Re: Electronic Accreditation

This letter outlines the eligibility and standards for the different levels of electronic accreditation for electricians at Norbord's Cochrane mill.

There will be (2) levels of accreditation, available to all Electrician 'A's.

Level 1 - $0.34/hr premium (not pyramided) Level 2 - $0.35/hr premium (not pyramided)

The first level requires completion of Allen Bradley's Basic PLC course or recognized equivalent, along with a proven ability to use the PLC as a trouble shooting tool. In addition the electrician must be able to make basic program changes and forces required to repair and keep equipment running through their shift.

The second (and final) level requires the electrician to be capable of writing a basic program on his/her own as well as being able to trace and trouble-shoot the data manipulation

Qualifications to be assessed by the Lead Electrician and the Electrical Supervisor upon a candidates' review.	000
