be authorized to make any decisions inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify or amend any part of this Agreement, nor to adjudicate any matter not specifically assigned to it by the notice to arbitrate specified in Step 3 of Article 22.05 hereof.

ARTICLE 24 - DISCHARGE, SUSPENSION AND WARNING

An employee may be suspended or discharged for proper cause by the Employer. Proper cause may include the refusal by an employee to abide by Safety Regulations; the use of illegal narcotics or alcohol or reporting for work while under the influence of such substances; the refusal by the employee to abide by the requirements of the Employer's clients; the refusal by the employee to abide by the requirements of the Employer's rules, regulations, policies and practices. Such suspension or discharge is subject to the Grievance procedure.

When the attitude or performance of an employee calls for a warning by the Employer, such a warning will be noted by the foreman/supervisor. The foreman/supervisor will inform the Union Steward of the warning within twenty-four (24) hours.
