PREAMBLE

The purpose of this Agreement is to establish and maintain satisfactory working conditions, hours and wages, to provide an amicable method of settling differences or grievances which might arise and to maintain harmonious relations between the Company and all employees covered by this Agreement. However, this preamble shall not conflict with contractual arrangements as set out in the body of the Agreement.

The masculine pronoun, whenever used in this Agreement, shall include the feminine.

ARTICLE 1

RECOGNITION

Section 1.01

The Union, shall be the exclusive collective bargaining representative of all employees in the bargaining unit which consists of all employees of the Company in the Province of Ontario, in the soft drink and allied industries, except:

- (a) supervisors, persons above the rank of supervisor;
- (b) office, drivers and sales staff.

Section 1.02

The Company will supply to the Union a list of the supervisory/managerial personnel whose duties are supervisory or managerial but who may occasionally relieve an employee in the bargaining unit for a short period or work emergency situations or to train or demonstrate.

The performance by supervisory/managerial personnel of work in these circumstances shall not result in the layoff of a bargaining unit employee, nor is it intended that supervisory/managerial personnel will replace bargaining unit employees who are on layoff.

Section 1.03

It is agreed that the drivers will not perform the work of the bargaining unit, nor shall they displace members of the bargaining unit at any time.

ARTICLE 2

CHECKOFF OF DUES, INITIATION AND RE-INITIATION FEES

Section 2.01

All employees must immediately assign to the Union through payroll checkoff the current monthly Union dues by signing the regular Dues Authorization and Application for Membership Card or the equivalent should the format of this card be changed, which will then be forwarded to the Union Office. "Employee" shall include seasonal, probationary, and seniority employees.

Section 2.02(a)

The Company shall be advised of the amount of the current monthly Union dues to be deducted by written notice from the Local Union's Secretary-Treasurer.

Section 2.02(b)

The Company agrees to deduct initiation fees from each employee upon the completion of his probationary period on the first pay week and forward said amount on the current prebilling list.

The list shall include the employee's name, address, starting rate, postal code, date of birth, seniority date, hourly rate of pay, department or payroll employee number and any other pertinent information.

Section 2.02(c)

The Company agrees to deduct re-initiation fees and assessments if requested to do so by the Union.

Section 2.03

Union dues shall be deducted on a monthly basis, the first pay week in the month, the full amount of which will be remitted to the Union Office within ten (10) days from the date the deductions were made.

Section 2.04

Dues authorization cards shall remain in effect during the term of an employee's service with the Company.

Section 2.05

The Union office is presently acknowledged as Teamsters Local Union 938, 275 Matheson Blvd. E., Mississauga, Ontario L4Z 1X8.

Section 2.06

The Union will notify the Company in writing of any arrears in dues caused for any reason or any arrears in initiation or re-initiation fees and the Company will immediately commence deductions in amounts prescribed by the Local Union in such written notice and forward such moneys to the Local Union along with the monthly dues as provided for above. Such notice of arrears served on the Company shall prescribe payroll deductions of not more than twenty-five dollars ($25.00) per week. The Union will refund directly to the employee any such moneys deducted in error.

Section 2.07

The Company agrees to continue to use the Union's prebilling system for dues and other requested deductions and will forward all required information.

Section 2.08

The Company will show the yearly Union's dues deductions on employees' T-4 slips.

Section 2.09

A seniority list containing names, addresses, seniority date and job hourly rate of employees as contained in the records of the Company will be prepared and forwarded to the Local Union office annually during September of each year.

ARTICLE 3

UNION SECURITY

Section 3.01

All employees shall become and remain members in good standing of the Union as a condition of employment, upon completion of the probationary period.

Section 3.02

The Business Representative assigned by the Local Union, or his designate, may enter the Company's premises for purposes of representation, investigation and general goodwill. The assigned or accredited business Representative shall use best efforts to provide notice of such visits.

ARTICLE 4

MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

Section 4.01

The Union acknowledges that, except as specifically restricted herein in the Collective Agreement, it is solely and exclusively the right of the Company to manage and operate its plant and business and without limiting the generality of the foregoing management rights shall include the right to:

- (a) maintain order, discipline and efficiency;
- (b) hire, transfer, promote, demote, classify, discipline and discharge employees provided that a claim that a seniority employee has been disciplined or discharged without just cause may be dealt with as provided in the Grievance Procedure;
- (c) supervise, direct and assign work to employees within the bargaining unit.

Section 4.02

It is understood that in exercising these functions the Company must comply with all other clauses of this Agreement. When an employee is disciplined or discharged the appropriate Steward, Chief Steward and the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union will be given, in writing, reasons for such action.

The notice will be sent directly to the Local Union office for the attention of the Business Representative.

When an employee is disciplined, suspended or discharged pending investigation, the Company shall provide written notice outlining the matter under investigation within twenty-four (24) hours.

Section 4.03

In the imposition of discipline, prior suspensions and disciplinary written warnings will not be referred to or relied upon by the Company after twelve (12) months provided there has been no other disciplinary written warnings or suspensions issued in the twelve (12) month period, but in no case shall a written warning or suspension be referred to or relied upon once eighteen (18) months has elapsed since it was issued.

ARTICLE 5

UNION ACTIVITIES

Section 5.01

No employee shall be discriminated against or discharged for his activity as a Union member or for doing committee or other work for the Union provided, however, that permission from the Company is obtained if such activities occur during working hours and interfere with employee's normal duties on behalf of the Company. It is agreed that such permission, if requested, will not be unreasonably withheld in any instance.

Section 5.02

The Chief Steward shall be scheduled to work steady day shifts.

Section 5.03

The Company will provide for up to two (2) days per year paid leave of absence per Steward to attend Union sanctioned seminars and/or educational programs up to a total maximum ten (10) working days per year.

ARTICLE 6

10

PROTECTIVE CLOTHING, UNIFORMS AND SAFETY EQUIPMENT

Section 6.01

Prior to March 1st of each year the Company will supply the following with input from the Union with respect to quality, fit and cost:

- (a) employees three (3) pants and five (5) shirts to be issued prior to March 1st each year;
- (b) laboratory coats four (4) each year for syrup and quality control personnel.
- (c) all full time employees who have completed their probationary period shall be issued one (1) winter jacket every three (3) years. Such jacket will be available by November 1st, 1999.

The Company will provide outside yard and lift truck operators on the shipping dock with one (1) winter jacket every two (2) years by October 1. For employees who are temporarily assigned to work in these areas, the Company will make winter jackets available for their use while so engaged and such jackets are to remain on the Company premises.

If a new regular employee receives his first uniform issuance within six (6) months of the next annual issuance, he will not be entitled to the regular annual issuance. Employees have the choice of either cotton or polyester.

It is the responsibility of the employee to maintain and to wear the uniform while at work.

Section 6.02

The Company will on January 15th of 2005, issue a cheque in the amount of one hundred and seventy dollars ($170.00) to each employee for the purchase of CSA approved "Green Patch" safety footwear. The boot allowance will be increased to one hundred and eighty dollars ($180.00) effective January 15, 2006, one hundred and ninety dollars ($190.00) effective January 15, 2007, two hundred dollars ($200.00) effective January 15 2008 and two hundred ten dollars ($210.00) effective January 15, 2009. The wearing of such footwear is a condition of employment. This amount will be pro-rated upon completion of the probationary period. Employees are required to maintain footwear in good condition. Footwear will be replaced by the Employer if replacement is needed due to work-related damage.

ARTICLE 7

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

Section 7.01

The Company will recognize a Union In-Plant Committee comprising of a Chief Steward and Steward(s):

Production Department: Bottle & Canning	1 Steward each shift
Warehouse/Shipping-Receiving:	1 Steward
Maintenance Department:	1 Steward
Quality Control/Syrup Maker:	1 Steward

Section 7.02

The procedure for handling complaints or grievances of employees shall be as follows: an employee who has a complaint or question shall ordinarily discuss the matter with his Supervisor, but if this does not satisfy him or if for any reason his complaint is of such a nature that he prefers to refer it to his Steward first, he may do so.

Section 7.03 - Step No. 1

If a complaint or grievance is referred by an employee to his Steward, the Steward shall present the matter to the Supervisor of the employee involved within five (5) working days from the time such grievance arose or became apparent and shall endeavour to arrange a satisfactory settlement.

Section 7.03 - Step No. 2

If such settlement cannot be arranged the Steward shall then state the grievance in writing in triplicate and give the Supervisor five (5) days or sooner to provide a written answer.

Section 7.04 - Step No. 3

If the decision of the Supervisor is not acceptable to the employee or Union, the Chief Steward may appeal the decision within five (5) working days after the Supervisor's decision to the Supervisor's immediate Manager. The Supervisor's immediate Manager will give an answer in writing within five (5) working days or sooner after the day on which the grievance was presented to him.

Section 7.05 - Step No. 4

If the decision of the Supervisor's immediate Manager is not acceptable to the employee or Union, the grievance may be presented within five (5) working days after the Supervisor's immediate Manager's decision by the employee's Chief Steward to the Executive Management, to be taken up at a meeting arranged between Management and the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union or his designate which will be held within five (5) working days or a mutually agreed to time. The grievor, Chief Steward, Steward will also attend if available.

One or two additional representatives of the Union's choice may be present at this meeting if requested either by the Company or Business Representative assigned by the Local Union. Unless otherwise agreed, Management shall give its decision in writing to the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union or his designate within five (5) working days following the meeting.

Section 7.06 - Arbitration

If the decision of Management is not satisfactory to the Union, the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union may, by serving written notice within thirty (30) days of the date on which Management's decision was received, appeal therefrom to an impartial arbitrator selected by the Company and the Union. In the event agreement to an arbitrator cannot be reached either party may apply to the Minister of Labour for the Province of Ontario to appoint an Arbitrator.

Section 7.07

The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator shall be shared equally by the parties hereto.

Section 7.08

An arbitrator shall not alter, add to, subtract from, modify or amend any part of this Agreement. He shall, however, in respect of a grievance involving the suspension or discharge of an employee, be entitled to set aside or substitute such other penalty as to the arbitrator seems just and reasonable in all the circumstances.

Section 7.09

With respect to grievances involving discharge, the grievance shall be put in writing and Step Nos. 1, 2 and 3 shall be omitted and the grievance shall be dealt with by starting with Step No. 4 herein.

Section 7.10

It is also agreed that if any dispute arises between the parties to this Agreement concerning the general policy of either of the Union or the Company which affects the orderly administration of this Agreement that either party may invoke the Grievance Procedure and arbitration beginning with a conference at Step No. 4.

Section 7.11

Time limits at any step of the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the parties.

ARTICLE 8

SENIORITY

Section 8.01

Seniority shall be based upon total length of continuous service with the Company.

Section 8.02

Employees shall attain seniority after having worked for six hundred (600) hours within a twelve (12) month period. An employee's seniority date shall be the date of the completion of the six hundred (600) hour probation period.

Section 8.03

Seniority shall govern in the matter of promotions, demotions, layoffs and recalls after layoffs, provided the senior employee is qualified to perform the work required as outlined in Section 11.02.

Section 8.04

Employees will be placed on a plant-wide seniority list.

Section 8.05

Seniority lists shall be revised and posted on Union Bulletin Boards every three (3) months and copies shall be supplied to the Chief Steward and Stewards with copies mailed to the attention of the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union to the Union office.

ARTICLE 9

TERMINATION OF SENIORITY

Section 9.01

Seniority shall cease and employment shall be terminated for any of the following reasons:

- (a) if an employee quits;
- (b) if an employee is absent from work for two (2) or more consecutive days without having notified the Company and received permission to be absent in advance where that is possible;
- (c) if an employee has been laid off and fails to report for work within seven (7) days after written notice to report to work has been mailed to his last address registered with the Company, provided that when an employee is recalled to work and does not report within forty-eight (48) hours, the Company may recall the next employee in line, but he is subject to being displaced if the first employee recalled does report within seven (7) days;
- (d) if an employee has been discharged for just cause and is not reinstated due to the Grievance or Arbitration Procedure;
- (e) in case of layoff for a period of twelve (12) months or equal to his seniority if less than twelve (12) months.

ARTICLE 10

LAYOFF AND RECALL

Section 10.01

In the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off according to their plant seniority provided the senior employee is qualified and able to perform the work of the employee he displaces.

Section 10.02

Employees with seniority who are laid off shall be recalled in reverse order to that in which they were laid off, provided the senior employee(s) are qualified to perform the work required, as outlined in Section 11.02.

Section 10.03

In the event of the curtailment of business or in the event of changed conditions which will cause a shortage of work, the Company will endeavour to post and to give the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union notice by 12:00 noon Wednesday of the week preceding the effective date of the layoff of the Company's intention to layoff regular employees or to schedule some of them for less than full time hours or for hours other than regular hours in lieu of layoff.

This notice will permit discussion of the problem and provide an opportunity for either the Business Representative assigned by the Local Union or the Company to make suggestions which could eliminate or reduce the extent of the layoff or short time situation anticipated.

Separation papers and pay slips will be provided within five (5) working days of the notice of layoff where the layoff is for five (5) working days or greater.

Records of Employment will be provided within five (5) working days of the notice of layoff where the layoff is for five (5) working days or greater.

ARTICLE 11

JOB POSTINGS, PROMOTIONS, VACANCIES AND TRANSFERS

Section 11.01

If a vacancy should occur in any bargaining unit position in the plant, the Company will post a notice on the plant bulletin boards in all departments, setting forth the nature of the job, the rate of pay and shift (day, night or rotation). All regular employees only shall have the right to apply for the job on forms and in the manner agreed by the Company and the Union, The notice shall be posted for five (5) working days and all applications must be made within this time. Whenever necessary this period may be extended by agreement between the Company and the Union.

Section 11.02

The Company will consider all applicants, with consideration of seniority. The senior qualified applicant will be provided with a training period of up to five (5) days during which time the Company may evaluate employees on the job. An employee who successfully completed the training and/or any evaluations shall be confirmed in the job. An employee who does not successfully complete the training and/or any evaluations shall be returned to his previous job.

In the event of jobs requiring certifications from the Ontario Government or the Quality Assurance Technician jobs, the Company will consider all applicants, with consideration of skill and ability, physical fitness and seniority. Where skill and ability and physical fitness are relatively equal among the applicants, the senior qualified applicant will be given preference.

Section 11.03

No posting shall be required for a vacancy resulting from vacations, illness or injury lasting less than thirty (30) days. Under these circumstances, the Company will attempt to fill these vacancies with senior qualified employees, if possible.

Section 11.04

A transfer is the relocation of an employee to a vacancy in a classification other than his present classification.

Section 11.05

Employees on vacation will be provided reasonable opportunity to make such written application for all postings in accordance with the following:

The employee shall furnish a Steward with written authorization to make application for specific job postings should they become available while he is on vacation. It is understood it is the sole responsibility of the employee to authorize the Steward to make the application. The Steward shall then make the application on his behalf.

ARTICLE 12

SHIFTS AND SHIFT PREMIUM

Section 12.01

There shall be no split shifts for employees. An employee shall work a full shift of eight (8) hours, ten (10) hours, twelve (12) hours or any other shift as agreed between the Company and the Union.

Weekend Shift

The parties agree to institute the following weekend shift schedule on a trial basis. The period of the trial shall be from March 1, 2005 through September 15, 2005. Immediately upon the conclusion of the trial the parties shall meet to discuss any proposed amendments to the weekend shift schedule with a view to implementing a mutually agreeable weekend shift schedule on an ongoing basis. In the event that the parties are unable to reach an agreement on a new weekend shift by December 31, 2005, the parties agree that the continuation of the weekend shift schedule shall be put to a vote of the membership within the first two (2) weeks of January 2006.

Weekend shifts to be defined as 12 hour shifts to be scheduled Saturday and Sunday. The hours of this shift will be 7:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. Employees will indicate their interest by signing a sign-up sheet. Weekend shifts to be scheduled by seniority provided they have the skill and ability to perform such work.

The shift premiums for the weekend shift schedule shall be as follows:

Temporary/Probationary Employees	-	$1.40/hour for all hours worked
Forklift/Machine Operator/ Shipper/Receiver/General Soft Drink Worker		$2.18/hour for all hours worked
QC Technician/Syrup Maker/General Mechanic		$2.26/hour for all hours worked
Licensed Mechanic/ Electrician/Electromechanic PLC Programmer		$3.49/hour for all hours worked

For weekend shifts, any hours worked on the third day will be paid at the overtime rate of one and one-half (1½) and the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh day will be paid at the overtime rate of double time (2x). For weekend shifts, breaks will be as per outlined above for 12 hour shifts; i.e., two (2) paid thirty (30) minute breaks.

Section 12.02

Afternoon or night shift shall be referred to in this article as a shift which commences on or after 3 PM but before 3 AM. Seniority and probationary employees required to work these shifts will be paid a shift premium. The shift premium will only be paid to employees who work these shifts and shall not be paid to employees whose shift commences before 3 PM or after 3 AM.

Section 12.03

The shift premium shall be as follows:

Afternoon Shift Commencing at 3:00 p.m. or later
Afternoon Shift Premium - .60¢/hr.

Night Shift Commencing at 7:00 p.m. or later
Night Shift Premium .70¢/hr

Section 12.04

The above mentioned shift premium will be separate and apart from the employee's hourly rate and are to be added to that rate while the employee works either afternoon or night shifts.

ARTICLE 13

NO STRIKE OR LOCKOUT CLAUSE

Section 13.01

In view of the orderly procedure arranged for the settlement of complaints and grievances, it is agreed that there will be no strikes or lockouts during the term of operation of this Agreement.

Section 13.02

If an employee in the bargaining unit encounters a bona fide picket line, in support of a lawful strike, in the course of his normal duties there shall be an immediate conference between the parties hereto before any decision is made by either party as to whether the picket line should or should not be respected.

ARTICLE 14

NOTICE BOARDS

Section 14.01

The Company agrees to provide notice boards for the exclusive use of the Union. The Union will post notices of meetings or other official Union notices duly signed by an Officer or Business Representative of the Union.

ARTICLE 15

ESTABLISHMENT OF CLASSIFICATIONS

Section 15.01

Upon the establishment of a new classification not shown in the Agreement, the Company will notify the Union in writing. Such job classification and rate will be subject to negotiation between the parties.

Section 15.02

If the parties fail to reach agreement within ten (10) working days after the date of the written notice in 15.01, the new classification and rate will be implemented. The matter may then be treated as a grievance and submitted to an arbitrator pursuant to the provision of Section 7.06 within fifteen (15) days of the date of implementation of the new classification and rate.

The arbitrator's decision shall be limited to the matter in dispute and to determining the propriety of the classification and/or rate in dispute.

ARTICLE 16

HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

Section 16.01

- (a) Any hours worked on the sixth (6th) day in excess of eleven (11) hours will be paid at double time.
- (b) (i) For employees on ten (10) hours of work four (4) days a week, the fifth (5th) day shall be paid at time and one-half, and each additional day thereafter shall be paid at double time.

(ii) For employees on eight (8) hour shifts five (5) days a week, the sixth (6th) day shall be paid at time and one-half and each additional day thereafter shall be paid at double time.
- (c) For employees working a continental work week, of four (4) twelve (12) hour shifts (rotating shift-days and nights on a two (2) week rotating schedule) the fifth (5th) consecutive day worked will be paid at double (2) time as well as any other consecutive day which is worked. After twelve (12) straight time hours worked in the shift the employees will be paid at double (2) time for the extra time worked in the shift. Employees shall receive two (2) thirty (30) minute paid breaks during the twelve (12) hour shift. The Company shall grant a paid fifteen (15) minute break period for each two (2) hours of overtime worked plus a meal allowance if overtime is in excess of two (2) hours on a four (4) day twelve (12) hour shift schedule. Any non-consecutive days which are worked will be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1½). Upon commencing the regular scheduled shift the rate of pay will be at straight time hourly rate.
- (d) The basic work week shall consist of five (5) days of eight (8) hours of work and/or four (4) days of ten (10) hours of work. Any time worked in excess of eight (8) hours in any one (1) day shall be paid for at time and one-half (1½) the basic wage rate and hours worked in excess of eleven (11) in an eight (8) hour day shall be paid for at the rate of double (2) time. Any time worked in excess of ten (10) hours in any one day shall be paid for at time and one-half (1½) the basic wage rate and any hours worked in excess of thirteen (13) hours in a ten (10) hour day shall be paid for at the rate of double (2) time.
- (e) Subject to shift transfers for reasons of vacation, WSIB and weekly indemnity related relief, shift rotations will be on a two (2) week schedule.

Section 16.02

It is agreed that in the case of an employee or employees scheduled to exceed a basic work day, they must then complete their work schedule. However, they may be excused on presentation of satisfactory personal reasons at the time of being requested to work overtime or may be released from such work assignments if satisfactory replacement is immediately available.

Section 16.03

It is agreed that it is the function of the Company to determine when overtime is necessary and to schedule overtime work.

Section 16.04

For employees on eight (8) hour shifts there shall be two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods, one taken before and the other after the lunch period and one (1) one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour unpaid lunch period per day, one taken before and the other after the lunch period. If an employee is scheduled to work at least two (2) hours in addition to his regular shift he shall be allowed additional fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods at the beginning of the overtime period and after each two (2) hours of overtime worked.

Section 16.04(a)

For employees on ten (10) hour shifts there shall be two (2) twenty (20) minute paid rest periods and one (1) one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) hour unpaid lunch period per day, one taken before and the other after the lunch period. If an employee is scheduled to work at least two (2) hours in addition to his regular shift he shall be allowed additional fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods at the beginning of the overtime period and after each two (2) hours of overtime worked.

Rest periods shall not be added to or taken in conjunction with the unpaid lunch period. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the Company schedules a three (3) shift operation of eight (8) hour shifts, there shall be no scheduled lunch period but the two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods shall be taken consecutively.

Section 16.05

There shall be no pyramiding of overtime.

Section 16.06

In the event of any unscheduled overtime worked by plant employees, immediately after his regular shift, a meal allowance of twelve dollars ($12.00) will be paid if worker's overtime is in excess of two (2) hours or the Company, with the agreement of the employees involved, may order a meal to be brought into the plant for the employees.

Section 16.07

The Company agrees to notify the employee(s) of changes in schedule from a four (4) day to a five (5) day week, or from a five (5) day to a four (4) day week, or other shifts, no less than one (1) week in advance and the Company will endeavour to notify employees of such change(s) two (2) weeks in advance. The Company shall endeavour to post such revised schedule by 12:00 noon Wednesday of the week preceding the start of the revised schedule. The Union will be informed of any such change to the schedule as soon as possible.

Section 16.08

The Company will endeavour to distribute overtime as equitably as possible to employees in the department where the work is to be performed by classification as defined in Article 20.02 except that Grade 6 Syrup and Concentrate Handlers and Grade 8 Licenced Mechanics, Electricians and Refrigeration B Licence/4th Class Stationary Engineers Licence holders shall each be considered as a separate classification. Overtime refused or occasions where an employee is not available to work overtime shall be considered to be overtime worked for the purpose of distribution. The phrase "not available" shall not include leaves of absence for Union business.

A list shall be maintained outlining overtime distribution which shall be made available for an employee to view upon request. Hours worked in the event of an emergency shall not be added to the list.

The Company will provide a letter to the Union clarifying "department".

Section 16.09

In the event of changes to the schedule in an emergency situation the Company shall notify the employee at least twenty-four (24) hours in advance. Failure to do so shall result in the employee being paid time and one-half for the first shift.

ARTICLE 17

PLANT HOLIDAYS

Section 17.01

The Company will observe the following plant holidays:

New Year's Day
Day After New Year's Day (January 2)
Good Friday
Victoria Day
Canada Day (July 1)
Civic Holiday (First Monday in August)
Labour Day
Thanksgiving Day
Day Before Christmas Day
Christmas Day
Boxing Day

In order to qualify for holiday pay, an employee must work his regular scheduled work day immediately preceding the holiday and his regular scheduled work day following the holiday. An employee who is absent by reason of illness or excused by the Company shall receive his holiday pay provided the employee notifies the Company of his absence. The Company may request proof of illness and may require a doctor's certificate.

Any holiday forthcoming from either the Provincial or Federal Government different from those mentioned in Section 17.01 will be added to and received by the regular employees.

Employees on a continental shift schedule who work on the holiday will be paid double (2) time for hours worked in addition to the holiday pay.

Should the Company require the employee to work the holiday because of business requirements, it is understood the employee will cooperate under these circumstances.

Should the Company require employees to work the holiday because of business requirements the Company will first use the posted overtime list to determine if a sufficient number of qualified employees can be identified.

If any of the said holidays should fall on an employee's scheduled day(s) off, they will be observed either on the preceding or following the regular scheduled work day at the discretion of the Company.

Section 17.02

Employees on the seniority list will receive eight (8) hours or ten (10) hours or twelve (12) hours straight time pay as the case may be for each such holiday.

Section 17.03

In a calendar week in which one (1) or more plant holidays is observed, the number of days in that week which may be worked at straight time shall be reduced by the number of such holidays.

Section 17.04

When an employee is required to work any hours on any of the plant holidays referred to in Section 17.01, he shall receive double (2) time for the hours worked in addition to pay for the holiday and if called in to work on such a day he shall be provided at least four (4) hours of work or pay at the double (2) time rate.

Section 17.05

When any of these holidays are observed during an employee's vacation he shall receive one (1) day's pay for each of such holidays in addition to his regular vacation payment.

ARTICLE 18

VACATIONS

Section 18.01 - Vacation Leave

Seniority (date probationary period is completed) shall be the date established to qualify for vacations.

In each year vacation leave will be established for all regular employees according to the following scales:

- (a) regular employees who have one (1) year or more seniority - two (2) weeks;
- (b) regular employees who have five (5) or more years' seniority - three (3) weeks;
- (c) regular employees who have ten (10) or more years' seniority - four (4) weeks;
- (d) regular employees who have seventeen (17) or more years' seniority - five (5) weeks;
- (e) regular employees who have twenty-five (25) or more years' seniority - six (6) weeks.

Section 18.02

Summer vacations shall be limited to two (2) weeks which may be scheduled during the period June 1st to September 15th but wherever practical vacation shall be taken outside this period if mutually satisfactory to the employee and management.

The Company will provide a bonus of one hundred and fifty dollars ($150.00) to each employee who elects to take his vacation weeks outside the summer vacation period. This payment will be paid with the last week's vacation pay but no later than September 15 annually.

Additional weeks of vacation may be taken outside the regular summer vacation period at a time mutually satisfactory to the employee and Management.

All requests shall be submitted to the Company by March 1st. The Company will approve or disapprove the requests in writing by March 30th.

Section 18.03

Employees shall have the choice of vacation periods in accordance with their seniority, subject however to the Company's right to limit the number who may take vacations in the respective classifications in the interest of efficient operations.

Section 18.04 - Vacation Pay

For each week of vacation leave an employee shall receive forty (40) hours pay at his regular hourly wage rate or two per centum (2%) per week based on previous year's gross earnings shown on the T-4 slip, whichever is the greater amount.

Section 18.05

Vacation must be taken within a calendar year.

Section 18.06 - Vacation Payment on Termination

All terminations shall be handled on the following basis.

- (a) Employees who had received their vacations earned prior to termination shall receive a pro rata payment of four per centum (4%), six per centum (6%), eight per centum (8%), ten per centum (10%) or twelve per centum (12%).
- (b) Employees who had not received their earned vacations prior to termination shall receive their regular vacation pay in addition to a pro rata payment of four per centum (4%), six per centum (6%), eight per centum (8%), ten per centum (10%) or twelve per centum (12%).
- (c) An employee who is terminated for just cause and the termination is upheld shall receive vacation payments as prescribed by the Ontario Employment Standards Act.

ARTICLE 19

BEREAVEMENT ALLOWANCE

Section 19.01

Should a bereavement occur in a regular employee's immediate family (spouse, daughters or sons, parents, grandparents, brothers or sisters, father-in-law and mother-in-law) he may request a bereavement leave and he shall be granted such time off with pay as is reasonable under the circumstances to enable him to look after funeral arrangements or to attend the funeral. The extent of such leave shall be at the discretion of the Company, depending upon the time of the bereavement in relation to his regular time off, the distance to be travelled, etc. The general standard of bereavement time off shall be three (3) consecutive days.

Section 19.02

Providing prior permission is received, in the event an employee attends the funeral of a brother-in-law or sister-in-law on a regular scheduled work day, time off with pay shall be granted.

ARTICLE 20

WAGE RATES AND CLASSIFICATIONS

Section 20.01

SEE WAGE SCHEDULE ATTACHED

All senior employees with tradesman classification and at least one (1) year of seniority shall receive reimbursement for the replacement of tools (upon producing original receipts) to a maximum of three hundred dollars ($300.00) per calendar year.

Licensed Mechanics/Electricians with a valid Refrigeration B Licence from the Ontario Government or who will possess a minimum of a valid 4th Class Stationary Engineers Licence from the Ontario Government when actively working and assigned to perform duties for which, by statute, they are required to possess such licence, shall receive two dollars ($2.00) per hour above his/her normal wage rate for such work. A list of those employees actively working within this category shall be maintained on a regular basis.

Operator/Changeover Technician (effective 2005)

The parties agree to the creation of a new classification called Operator/Changeover Technician in 2005. The parties agree to meet to finalize the training, testing and certification components for this classification and the staffing of the classification by December 31, 2004. The intention of the parties is that employees who become certified in this classification will receive fifty cents (50¢) per hour above the rate of pay for the Operator classification upon certification and an additional fifty cents (50¢) per hour one (1) year following the date of certification. The parties agree that this rate will be paid only while the employee actually performs the duties of the classification.

Forklift Operators who move full goods from the Production Line and who are assigned strictly to such work shall receive a premium of twenty-five cents (25¢) per hour commencing February 1, 2005.

Section 20.02 - Seasonal Employees

- (a) A seasonal employee is one who is hired during the period March 1st up to and including September 15th in each year and/or to assist in peak periods.
- (b) Seasonal employees are not hired with the intent of becoming seniority employees.

- (c) Seasonal employees are entitled to all payments required by law and have no claim to the benefits available to seniority employees.
- (d) Seasonal employees shall be given the opportunity should full time employment become available provided they have completed the six hundred (600) hours of work with the Company in the year. In that circumstance the employee will not have to complete the six hundred (600) hours probationary period to obtain seniority as provided in clause 8.02.
- (e) Seasonal employees shall not displace seniority employees.
- (f) The provisions of the Collective Agreement which apply to seasonal employees are wages and payment of Union dues.
- (g) Seniority employees shall have job preference over seasonal employees providing they have the skills and qualifications.

Section 20.03 - Lead Hands

Lead hands shall not have managerial authority but may be assigned to direct the work force under the direction of management. Lead hands are required to perform their normal work duties. The selection of lead hands will be made by the Company. The Company agrees to discuss any problems with the Union should the lead hand stray from the normal duties generally assigned to lead hands.

Section 20.04

The regular weekly or bi-weekly pay day shall be established by the Company. Employees shall either receive their pay before leaving the plant or the Company shall make direct bank deposit to the employee's account.

Section 20.05

An employee who is temporarily transferred to a lower rate classification for the convenience of the Company shall continue to receive his usual rate.

Section 20.06

Employees who are transferred to a higher rated job for a minimum of four (4) hours shall receive the higher rate while so employed.

Section 20.07

Employees who are transferred to a lower rated job to avoid layoff will receive the lower rate while so employed.

ARTICLE 21

REPORTING ALLOWANCE

Section 21.01

When an employee reports for work at the customary time scheduled for him without being notified to the contrary and is assigned less than four (4) hours of work he shall be paid at least four (4) hours at straight time rates.

It is understood that an employee may be assigned under such circumstances to work other than his regular assignment.

Section 21.02

When an employee is called in for breakdown or emergency work after leaving the plant following his regular shift and before returning to work for his regular shift and is assigned less than four (4) hours of extra work outside his regular shift hours, he shall be paid for at least four (4) hours at the appropriate overtime rate in addition to payment at straight time for any hours worked by him during his regular shift hours; except that if so called in within one hour before his regular starting time he shall be paid only for such extra time worked at the appropriate overtime rate and at straight time for regular shift hours worked.

ARTICLE 22

HEALTH & WELFARE PLANS AND PENSION PLAN (APPENDIX "A")

ARTICLE 23

EMPLOYER - EMPLOYEE RELATIONSHIP

Section 23.01

Employees shall conduct themselves in an orderly and respectful manner when addressing the Company or its representatives and in return the employee or his representatives shall receive fair and courteous treatment from the employer or its representatives.

ARTICLE 24

JURY DUTY

Section 24.01

An employee required as a juror or a subpoenaed crown witness shall be paid the difference between his juror's or witness fee and his regular work day.

ARTICLE 25

LEAVE OF ABSENCE

Section 25.01

The Company may grant leaves of absence without pay to any employee for legitimate reasons; such permission and request to be in writing. Request for leaves of absence shall not be unreasonably withheld in any instance. However, a leave of absence shall not be granted for the purpose of working elsewhere. When such permission is granted, there shall be no loss of seniority. Health & Welfare benefits will be maintained for a period of one (1) month. Should the leave be longer the Company will maintain the benefits provided the employee pays the required premium payments.

ARTICLE 26

SICK LEAVE (BANK)

Section 26.01

Commencing January 1 of each year all employees will be credited four (4) hours per month worked in their Sick.Bank.

Section 26.02

All unused sick hours at the end of the calendar year will be paid by January 15th of the following year at the rate of one hundred per centum (100%) of the unused hours. The formula shall be the hours times the appropriate hourly rate. If an employee uses any sick hours during the year he shall be paid sixty-six and two-thirds per centum ($66\frac{2}{3}\%$) of his hourly rate for each hour used.

Section 26.03

Probationary employees upon attaining seniority will receive sick bank hours to the end of the calendar year at the rate of four (4) hours per month.

ARTICLE 27

NEGOTIATING COMMITTEE

Section 27.01

It is agreed that the Negotiating Committee for the Union shall be comprised of the Business Representative, the Chief Steward and one (1) Steward from each of the following four (4) departments:

1. Production Department (Bottle & Canning)
2. Warehouse/Shipping-Receiving
3. Maintenance
4. Quality Control/Syrup Makers

The Negotiating Committee of five (5) members must have at least twelve (12) months' seniority with the Company at the time of their appointment.

Section 27.02

Members of the Negotiating Committee who are employees of the Company shall suffer no loss in pay for time spent during normal working hours attending negotiation, conciliation and mediation meetings with Company representatives.

Section 27.03

The Company agrees to pay the full cost of the printing of the new Collective Agreement in booklet or sheet form from a Union printing company. The Company will provide each seniority employee with a copy of the Collective Agreement and the Union Business Representative with twenty (20) copies of the Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 28

SAFETY

Section 28.01

The employees will cooperate in the strict observance of all safety regulations at all times.

They will make full use of all safety and accident prevention devices and equipment as provided, and maintain safe working practices during their hours of employment within the plant. It is the responsibility of the employees to observe all safety provisions and to immediately advise the Supervisor or Plant Manager, and the Joint Health and Safety Committee, of any unsafe working conditions.

Section 28.02

The Company agrees to continue to maintain provisions for the safety of its employees in its plant during the hours of employment and to provide an accident prevention program with reference to accident hazards. For the safety of employees operating in the plant, the Union members of The Joint Health and Safety Coininittee shall be appointed by the Union membership.

Section 28.03

Any outstanding matter relevant to safety conditions may be brought up and dealt with at a meeting between the Union and Management, should the matter not be resolved between The Joint Health and Safety Committee and the Company.

Section 28.04

It is the responsibility of the Company to maintain and insure that all equipment used by the employees be in proper operative condition.

ARTICLE 29

COMPANY RULES

Section 29.01

The Company shall have the right to establish, maintain and enforce or rescind, amend or change reasonable rules and regulations provided such rules and regulations are not in conflict with the provisions of this Agreement.

Section 29.02

Whenever a rule is changed or a new rule is established by the Company, the reasonableness of such changed or new rule may be made the subject of the Grievance Procedure within two (2) weeks of the date of the posting of same or the Union and employees will be presumed to agree that it is a reasonable rule and within the meaning of this Agreement. Any rule that is changed or any new rule that is established by the Company will be furnished to the Union in advance of the date of posting.

Section 29.03

The Company shall post on its bulletin board and shall keep posted for at least two (2) weeks, a written or printed copy of all such changed rules or new rules and regulations with a copy to the Union office and Stewards.

Section 29.04

Employees violating rules and regulations established by the Company may be subject to disciplinary action. Such disciplinary action shall be subject to the Grievance Procedure. A Copy of a written warning and/or discipline shall be forwarded to the Union office and supplied to the appropriate Steward.

ARTICLE 30

TERMINATION

Section 30.01

This Agreement shall be in full force and effect from February 1st, 2004 to January 31st, 2009, and shall automatically continue year to year for periods of one (1) year at a time unless either party serves notice on the other party not more than ninety (90) days and not less than thirty (30) days prior to an annual expiry date of its intention to terminate, revise or amend this Agreement.

ARTICLE 31

CONTRACTING OUT

Section 31.01

When it is necessary to contract out, the Company will inform the Union, prior to contracting out, and the Company will meet the Union to give them the opportunity to raise and discuss alternatives.

ARTICLE 32

TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE AND RETRAINING

Section 32.01

- a) A technological change is the introduction or addition of machines, equipment or instruments, or the modification thereof, where it results in the abolition of one (1) or more positions, or any significant modification of the employee's tasks or skills required to fulfil the requirements of the position.
- b) The Company shall give two (2) months' notice in writing to the Union of its intention to introduce a technological change.
- c) The Company shall give the first opportunity to receive any training required by such technological change to qualified seniority employees on the active payroll of the Company who have the skill, ability and physical fitness to perform the job. The Company may test employees to determine if they possess the skill, ability and physical fitness to receive the training. The Company may further test employees during any training period.

APPENDIX "A"
COTT BEVERAGES LIMITED

PARTICIPATION IN THE TEAMSTERS CANADIAN PENSION
TRUST FUND AND PLAN

1. For the duration of the current Collective Agreement between the Union and the Employer, and any renewals or extensions thereof, the Employer agrees to make payments to the Teamsters Canadian Pension Trust Fund and Plan for each seniority employee working in the job classifications covered by the collective bargaining agreement, equal to the following percentage of his gross earnings received from the Employer, as per the schedule listed below:
 - (a) Commencing September 13, 1997 increased to 5.25%
 - (b) Commencing September 10, 2001 increased to 5.50%
2. The Employer agrees to be bound by all of the terms, conditions and provisions of the Agreement and Declaration of Trust under which the Teamsters Canadian Pension Trust Fund and Plan is established and to carry out all of the duties and responsibilities of an Employer under such Agreement and Declaration of Trust, including as appropriate, naming or participating in the naming of Employer Trustees and Employer representatives on a Retirement Committee as provided for under the Teamsters Canadian Pension Trust Fund and Plan.
3. It is understood that contributions shall be payable in respect to the gross earnings of employees from the first day of attaining seniority. It is further understood that gross earnings shall mean all amounts paid to an employee which are reported as earnings to the employee on a T4 slip (or equivalent form should the designation of this form be changed) but shall not include amounts included as earnings on the T4 slip which are taxable benefits.

4. Contributions along with a list of employees for whom they have been made, the amount of gross earnings and the contributions in respect to the gross earnings for each employee, shall be forwarded by the Employer to the Plan Administrator or the financial institution acting as custodian of the assets of the Teamsters Canadian Pension Plan and Trust Fund and shall do so not later than twenty-one (21) days after the close of the Employer's four (4) or five (5) week accounting period.
5. Each Employer shall permit, upon the request of the Union or the Trustees, an auditor employed by either the Union or the Trustees to carry out an audit of the Employer's accounting and other records, to ensure that the Employer is paying to the Trustees all contributions due under the terms of the Collective Agreement.
6. The Employer shall also complete such forms and provide such information as the Trustees and Administrator of the Teamsters Canadian Pension Plan require from time to time in the administration and operation of the plan.
7. It is understood that:
 - (i) Under the Teamsters Canadian Pension Trust Fund and Plan the Employer is not liable to guarantee the benefits payable thereunder or assure the solvency of the Fund beyond the payment of contributions due pursuant to the Collective Agreement.
 - (ii) The Teamsters Canadian Pension Trust Fund and Plan is or will be registered under the provisions of the Income Tax Act of Canada and any other applicable Federal or Provincial law respecting employee pension plans.

APPENDIX "B"

GENERAL

The Company agrees to provide each seniority employee with one (1) free case each month of canned Soft Drink and one (1) case each month of bottled water. The Company shall select monthly a flavour of the month regarding the allotment of the two (2) cases. There may be substitution of either two (2) cases of bottled water or two (2) cases of canned Soft Drinks. Each employee will sign for their allotment - no proxies allowed.

APPENDIX "C"

COST OF LIVING ALLOWANCE (C.O.L.A.)

In the event that the Consumer Price Index, All Canada (1992 = 100), for the month of September 1998 stands at a value which is greater than such Index number for September 1997, increased by 6%, then a cost of living allowance will become payable during the period from September 1st, 1998 until September 1st, 1999. The amount of such adjustment will be one cent (1¢) per hour for each 0.3 points by which the September 1998 Index value exceeds the "trigger" value (i.e. the September 1997 value, plus six per centum (6%) rounded to the nearest 1/10th of a point).

Such cost of living allowance will be implemented immediately following the release by Statistics Canada of the September 1998 C.P.I. value, retroactive to September 1st, 1997. It will be treated as a separate adjustment (not part of the regular hourly rate) but will be paid for all hours paid for by the Company. It will be paid to all seniority employees. No account will be taken of any increase in the C.P.I. value which is in excess of the September 1998 value, increased by ten per centum (10%). The adjustment will be as described above.

This formula shall continue on the same basis from September each year thereafter.

APPENDIX "D"

WITHDRAWAL CARDS

Before a Withdrawal Card is issued the International Constitution and Local Union by-laws require that a member has paid all financial obligations to the Union.

Withdrawal Cards will be issued on request for the following reasons:

- 1) if you are Laid Off
- 2) if you Terminate Your Employment
- 3) if you are Discharged
- 4) if you are on Sickness or Injury
- 5) if you are on Workers' Compensation

It is the sole responsibility of the member to apply for a Withdrawal Card immediately he or she is to be off work for any of the above reasons. Before the Withdrawal Card is issued the member must have paid all dues or other financial obligations including the dues for the month in which the Withdrawal Card is applied for. The application must be sent directly to the Union office either in person or by mail. The application for a Withdrawal Card is self-explanatory but please complete all information especially your social insurance number.

Please follow the procedure so that you will always be in good standing in the Local Union. Withdrawal Card application forms are available from your Chief Steward or Steward.

APPENDIX "E"

WEEKEND SHIFT

1. The Collective Agreement is amended to the extent necessary to incorporate the following provisions. Wherever the terms of Appendix "E" conflict with provisions of the Collective Agreement, the provisions of Appendix "E" shall prevail. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following clauses of the Collective Agreement shall be inoperative with respect to weekend work and weekend workers except where it is specifically noted to the contrary.

2. Hours of Work

- (a) A weekend worker is defined as an employee who, on a regular basis, is scheduled to work on Saturday and Sunday.
- (b) Employees whose normal shift hours are set out in Article 16 of the Collective Agreement shall be referred to as weekday workers.
- (c) Weekend workers may be required to work on weekday shifts for the purpose of training.
- (d) A weekend is defined as those hours between 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.
- (e) Weekend workers shall work two (2) twelve (12) hour shifts, one on Saturday and one on Sunday. The normal shift hours are as follows:

Schedule A Saturday 7:00 a.m. -- 7:00 p.m.

- and -

Schedule B Sunday 7:00 a.m. -- 7:00 p.m.

- (f) Each employee working weekend shift hours of work shall receive two (2) thirty (30) minute paid breaks during the twelve (12) hour shift.
- (g) Weekend shift workers will receive a shift premium as outlined in Article 12 Section 12.01.

3. Pay

- (a) Weekend workers shall receive eighteen (18) hours pay at the base rate; of pay for the classification in which they are working as set out in Article 20 for each complete weekend shift worked (i.e., thirty-six (36) hours pay for each weekend worked).
- (b) If a weekend worker is required to work outside of the normal weekend hours of work they shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half. Any hours worked in excess of twelve (12) hours will be paid for at the rate of double (2) time.

4. Weekend Vacancies

Whenever a permanent opening occurs on a weekend shift, weekday workers will be eligible to bid for the opening along with weekend workers in accordance with Article 11 of the Collective Agreement. If no successful applicants are found from within the bargaining unit recourse will be had to the hiring procedure.

5. Vacations and Vacation Pay

Vacations and vacation pay shall be granted in accordance with Article 18 of the Collective agreement except that for weekend workers one weekend (twenty-four (24) hours) shall equal one (1) week's vacation.

6. Holidays

Same as current practice.

7. (a) Weekly Indemnity

Same as current collective agreement.

(b) Sickness

Same as above except the benefit is payable after the first twelve (12) hour shift missed.

8. Pension Plan

Same as current collective agreement.

9. Jury Duty

An employee called for jury duty shall be reimbursed by the Company for the difference between jury fees and the normal pay the employee would otherwise have received for the Saturday and/or Sunday for the actual time the employee is necessarily required to be absent from work,

10. Bereavement Leave

If the three (3) day or one (1) day leave involves Saturday and/or Sunday, the Company will pay the normal pay rate (eighteen (18) hours pay) for the Saturday and/or Sunday involved in accordance with the provisions of Article 19 of the Collective Agreement.

11. Available Overtime

Same as current collective agreement.

12. Reporting Pay

Reporting pay shall be provided in accordance with Article 21 of the Collective Agreement except that reporting pay will be nine (9) hours at the base rate of pay for the classification involved.

13. Seniority

- (a) In determining the probationary period of a weekend worker under Article 8.02, a weekend shift worked will be the equivalent of twelve (12) hours.
