Preamble

This Agreement made the 22nd day of December, 2011.

BETWEEN

ATB Financial
(hereinafter referred to as the "Employer")

of the first part

and

The Alberta Union of Provincial Employees
(hereinafter referred to as the "Union")

of the second part

WHEREAS, the Union has the sole right to negotiate and conclude a Collective Agreement on behalf of the Employees of the Employer pursuant to the Public Service Employee Relations Act;

WHEREAS, the Parties are mutually desirous of entering into a Collective Agreement with the intent and purpose to promote a harmonious relationship between the Employees and the Employer, while always acting in good faith, and to set forth in this Collective Agreement rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment.

WHEREAS, the Parties recognize that the success of Alberta Treasury Branches in a rapidly changing financial services industry requires flexibility and high standards of performance. The best income and security for Employees and the Employer will be achieved through employment conditions in this Agreement that are responsive to these market realities.

NOW THEREFORE, the Parties mutually agree as follows:

ARTICLE 1

DEFINITIONS

1.01 In this Agreement, unless the context otherwise requires:

- (a) A word used in the singular may also apply in the plural;
- (b) "Compensating Time Off" means time off which has been earned as overtime compensation and which is accrued in accordance with Clause 11.03.
- (c) "Continuous service" means:
 - (i) For Permanent or Term Employees employed as of October 8, 1997, their continuous service with the Crown in the Right of Alberta will be recognized by the Employer.
 - (ii) For employment of Permanent and Term Employees subsequent to October 8, 1997, continuous service shall accrue based on employment with the Employer.
 - (iii) Where a Casual Employee attains permanent status without a break in service, the Employee may request that the casual service be included in the calculation of continuous service on a pro-rated basis. The total hours of casual service in a period of unbroken employment will be totaled and divided by 157.67 to determine the number of months' service to be recognized.
 - (iv) If a terminated Permanent or Term Employee is re-employed within a period of less than six (6) months of the Employee's termination date, his/her service shall be deemed to be continuous service.
- (d) "Employee" means a person employed by the Employer who is in the bargaining unit covered by this Agreement and who is employed in one of the following categories:
 - (i) "Permanent Employees" means Employees who have completed the probationary period and who are employed in permanent positions.
 - (ii) "Term Employees" means Employees who are employed in term positions. A Term Employee's employment terminates at the conclusion of the Employee's current term position assignment.

(iii) "Casual Employees" means Employees employed:

1. on an on-call or irregularly scheduled basis , or
2. in a position with scheduled hours that are less than forty percent (40%) of full-time hours, or
3. on a temporary basis for a period of less than six (6) months.

Casual employment is not intended to circumvent the establishment of term and permanent positions where such positions are supported by operational requirements.

A Casual Employee will not be utilized in excess of 40% of full-time hours for a period of more than six months unless mutual agreement is reached between the Employer and the Union. If there is an ongoing operational requirement for hours in excess of 40% of full-time hours that is expected to continue for an additional three (3) months or more, the Employee will be offered term or permanent employment as appropriate, with a minimum of a term position for a three (3) month period. A term position will be established based on their average bi-weekly hours for the six (6) month period as identified above.

- (e) "Employer" means Alberta Treasury Branches.
- (f) "Immediate family" means an Employee's spouse (including common-law spouse), or any of the following relations of an Employee or spouse: child or ward, parent, guardian, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, or the spouse of any of them.
- (g) "Day" means calendar day, unless otherwise defined.
- (h) "Week" means a seven (7) day period beginning with Sunday.
- (i) "Month" means a calendar month.
- (j) "Permanent position" means a position designated by the Employer as continuing to meet ongoing operational requirements. Permanent positions may be Full-time or Part-time. A Part-time permanent position requires a regular work schedule for a Permanent Employee which is at least forty percent (40%) of the hours of a comparable Full-time permanent position.

- (k) "Probationary Employee" means an Employee employed in a permanent position, who during his/her initial period of employment is serving a probationary period.
- (l) "Term position" means a position designated by the Employer for a limited term with a set expiry date, and shall include:
 - (i) Leave replacement position in which the incumbent is employed to provide temporary relief during an approved leave of absence.
 - (ii) Project position in which the incumbent is employed for the duration of the project.
 - (iii) Term Employees, other than those in leave replacement or project positions, who are employed for a continuous period of eighteen (18) months in the same position shall become Permanent Employees. The term may be extended beyond the eighteen (18) months by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, in which case the Employee will not become a Permanent Employee.

A term position shall be at least six (6) months in duration and may be Full-time or Part-time. A Part-time term position requires a regular work schedule for a Term Employee that is at least forty percent (40%) of the hours of a comparable Full-time position.

- (m) "Union" means the Alberta Union of Provincial Employees.
- (n) "Union Representative" means the President of the Union, or an Officer or Staff Member of the Union designated by the President in writing pursuant to the Union's Constitution to perform a specific function pertaining to this Collective Agreement.
- (o) "Acting Incumbency" means a temporary assignment which consists of performing the majority of the duties of a role in a higher pay range for a period of not less than five (5) consecutive work days and not greater than three (3) months.
- (p) "Short Term Incumbency" means a temporary assignment to an alternate position in a higher pay range for a period of more than three (3) months and less than twelve (12) months.

ARTICLE 2

MANAGEMENT RECOGNITION

- 2.01 The Union recognizes that all functions, rights, powers and authority which the Employer has not specifically abridged, delegated or modified by this Agreement are retained by the Employer.

ARTICLE 3

EMPLOYEE RELATIONS COMMITTEE

- 3.01 A Joint Employee Relations Committee shall operate during the term of this Agreement to discuss matters of mutual interest, including issues related to health, safety, security and benefit plans. The Committee shall be comprised of up to five (5) representatives selected by the Employer and up to five (5) Employees selected by the Union and shall be co-chaired. The Committee may call on additional resources for specialized expertise, particularly in the areas of health, safety, security and benefits.
- 3.02 The Committee shall not deal with grievances or interpretation of this Agreement. Minutes, notes, or discussions of the Committee shall not be admissible in an arbitration hearing.
- 3.03 Any recommendations of the Committee shall be advanced, in writing, to the Employer for review and action as appropriate.
- 3.04 The Committee shall meet a minimum of two (2) times a year. The Employer shall pay the salaries of Committee members. Expenses pertaining to Committee members shall be borne by the respective Parties.
- 3.05 The Co-chairs shall have the ability to call additional meetings as required.

ARTICLE 4

UNION RECOGNITION AND APPLICATION

- 4.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the certified bargaining agent for all Employees within the scope of Alberta Labour Relations Board Certificate Number 218-97, granted pursuant to the Public Service Employee Relations Act, namely, "All Employees when employed in administrative and support services" except those Employees excluded by written agreement between the parties.

The Employer shall not enter into any separate written agreement(s) with an Employee, or group of Employees which compromises the terms or conditions of employment contained in this Agreement without prior approval of the Union.

4.02 Employment of Students

The Agreement does not apply to students on work experience programs.

Any student employed under this provision shall not displace or result in a loss in hours of work for permanent or term employees. The employment of students shall not result in the abolishment of any position(s).

4.03 The Parties agree that there shall be no discrimination or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any Employee for reason of membership or legitimate activity in the Union.

4.04 The Employer will provide specific bulletin board space for use of the Union at locations on the Employer's premises, which are accessible to Employees. Sites of the bulletin boards are to be determined by the Employer and the Union.

Bulletin board space shall be used for the posting of Union information directed to its members. It is not the intention of the Union to post anything objectionable to the Employer.

4.05 (a) An Employee shall have the right to wear or display the recognized insignia of the Union during working hours, however, no such insignia larger than a lapel pin shall be worn on issue clothing or uniforms, nor shall an insignia be displayed on Employer's equipment or facilities.

(b) For the purposes of this Collective Agreement, the Union shall be represented by its properly appointed officers. The Union shall provide the Employer with a current list of the officer's names.

(c) The Employer shall grant Union Representatives access to its premises for a specific purpose provided prior approval has been obtained from the Vice President of Human Resources or their designate. The request from the Union Representative or Local 20 Executive or their designate will be submitted within five (5) working days.

The foregoing approval shall not be unreasonably denied.

(d) Union membership meetings including orientation meetings for new members may be held on Employer premises subject to the approval of the Employer.

- 4.06 (a) All new and current Employees shall have access to the Collective Agreement and will be provided with the link to the Collective Agreement on the Employer intranet site.
- (b) The Employer and the Union will share the cost of printing this Agreement. The printing of the Collective Agreements will be processed at AUPE Headquarters.

4.07 Application of the Collective Agreement

In the event any provision of this Collective Agreement is in conflict with any present or future statute of the Province of Alberta applicable to the Employer, the section so affected shall be altered or amended forthwith in a manner agreeable to both parties so as to incorporate required changes. Such action shall not affect any other provisions of this Collective Agreement.

Where a conflict exists between a provision contained in this Collective Agreement and the subject matter is covered by the Employer's policies, regulations, guidelines or directives, the Collective Agreement shall apply.

Throughout this Collective Agreement, a word used in the feminine gender applies also in the masculine gender and vice versa, and a word used in the singular applies also to the plural, unless the context otherwise requires.

ARTICLE 5

UNION MEMBERSHIP AND DUES CHECK-OFF

- 5.01 All Employees covered by this Agreement shall become members of the Union as a condition of employment. The Employer shall inform new Employees in writing upon hire of their Union membership and that a Collective Agreement is in effect. An Employee who has a religious objection to becoming a member of the Union shall be permitted to opt out of membership by providing the Union with a signed statutory declaration outlining the objection within sixty (60) consecutive calendar days from the date of commencement of employment, but such Employee shall continue to pay Union dues.

5.02 All Employees covered by this Agreement shall be required to pay Union dues as a condition of employment. The Employer shall, therefore, deduct Union dues from the pay of all Employees covered by this Agreement. The Employer will include the amount of Union dues deducted on the T4 statements provided to Employees.

The Union shall advise the Employer, in writing, of any change in the amount of dues to be deducted from the Employees covered by this Agreement. Such notice shall be communicated to the Employer at least thirty (30) days prior to the effective date of the change.

5.03 The Employer shall remit Union dues deducted from the pay of all Employees to the Union by the first working day after the fifteenth calendar day in the following month. Where an accounting adjustment is necessary to correct an over or under payment of dues, it shall be effected in the succeeding month. The deductions remitted shall be accompanied by particulars identifying each Employee in electronic format or such alternate form as may be agreed to by the parties, showing Employee identification number, start date, continuous service date, position/job title, employment category as a permanent, term or casual employee, region or business unit, branch or sub-unit and transit number, amount of Union dues deducted, name and last known address. Further, the Employer shall provide to the Union, on a monthly basis, a list containing the name and last known address of current recipients of Long Term Disability Insurance.

5.04 The information on the dues report identified in Article 5.03 will also be sent electronically to the Chair of the Union Local.

5.05 The Union agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article.

ARTICLE 6

EMPLOYER - UNION RELATIONS

- 6.01 The Employer agrees to recognize Employees who are appointed as Union Stewards, and recognizes their authority to represent other Employees. A Union Steward may, at the request of an Employee, accompany or represent him in an investigation, disciplinary discussion or the processing of a grievance with the Employer. When it becomes necessary for a Union Steward to leave his job for this purpose, he will request time off from his immediate supervisor and provide him with as much advance notice as possible. Arrangements will be made by the supervisor to permit the Union Steward to leave his job, as soon as reasonably possible, for this purpose with no loss of regular earnings. Such time off shall be granted only upon the approval of the supervisor or authorized alternate, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.
- 6.02 The Union reserves the right to appoint a new or current Union Steward to represent a work area that has no Union Steward.
- 6.03 A list of Union Stewards shall be supplied by the Union to the Human Resources Department. The Human Resources Department shall be advised in writing of any change to the list. The list shall be updated by the Union annually.

ARTICLE 7

TIME OFF FOR UNION BUSINESS

- 7.01 Time off, with pay, will be provided to members of the Union for the following:
- (a) Members of the Local Executive, to administer the Local;
 - (b) Members of the Negotiating Committee for time spent meeting with representatives of the Employer during the formal negotiating of a Collective Agreement;
 - (c) Members of the Negotiating Committee for Union preparatory meetings during these negotiations;
 - (d) Attendance at Union conventions, seminars, workshops, schools, Chapter meetings, Local Council meetings, Union Executive meetings, Committee meetings and similar events.

7.02 Time off for negotiations with the Employer under 7.01(b) will be granted for the sessions agreed to by the authorized representatives of the Employer and Union negotiating committees. In all other of the foregoing provisions time off shall be granted, operational requirements permitting. Such requests will not be unreasonably denied. The Union shall provide the Employer with a copy of the request for time off. Employees shall provide a minimum of five (5) work days notice when requesting time off under Clause 7.01; however, consideration shall still be given in cases where the five (5) days notice is not provided.

7.03 Time off with pay under Clause 7.01 will include payment for all salary, differentials and premiums that would have been earned during the period of leave. Such time off will not be considered a break in continuous service. To facilitate the administration of Clause 7.01, the Employer will grant leave of absence with pay and invoice the Union within ninety (90) days of completion of this leave for the Employee's salary, including any premiums and differentials, plus an amount determined by the Employer to cover the costs of benefits, which the Union shall pay within thirty (30) days from the date of the invoice.

7.04 The Chair of the Union Local or specified designate shall be relieved with pay for up to twenty percent (20%) of her regularly assigned duties to attend to Local business. Time taken for such business should be planned in such a way as to minimize the effect on the Employee's work unit. Such time will be scheduled in advance and based on a regular schedule wherever feasible.

The Union will advise the Employer of any specified designate and of the hours spent by that designate on Local business under this provision. The combined hours will not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the hours of the Chair of the Union Local.

7.05 An Employee who is elected for an unpaid Full-time position within the Union shall be granted a leave without pay and without loss of continuous service for a maximum period of two (2) years. Such leave shall be renewable for a further term upon request. The Employee may elect to continue to participate in the Pension Plan and the benefit plans provided under Article 21, provided that such participation is permissible under those plans and provided the Employee pays the full cost, including the Employer's share, during the period of such leave.

7.06 An Employee who is selected for a paid staff position within the Union, or any labour organization with which the Union has a formal affiliation, shall be granted a leave of absence without pay for a period of two (2) years. Extension of such leave may be granted, if submitted in writing and approved by the Employer. Approval of an extension will be dependent on operational requirements and will not be unreasonably withheld. The Employee will not be permitted to participate in the Pension Plan or ATB benefits plans while employed in a paid position with the Union or an affiliated organization. A leave of absence of greater than six months will be considered to be a break in continuous service for the application of Clause 1.01(c)(iv).

ARTICLE 8

RATES OF PAY

8.01 The rates of pay and conditions governing pay set out in Appendices "A" and "B" shall be applicable to all Employees covered by this Collective Agreement. Wage rates are effective on the dates specified in the Salary/Pay Schedule.

8.02 Paydays shall be on a bi-weekly basis by direct deposit, in accordance with the Employer's established practice.

ARTICLE 9

ACTING PAY

9.01 Acting pay of up to 10%, but not less than 5%, will be paid for acting incumbencies.

9.02 Acting pay for short term incumbencies will be based on the Employer's assessment of the Employee's competencies for the role and will not be less than 5%, or the pay range minimum of the position in which the Employee is acting, whichever is greater.

9.03 Acting pay will not exceed the pay range maximum for the position in which the Employee is acting.

9.04 An Employee assigned an acting incumbency or a short-term incumbency outside the scope of the bargaining unit will continue to be covered by the terms and conditions of this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 10
HOURS OF WORK

10.01 Normal Hours of Work

- (a) The normal hours of work shall be based on an average thirty-six and one-quarter (36.25) hours per week and seven and one-quarter (7.25) hours per day for Full-time Employees.
- (b) With mutual agreement, normal work schedules may be implemented by the Employer containing up to six (6) working days within a one (1) week period but shall not exceed ten (10) days in that two (2) week period. In cases where an Employee applies for a position in the Customer Contact Centre with hours of work requirements as described in this clause, the Employee will be deemed to have agreed to the schedule. An Employee shall receive two (2) consecutive days of rest during each weekly work period. An Employee and the Employer may mutually agree to a days of rest schedule which differs from that described.

10.02 Schedule Variations

- (a) Based on mutual agreement between the Employer and affected Employees, regular schedules established for Employees may contain variable hours of work per day, including flexible and compressed work week schedules, up to thirty-six and one-quarter (36.25) hours per week. The Employer and affected Employees may agree to implement schedules that exceed thirty-six and one-quarter (36.25) hours in a week provided that the average weekly hours do not exceed thirty-six and one-quarter (36.25) hours over the rotation cycle of the schedule.

Employee(s) will receive a minimum of two (2) consecutive days of rest during each weekly work period unless the Employer and Employee(s) reach mutual agreement on an alternate schedule for days of rest.

If requested by either the Employer or the affected Employees, a Union Representative will be involved on discussions regarding schedule variations.

- (b) A Permanent or Term Employee with regularly scheduled hours based on consistent days of work each week and/or consistent hours of work each day will receive a minimum of thirty (30) days advance notice of changes to that schedule unless the Employee agrees to a shorter period of time.

10.03 An Employee shall not be required to work a split shift involving a break between work periods longer than the specified meal period.

10.04 Casual Employees who are employed on an on-call or irregularly scheduled basis will, when called or scheduled, be guaranteed a minimum of three (3) hours work unless otherwise requested by the Employee.

10.05 Rest Periods

Employees shall normally receive two (2) fifteen (15) minute paid rest periods in each work period in excess of six (6) hours, one (1) period to be granted before the meal break and one to be granted after. An Employee working a period of more than two (2) hours but not more than six (6) hours shall be granted one (1) rest period. Rest periods shall not be scheduled within one (1) hour of commencement or conclusion of the work day unless mutually agreed upon.

10.06 Meal Periods

An unpaid meal period of not less than one-half (1/2) hour and not more than one and one-half (1 1/2) hours shall be granted to all Employees at approximately the mid-point of each work period that exceeds four (4) hours.

10.07 Training Courses or Seminars

- (a) An Employee who is required to attend a training course or seminar on his normal day of work shall be paid at straight time rates for the hours spent on training.
- (b) An Employee who is required to attend a training course or seminar on a regularly scheduled day of rest shall be granted a day off in lieu at some other time, or if impractical to grant time off, he shall be paid at straight time rates for the hours spent on training.
- (c) An Employee who is required to attend a training course or seminar which necessitates travel from the location where the Employee is employed shall be compensated at straight time rates for the actual hours spent in travel provided such travel time is in excess of his normal daily or weekly hours of work and in excess of the Employee's normal commute between home and work. The Employer shall have the choice of the method of transportation.

ARTICLE 11

OVERTIME

11.01 If an Employee works in excess of the daily or weekly hours as defined in Clauses 10.01 and 10.02, the Employee shall be entitled to overtime compensation for the excess hours of work.

11.02 If an Employee works up to thirty (30) minutes in excess of the normal hours of his/her daily work schedule on one (1) day of the week, and the Employee is provided with off-setting time off within the same week so that the total time worked within the week does not exceed thirty-six and one-quarter (36.25) hours, overtime compensation will not apply.

11.03 Overtime Compensation

An Employee who has been authorized to work overtime shall be compensated as follows:

- (a) For overtime hours worked on a regular work day at time and one half of his/her regular hourly rate for the first two (2) hours worked in excess of his regular hours and at double his/her regular hourly rate for hours worked in excess of two (2) hours;
- (b) For overtime hours worked on day(s) of rest:
 - (i) at time and one half his/her regular hourly rate for all hours worked up to the equivalent of full normal daily hours and double time for additional hours worked thereafter on the regularly scheduled first day of rest;
 - (ii) at double time his/her regular hourly rate for all hours worked on subsequently scheduled day(s) of rest in that week, unless the additional hours are scheduled at the request of the Employee in which case the overtime hours will be compensated at time and one half.

11.04 Scheduling Compensating Time Off

Compensating time off shall be scheduled at a mutually agreeable time for overtime worked during the prior six (6) months. If mutual agreement cannot be reached for scheduled time off and as a result not all accumulated entitlement to compensating time off is taken during this six (6) month period, the unused portion shall be paid out to the Employee.

11.05 Overtime for Part-time Employees

Part-time Employees working less than the normal hours stated in Clauses 10.01 and 10.02 who are required to work longer than their usual daily or weekly hours shall be paid at the rate of straight time for the hours so worked until they exceed the normal daily or weekly hours for Full-time Employees in the same position, after which the overtime provisions of this Article shall apply. Additional straight time hours worked will normally be paid but may, with mutual agreement, be banked as compensating time off.

11.06 Time at the Start of and End of an Employee's Shift

An Employee may be required to work unscheduled extra time, up to fifteen (15) minutes, immediately prior to starting the Employee's shift or immediately following the end of the Employee's shift without payment, provided the requirement to work extra hours occurs no more than one (1) time in a weekly period. However, if the extra time exceeds fifteen (15) minutes, or if extra time is required more than one (1) time within a weekly period, or is required for attendance at a regular staff meeting or other scheduled event, a minimum of one-half (1/2) hour overtime compensation will apply, with compensation in accordance with Clause 11.07.

11.07 Calculation of Overtime

Overtime payment or compensatory time off shall be calculated to the nearest quarter hour. Overtime pay shall be calculated based upon the hourly rate in effect at the time overtime is worked regardless of any subsequent retroactive change in that rate.

ARTICLE 12

PREMIUM PAYMENTS

12.01 Shift Differential

An Employee scheduled by the Employer to work shifts shall receive two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per hour for normal shift hours worked between 8:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. Shift differential shall not be included with the Employee's regular rate of pay for purposes of computing overtime payments, other premium payments, or any Employee benefits. Shift differential shall not be paid on any hours for which an Employee receives overtime compensation.

12.02

Weekend Work Premium

- (a) A Permanent or Term Employee who works Saturdays as part of his regularly scheduled work week shall receive a weekend premium of one dollar and fifty cents ($1.50) per hour for each hour worked from midnight Friday to midnight Saturday.
- (b) An Employee who works Sunday as part of his regularly scheduled work week shall receive a weekend premium of two dollars and twenty-five cents ($2.25) per hour for each hour worked from midnight Saturday to midnight Sunday.
- (c) The weekend premium shall not be paid to an Employee who is not regularly scheduled to work weekends and receives overtime compensation for working Saturday or Sunday as a day of rest.
- (d) At no time shall weekend work premiums be included with the Employee's regular rate of pay for the purpose of computing overtime payments, other premium payments, or any Employee benefits.

ARTICLE 13

CALL BACK PAY

13.01

Subject to Clause 13.03, when an Employee is called back to work by the Employer for a period in excess of two (2) hours, including time spent travelling directly to and from work, she/he shall be compensated at the applicable overtime rate for hours worked or equivalent time off in lieu subject to the provisions of Clause 11.04.

13.02

Subject to Clause 13.03, an Employee who is called back to work one or more times within a two (2) hour period and for whom the time worked and the time spent travelling directly to and from work totals two hours or less, shall be compensated at straight time for a minimum of three (3) hours or equivalent time off in lieu subject to the provisions of Clause 11.04.

13.03

There shall be no minimum guaranteed compensation nor compensation for time spent traveling if the call back is immediately prior to a normal working period.

13.04 Telephone Calls

- (a) Employees who are designated by the Employer to receive urgent work related telephone calls at home outside of normal working hours shall be compensated at the overtime rate or the equivalent time in lieu for all time engaged in such calls.

If the time worked receiving a call and making and receiving additional telephone calls related to the original telephone call totals twenty (20) minutes or less, an Employee shall be compensated a minimum of one-half (1/2) hour's pay at straight time rates or the equivalent time in lieu. Two (2) or more telephone calls received within a thirty (30) minute period will be considered to be a single telephone call.

- (b) Compensation for responding to telephone calls at home will not be paid in circumstances in which the telephone call results in the Employee having to leave home to return to work. In such cases, the provisions of Clauses 13.01, 13.02 and 13.03 shall apply.

ARTICLE 14

DEFINED LOCATION SUPPLEMENTARY ALLOWANCE

14.01 An Employee who is employed in the following locations shall be paid in addition to his base salary, a Supplemental Allowance for each month served, on the following basis:

- (i) North of the 57th parallel of north latitude - $550.00
- (ii) Banff National Park - $400.00
- (iii) Canmore - $400.00
- (iv) Fort McMurray - $1,200.00
- (v) Jasper National Park - $200.00

14.02 For partial months of employment, an Employee eligible for Defined Location Supplementary Allowance shall receive payment in accordance with the following formula:

$$\frac{\text{Allowance X number of hours worked at straight time rates}}{157.67}$$

14.03 An Employee not residing in a location specified in Clause 14.01, who is on travel status or is in receipt of any subsistence allowance will not be eligible for Defined Location Supplementary Allowance.

14.04 An Employee who otherwise qualifies for the allowance shall continue receiving the allowance for any period of approved leave with pay. However, the allowance shall not be paid to an Employee for any period he is on leave without pay.

ARTICLE 15

PAID HOLIDAYS

15.01 Permanent and Term Employees are entitled to one day's paid leave for each of the following holidays.

New Year's Day	Labour Day
Family Day	Thanksgiving Day
Good Friday	Remembrance Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day
Heritage Day (August)

All Paid Holidays shall be observed on the day designated by the Employer with the exception that for Employees in seven-day per week operations, Paid Holidays shall be observed on the calendar day of the holiday.

The provisions of this Article will also apply to any additional holiday that is proclaimed by applicable legislation and which the Employer is required by statute to provide as a paid holiday.

15.02 Floater Days

Permanent and Term Employees who have completed twelve (12) months of continuous service shall be entitled to two (2) additional paid days off in each calendar year as of January 1. The paid days off shall be taken during the calendar year as mutually agreed between the Employer and the Employee.

For new Employees, those who commenced prior to July 1 of the previous calendar year shall be entitled to two floater days off with pay for the calendar year following their commencement date. Employees who commenced after July 1 of the previous calendar year shall be entitled to one (1) floater day off with pay for the calendar year following their commencement date.

- 15.03 Full-time Permanent or Term Employees working compressed work week schedules as provided in Clause 10.02 (a) shall receive paid leave for their normally scheduled hours for each of the paid holidays that fall on their regularly scheduled working days. Holidays that fall on scheduled days off shall not be paid nor compensated through paid days off in lieu.
- 15.04 When a day designated as a holiday under Clause 15.01 falls during a Permanent or Term Employee's work week and a Permanent or Term Employee is not required to work, the Employee shall be granted holiday leave on that day based on scheduled hours for the day.
- 15.05 When a day designated as a holiday under Clause 15.01 falls on a Permanent or Term Employee's regularly scheduled day of rest, and the Employee is not required to work, the Employee shall be granted holiday leave on the day observed as the holiday based on the Employee's regular hours of work, and the day of rest shall be rescheduled.
- 15.06 When a Permanent or Term Employee works on one of the holidays listed in Clause 15.01, the Employee shall receive the Employee's regular salary plus time and one-half for all hours worked.
- 15.07 In lieu of Paid Holidays, Casual Employees shall receive, in addition to their regular wage earnings, pay at 4.4% of their regular wage earnings paid each pay period during their first year of employment and thereafter 5.2% of their regular wage earnings. In addition, any hours worked by Casual Employees on a paid holiday shall be compensated at time and one-half the Employee's regular hourly rate.

ARTICLE 16

ANNUAL VACATION LEAVE

- 16.01 (a) Vacation with pay will be granted to Permanent and Term Employees in advance on January 1 of each calendar year and upon commencement for new hires.
- (b) Full-time Permanent and Term Employees hired on or after May 1, 1998 will receive vacation based on the following schedule of annual entitlement:

Less than three years of completed service	72.50 hours
Three to ten years of completed service	108.75 hours
Eleven to twenty years of completed service	145.00 hours
More than twenty years of completed service	181.25 hours

Vacation will be earned at the rate of one-twelfth (1/12) of the above hours for each month of service within the calendar year in which the vacation is granted provided that the Employee is actively employed on the fifteenth (15th) day of the month.

- (c) An Employee with less than three (3) years of service who schedules all vacation entitlement during non-peak periods will be eligible for an additional five days of paid vacation to be used during non-peak periods in the same calendar year. The additional days cannot be carried over to the next calendar year. Peak periods include July, August and December 15-31.
- (d) Full-time Permanent and Term Employees hired prior to May 1, 1998 will receive vacation based on the following schedule of annual entitlement:

Less than eight years of completed service	108.75 hours
Eight to fifteen years of continuous service	145.00 hours
Sixteen to twenty-four years of completed service	181.25 hours
Twenty-five or more years of completed service	217.50 hours

Vacation will be earned at the rate of one-twelfth (1/12) of the above hours for each month of service within the calendar year in which the vacation is granted.

Effective January 1, 2010, the above vacation schedule will be deleted. Employees hired prior to May 1, 1998 will transition to the vacation schedule specified in Clause 16.01(b). The level of vacation entitlement for such Employees will not be reduced as a result of this transition and will be maintained until such time as they are eligible for additional annual vacation under the post 1998 vacation schedule identified in 16.01(b).

- (e) Part-time Permanent and Term Employees shall receive pro-rated vacation entitlement based on their normal schedules. For example, a part-time Employee working 60% of full-time hours is eligible for 60% of the above hours.

Upon Employee request, vacation credits for Part-time Employees will be reviewed on an annual basis. If, over the course of the previous calendar year, the Employee worked in excess of ten percent (10%) over his/her normal schedule, vacation credits will be adjusted accordingly to reflect the additional hours.

- 16.02 An Employee shall earn vacation leave during the following absences:
- (a) the first forty-four (44) consecutive work days of sick leave or absence during Workers' Compensation Supplement; and
 - (b) any other leave of absence with or without pay for the first twenty-two (22) work days.
- 16.03 If one or more paid holidays falls during an Employee's annual vacation period, another day or days may be added at the end of the vacation period or at a time authorized by the Employer.
- 16.04 Except as is otherwise provided herein, vacation leave shall be taken:
- (a) by December 31 of the calendar year in which it is granted; and
 - (b) at times approved by the Employer.
- Every Employee is expected to take one (1) continuous vacation period of at least two (2) weeks each year consistent with the Employer's security standards.
- 16.05 A maximum of five (5) days or one week (pro-rated for part-time Employees) of vacation is eligible for carry-over. Vacation that is carried over must be used by December 31 of the following calendar year. Additional vacation carry-over is subject to Employer approval.
- 16.06 An Employee on an unexpected leave of absence at the end of the calendar year who has more than one week of unused vacation will be permitted to carry unused vacation until the end of the calendar year following the year of their return.
- 16.07 Where an Employee is allowed to take any leave of absence, other than sick leave, in conjunction with a period of vacation leave, the vacation leave shall be deemed to precede the additional leave of absence, except in the case of maternity leave which may be authorized before or after vacation leave.
- 16.08 Scheduling of Annual Vacation
- (a) The annual vacation approval process will be completed by February 28 of each calendar year. Subsequent vacation requests shall be approved or denied within fourteen (14) days of the Employee making the request.

- (b) The Employer shall, subject to operational requirements, make every reasonable effort to grant Employee requests for at least two (2) weeks of annual vacation entitlement during the summer (June, July, and August) months.
- (c) Where a scheduling conflict arises that cannot be resolved between the affected Employees, preference will be given to the Employee with the most continuous service.

16.09 Once vacations are authorized they shall not be changed except by mutual agreement other than in cases of emergency or termination of employment prior to scheduled vacation.

16.10 An Employee who fails to return to work following the last day of authorized vacation leave shall be considered to have absented himself from employment and the provisions of Clause 31.03 shall apply.

16.11 A Permanent or Term Employee shall not be paid cash in lieu of vacation earned, except upon termination in which case she/he shall receive vacation pay for such vacation earned but not taken, or as provided through the Flexible Benefits Plans or on an exception basis, subject to Employer approval.

16.12 Upon termination of employment, a deduction will be taken from the Employee's final pay for any unearned vacation days that have been utilized.

16.13 In lieu of annual vacation leave and vacation pay, Casual Employees hired prior to May 1, 1998 shall receive, in addition to their regular wage earnings, vacation pay at 6.0% of their regular wage earnings paid each pay period. If these Employees are subsequently employed in a permanent or term position without a break in employment, they shall receive vacation entitlement as set out in Article 16.01(d).

Casual Employees hired on or after May 1, 1998 shall receive, in addition to their regular wage earnings, vacation pay at 4.0% of their regular wage earnings paid each pay period. Upon completion of five (5) consecutive years of casual employment, vacation pay for these Employees will increase to 6.0% of their regular earnings paid each pay period.

ARTICLE 17

SPECIAL LEAVE

17.01 Bereavement Leave

- (a) In the event of a death of a family member as defined below, a Permanent Employee shall be entitled to receive thirty-six and a quarter hours (36.25) for regularly scheduled shifts lost from work during the period of mourning or for the period of the burial, which commences on either:
- (i) day of death, or
 - (ii) the day the Employee receives notification of the death or
 - (iii) burial.

In either case, the Employee shall notify the Employer of the request for time off work prior to the next scheduled shift.

Immediate family means: spouse (same or opposite gender including common-law that has co-habitated with the Employee for at least one (1) year), fiancé(e), child, parent (including step-parent), siblings (including step-brother or sister), current in-law relationships (including mother, father, brother, sister, son or daughter), grandparents and grandchildren.

- (b) In the event of a death of another relative or close friend or as pall-bearer, the Employer shall grant seven and a quarter hours (7.25) off with pay to attend the funeral services.
- (c) Where travel requirements of total travel of more than two-hundred and fifty (250) kilometers, the Employer shall extend bereavement leave by fourteen and a half (14.50) additional hours.

17.02 Family Leave

- (a) If a Permanent Employee is unable to report to work as the result of illness in the immediate family or any pressing medical necessity requiring the Employee's personal attention, she shall inform the Employer of such with as much advance notice as possible. Such absence from work shall be without loss of pay for the thirty-six and a quarter hours (36.25) of special leave and shall not exceed seventy-two and a half hours (72.50) per calendar year. For family leave beyond thirty-six and a quarter hours (36.25), the Employee shall use either a vacation day with pay, a banked day with pay in lieu of a Paid Holiday or banked overtime.
- (b) An Employee may be required to submit proof satisfactory to the Employer demonstrating the need for Family Leave.

17.03 Part-time Permanent Employees shall receive prorated entitlement for bereavement leave and family leave based on their normal schedule (for example a Part-time Employee working 60% of a Full-time Employee's schedule would be eligible for 60% of the following hours). Upon request, special leave entitlements for Part-time Employees will be reviewed on an annual basis. If, over the course of the previous calendar year, a permanent Part-time Employee has worked more than ten percent (10%) in excess of his/her normal schedule, special leave entitlement for that year will be adjusted accordingly.

17.04 Other Leaves With Pay

A Permanent Employee who requires time off from work, may be granted other leave as outlined below without loss of pay upon approval by the Employer. The circumstances under which other leave may be approved are subject to Clause 17.05 and subject to the corresponding yearly maximum entitlement for Full-time Employees as follows.

Part-time Employees shall receive prorated entitlement for other leaves with pay based on their normal schedule (for example a Part-time Employee working 60% of a Full-time Employee's schedule would be eligible for 60% of the following hours). Upon request, special leave entitlements for Part-time Employees will be reviewed on an annual basis. If, over the course of the previous calendar year, a permanent Part-time Employee has worked more than ten percent (10%) in excess of his/her normal schedule, special leave entitlement for that year will be adjusted accordingly.

- (a) administration of estate - fourteen and one-half (14.5) working hours;
- (b) disaster conditions - fourteen and one-half (14.5) working hours;
- (c) write examination(s) for course(s) approved by the Employer - as required;
- (d) be present at birth or adoption proceedings of an Employee's child - seven and one-quarter (7.25) working hours;
- (e) attend formal hearing to become Canadian Citizen - seven and one-quarter (7.25) working hours.

17.05 For purposes of determining eligibility for special leave under Clause 17.04, the following provisions shall apply:

- (a) administration of estate shall apply only when an Employee has been designated as an executor or administrator of the estate;
- (b) disaster conditions shall apply for a critical condition which requires an Employee's personal attention in a disaster (flood, fire, tornado) which cannot be served by others or attended to by the Employee at a time when he is normally off duty;
- (c) mourner - leave of absence will be granted where operational requirements permit subject to the approval of the Employer.

17.06 The maximum other leave outlined in Clause 17.04 specified for each circumstance requiring use shall not be exceeded.

17.07 Two (2) weeks notice may be required for leave requested under Clause 17.04, Sub-clause (a), (c) and (e).

ARTICLE 18

CASUAL ILLNESS

18.01 "Casual Illness" means an illness which causes a Permanent or Term Employee to be absent from duty for a period of three (3) consecutive work days or less.

18.02 If a Permanent or Term Employee is ill at work or requires time off for the purposes of attending a dental, physiotherapy, optical, medical or such other appointment, provided she/he has been given prior authorization by the Employer and she/he works one (1) hour in a half day that the Employee is absent for those reasons, such absence shall neither be charged against the Employee's casual illness eligibility, nor shall a deduction in pay be made for the time lost in the half day in which she/he became ill or attended the appointment.

18.03 Permanent or Term Employees shall be eligible for a maximum of seventy-two and one-half (72.5) hours of casual illness leave with pay in each calendar year of employment. Upon initial appointment to a Permanent or Term position, Employees will receive pro-rated casual illness benefits for the remainder of the calendar year. Casual illness benefits will be reinstated as of January 1 of each year.

Part-time Permanent and Term Employees shall receive pro-rated casual illness eligibility based on their normal schedules. For example, a part-time Employee working 60% of full-time hours will be eligible for forty-three and one-half hours of casual illness leave.

Each hour of casual illness used within a calendar year will be deducted from the casual illness leave eligibility for that calendar year.

18.04 This Article is subject to Article 20.

ARTICLE 19

GENERAL ILLNESS

19.01 "General Illness" means a medical condition which requires a Permanent or Term Employee to be absent from duty for a period of more than three (3) consecutive work days.

In cases where the illness leave is more than three (3) consecutive work days, the full period will be general illness leave.

General Illness Leave shall not exceed five hundred eighty (580) consecutive working hours for a Full-time Permanent or Term Employee.

Part-time Permanent or Term Employees shall receive this benefit prorated to the maximum number of working hours of General Illness Leave set out in this Article based on their normal schedule. For example a Part-time Employee working 60% of a full-time schedule would be eligible for a maximum of 348 consecutive working hours (60% of 580). A Permanent or Term Part-time Employee who has worked more than ten percent (10%) in excess of his/her normal hours in the course of the previous twelve (12) month period may request a review of general illness eligibility for that year. General illness eligibility will be adjusted to reflect such additional hours.

General Illness Leave shall be in addition to any casual illness eligibility specified in Article 18.

19.02 General Illness eligibility will be established as of January 1 of each calendar year and upon appointment for newly appointed Permanent and Term Employees. Provided the Permanent or Term Employee is not then absent from work due to illness pursuant to Clause 19.01, the Employee at the commencement of each calendar year will be eligible for General Illness Leave at the specified rates of pay in accordance with the following Sub-clauses, with eligibility pro-rated for Part-time Employees. The application of such General Illness leave shall be as set out in accordance with Clause 19.03:

- (a) Illness commencing in the first partial calendar year of employment - 100% of normal salary for each of the first 72.5 working hours of illness and 70% of normal salary for 507.5 working hours of illness.
- (b) Illness commencing on or after January 1 of the calendar year following the Employee's initial appointment to a Permanent or Term position - 100% of normal salary for each of the first 108.75 working hours of illness and 70% of normal salary for each of the next 471.25 working hours of illness.
- (c) Illness commencing on or after January 1 of the second calendar year following the Employee's initial appointment to a Permanent or Term position - 100% of normal salary for each of the first 181.25 working hours of illness and 70% of normal salary for each of the next 398.75 working hours of illness.
- (d) Illness commencing on or after January 1 of the third calendar year following the Employee's initial appointment to a Permanent or Term position - 100% of normal salary for each of the first 253.75 working hours of illness and 70% of normal salary for each of the next 326.25 working hours of illness.

- (e) Illness commencing on or after January 1 of the fourth calendar year following the Employee's initial appointment to a Permanent or Term position - 100% of normal salary for each of the first 326.25 working hours of illness and 70% of normal salary for each of the next 253.75 working hours of illness.
 - (f) Illness commencing on or after January 1 of the fifth or any subsequent calendar year following the Employee's initial appointment to a Permanent or Term position - 100% of normal salary for each of the first 435 working hours of illness and 70% of normal salary for each of the next 145 working hours of illness.
- 19.03 (a) Subject to Sub-clause 19.03 (b), a Permanent or Term Employee upon return to active work after a period of general illness of less than five hundred and eighty (580) consecutive working hours will have:
- (i) illness leave benefits reinstated pursuant to Clause 19.02 when the Employee returns to work in the next calendar year; or,
 - (ii) any illness leave days used for which normal salary was paid at the rate of 100% or 70% reinstated for future use at the rate of 70% of normal salary, within the same calendar year.
- (b) Such reinstatement shall only occur where a Permanent or Term Employee has not taken any general illness leave for the same or related illness during the first seventy-two and one-half (72.5) working hours following the date of return to active work.
- 19.04 For purposes of this Article, the maximum period of continuous absence recognized shall be five hundred and eighty (580) consecutive working hours.
- 19.05 General Illness benefits will not extend beyond the set expiry date of the employment term for Term Employees.
- 19.06 When a day designated as a Paid Holiday falls within a period of general illness it will be counted as a day of general illness and under no circumstances shall a Permanent or Term Employee receive any additional benefit in respect of that day.
- 19.07 At the end of the period of general illness benefits under this Article, a Permanent or Term Employee shall be subject to Article 21 (LTDI).

19.08 In the event that an Employee receives benefits under the provisions of this Article as a result of a wrongful act or omission of a third-party, the Employer is subrogated to any rights of recovery of the Employee in the amount of any benefits paid.

ARTICLE 20

PROOF OF ILLNESS

20.01 To obtain illness leave benefits, the Employer may require a Permanent or Term Employee to provide a proper medical certificate or other satisfactory proof of illness.

The Employer may also require the Employee to provide satisfactory proof of attendance at a medical, dental, physiotherapy, optical, or such other appointment when time off from work is granted to attend such appointments.

Medical certificates will not ordinarily be required for casual illness. Where warranted, however, an Employee may be put on notice that medical certificates or other satisfactory proof of illness may be required for future incidents of casual illness.

Where an Employee is required, pursuant to this Clause, to provide a medical certificate or proof of attendance at an appointment, she/he shall be advised prior to his/her return to work.

20.02 To obtain general illness leave benefits, a Permanent or Term Employee is required to provide a proper medical certificate or other satisfactory proof of illness.

20.03 A Permanent or Term Employee is not eligible to receive casual illness or general illness benefits if the absence is due to an injury from employment with another employer and the injury is compensable through Workers Compensation benefits.

20.04 An unsatisfactory attendance record may result in a non-disciplinary termination for cause. Employees may be required to provide medical evidence respecting their health status and ability to perform their duties or modified duties when returning from illness leave or when attendance levels are a concern.

20.05 Should an Employee incur expense(s) as a result of an Employer request for additional medical information, such expense(s) will be reimbursed to the Employee to a maximum of seventy-five dollars ($75.00) per incurred expense.

ARTICLE 21

HEALTH BENEFITS

- 21.01 Employees will participate in the ATB Financial Flexible Benefit Plan. Benefit coverage, eligibility conditions and cost sharing provisions will be according to conditions of the insurance policy and plan conditions. Part-time Employees must have a normal work schedule of at least forty percent (40%) of the equivalent full-time position to be eligible to participate. Term Employees will receive only the automatic benefits and will not participate in flexible benefit enrolment. Casual Employees are not eligible to participate.
- 21.02 All benefit plan provisions specified in this Article shall be in accordance with the provisions outlined in the ATB Financial Flexible Benefit Plan. The Employer has the right to change benefit service providers so long as comparable benefits are maintained. The terms of the policies of insurance and plan conditions will not be considered as incorporated into this Agreement by reference or by necessary intendment. Differences respecting any matters related to the administration and application of the benefit plan are therefore not subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. The Union will be provided with a copy of the ATB Financial Flexible Benefit Plan provisions upon request.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

- 22.01 In accordance with the Workers' Compensation Act, when an Employee sustains an injury in the course of his duties with the Employer, the Employee shall report the injury to the Employer. The Employer shall record the date, time and nature of the injury on a form to be signed by the injured Employee. The Employee and the Employer shall complete the required forms for Workers' Compensation.
- 22.02 If the claim of a Full-time Permanent Employee is approved by the Workers' Compensation Board, the Employee shall be paid his regular full salary during the period he is required to remain off work up to five hundred and eighty (580) consecutive working hours.
- Part-time Permanent Employees shall receive a prorated maximum number of working hours based on their normal schedule. For example a Part-time Employee working 60% of a Full-time Employee's schedule would be eligible for a maximum of 348 consecutive working hours (60% of 580).

If the Permanent Employee has not returned to work due to injury before his/her maximum entitlement has expired, she/he shall then be paid according to the rate prescribed by the Workers' Compensation Act.

- 22.03 The eligibility period specified in Clause 22.02 shall not apply in the event of a recurrence of a disability due to a previously claimed injury, payable under this supplement, unless the Permanent Employee has not used the total eligibility period in which case the unexpended period of eligibility may be applied.
- 22.04 When a paid holiday falls within a period of time a Permanent Employee is eligible to receive Workers' Compensation Supplement, it shall be counted as a day of Workers' Compensation Supplement, and under no circumstances shall an Employee receive any additional entitlement in respect of that day.
- 22.05 An Employee who is injured on the job during working hours and who is required to leave the job site for treatment, or is sent home as a result of such accident or injury, shall not suffer loss of pay for that day's work, regardless of the time of injury. That day shall not be deducted from the eligibility period specified in Clause 22.02.
- 22.06 The Parties agree that the Workers' Compensation Supplement is intended only for the purpose of protecting a Permanent Employee from loss of income while he is unable to work because of injury.
- 22.07 An Employee who receives Workers' Compensation benefits and who at the commencement of absence from work is participating in the Benefit Plan according to Article 21 shall continue to be covered according to plan and policy conditions throughout the period the Employee is receiving temporary Workers' Compensation benefits. Premium contributions shall continue to be paid by the Employer and the Employee.

ARTICLE 23

PROBATION

- 23.01 A person appointed to a permanent position with the Employer shall serve a probationary period prior to becoming a Permanent Employee. The period of probation shall start on the date of commencement and shall be six (6) months. The period of probation may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union for a period of up to six (6) months.

- 23.02 Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause 23.01, the probationary period for new hires into the Customer Service Specialist role within the Customer Contact Centre will be up to twelve (12) months. Should a Customer Service Specialist meet the established performance standards for appointment to a permanent role prior to the completion of the twelve-month probationary period, the Employee will be confirmed as a Permanent Employee upon attainment of the standards.
- 23.03 An Employee's term or casual service with no change in duties and no break in service prior to appointment to a permanent position will be credited toward completion of the probationary period.
- 23.04 A Probationary Employee is considered to be a Permanent Employee for the purposes of applying Articles 12, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20 and 22.

ARTICLE 24

DISCIPLINARY ACTION

- 24.01 No Employee shall be disciplined or dismissed without just cause.
- 24.02 When an Employee has been given a written reprimand, suspension, disciplinary demotion or is dismissed from employment, the Employee shall be informed in writing as to the reason(s) for such action.
- 24.03 When an Employee is to be presented with a written notice of discipline, the Employee shall be notified twenty-four (24) hours in advance of the time and place of the interview and shall be informed of their right to union representation. In cases where there is a Union Steward acceptable to the Employee who is able to attend or where the Employee elects to proceed without union representation, the meeting may proceed with less than twenty-four (24) hours notice. Where the Union Steward is not available within twenty-four hours, the timeframe will, at the request of the Union, be extended to forty-eight (48) hours. An Employee who is subject to an investigative meeting where there is a reasonable probability that the outcome may be disciplinary suspension or disciplinary termination will also be notified of his right to union representation. The Union Representative may participate via telephone call or video. Should a Union Representative be unavailable, the Employee may contact a Union Steward and if required the Union Steward may, at the request of the Employee, participate in the disciplinary interview via telephone conference call or video arranged at a time appropriate in the context of operating needs.

24.04 Employee Files

An Employee who has been subjected to disciplinary action may, after twenty-four (24) months of continuous service from the date the disciplinary action was invoked, request that his personal file be purged of any record of the disciplinary action. Such request will be granted providing:

- (a) the Employee's file does not contain any further record of disciplinary action during that twenty-four (24) month period; and
- (b) the disciplinary action is not the subject of an unresolved grievance.

ARTICLE 25

ADOPTION/PARENTAL LEAVE

25.01 An Employee who has completed fifty-two (52) weeks of continuous service before commencing leave and who adopts a child or who has the care and custody of a new born child shall be granted leave of absence without pay for up to thirty-seven (37) weeks. The Employee shall furnish proof of birth or adoption and shall give the Employer reasonable notice in writing of the date on which the leave is to commence.

25.02 Adoption/parental leave may begin at any time after the birth or adoption of the child but it must be completed within 52 weeks of the date a baby is born, or an adopted child is placed with the parent. A birth mother who takes both parental leave and maternity leave must take the leaves consecutively.

25.03 An Employee granted leave without pay pursuant to Clause 25.01 shall, upon return to work, be returned to their former position or be placed in another comparable position with the Employer at not less than the same salary that had accrued to them prior to commencing leave, and at the same level of benefits. Employees will be required to give the Employer two (2) weeks notice in writing of their intention to return to work.

25.04 An Employee who at the commencement of Adoption/Parental Leave is participating in the Benefit Plan according to Article 21 shall continue to be covered according to the plan and policy conditions throughout the period of Parental/Adoption Leave. The Employee will authorize that the appropriate deductions, if applicable, be made from their personal account for the portion of the leave that is without pay.

ARTICLE 26

MATERNITY LEAVE

- 26.01 In this Article "date of delivery" means when the pregnancy of an Employee terminates with the birth of a child or the pregnancy otherwise terminates.
- 26.02 An Employee who has completed fifty-two (52) weeks of continuous service before commencing leave, shall be granted up to fifteen (15) weeks maternity leave without pay. A pregnant Employee should apply for maternity leave as soon as possible prior to her expected date of delivery, but in any case shall give the Employer at least two (2) weeks notice in writing of the date on which she intends to commence maternity leave.
- 26.03 An Employee who is eligible for maternity leave shall take at least six (6) weeks of such leave immediately following the actual date of delivery. The Employee, with the agreement of the Employer, may shorten this six (6) week period by providing the Employer with a medical certificate indicating the resumption of her full duties will not endanger her health.
- 26.04 An Employee granted leave without pay pursuant to Clause 26.02 shall, upon return to work, be returned to their former position or be placed in another comparable position with the Employer at not less than the same salary that had accrued to them prior to commencing leave, and at the same level of benefits. Employees will be required to give the Employer two (2) weeks notice in writing of their intention to return to work.
- 26.05 Notwithstanding any date initially selected for the start of maternity leave, if an Employee subsequently indicates in writing that she is no longer able to carry out her full normal duties, she may commence her maternity leave at an earlier date.
- 26.06 A pregnant Employee who presents medical evidence from her physician which satisfies the Employer that continued employment in her present position may be hazardous to herself or to her unborn child, may request a transfer to a more suitable position if one is available.

26.07 Notwithstanding any other provisions of this Article, a pregnant Employee may qualify for a Supplemental Employment Insurance Benefit (S.E.B.) covering the period she has provided medical evidence from her physician which satisfies the Employer she is unable to do her job.

An Employee must apply and when approved, submit to the Employer, proof of receipt of Employment Insurance maternity benefits, in order to be paid the S.E.B. payments. Leave then taken under this Supplemental Plan shall be considered to form part of the fifteen (15) weeks maternity leave without pay for the purposes of Clauses 26.02 and 26.03. An Employee who is eligible for S.E.B. plan shall not be eligible for casual illness leave or general illness benefits.

26.08 An Employee who at the commencement of Maternity Leave is participating in the Benefit Plan according to Article 21 shall continue to be covered according to plan and policy conditions throughout the period of Maternity Leave. The Employee will authorize that the appropriate deductions, if applicable, be made from their personal account to maintain benefits for the portion of the leave that is without pay.

ARTICLE 27

COURT LEAVE

27.01 When a Permanent or Term Employee is summoned or subpoenaed as a witness (except in legal proceedings initiated by the Employee) or is required to serve as a juror under the Jury Act, she/he shall be allowed leave with pay, but any monies receivable by the Employee for witness or juror fees shall be paid to the Employer.

ARTICLE 28

LEAVES OF ABSENCE

28.01 A Permanent Employee may request a leave of absence without pay. To be considered, the request must normally be submitted at least two (2) weeks in advance of the anticipated date of commencement of the leave. Where operational requirements permit and upon approval of the Employer, the leave without pay shall be granted.

28.02 Requests for leave without pay on religious holidays will be considered, provided adequate notice of the request is given.

28.03 Military Leave

An Employee who is required by military authorities to attend training or perform military services shall be granted leave without pay.

28.04 Compassionate Care Leave

- (a) When an Employee with a qualified person in the end-stage of life, who is dying or at significant risk of death within six (6) months, the Employee shall be entitled to leave of absence without pay but with health benefits at the normal cost sharing of premiums including defined benefit pension, for a period of up to six (6) months.

Qualified person means an immediate family member defined as mother, father, spouse including fiancé(e) or child in accordance with the compassionate care benefit under Employment Insurance legislation.

- (b) In order to qualify for leave under this provision, the Employee shall meet the eligibility requirements of the Employment Insurance regulations.
- (c) Employees may be required to submit to the Employer satisfactory proof demonstrating the need for compassionate care leave.

28.05 A Permanent Employee who, at the commencement of a Leave Without Pay, is participating in the Benefit Plan according to Article 21 shall continue to be covered according to the plan and policy conditions throughout the period of Leave Without Pay. The Employee will authorize that the appropriate deductions, if applicable, be made from their personal account to maintain benefits.

ARTICLE 29

STAFF REDUCTIONS

29.01 It is the Employer's goal to maintain job security for Permanent Employees and to manage changes in its business, in a manner, which recognizes the need to assist the Employees when such changes affect their employment or security.

The Employer will make a reasonable effort to effect reduction in the complement of Permanent Employees through attrition prior to and during the following staff reduction process, which applies to Permanent Employees only.

29.02 The Employer shall give a Permanent Employee at least sixty (60) calendar days prior written notice of a staff reduction resulting from the elimination of the Employee's position. The Employer will provide a copy of the written notice to the Union.

29.03 When a staff reduction results in the elimination of a Permanent Employee's position, she/he shall endeavor to obtain an alternate position through consultation with the Employer and Union Representative and by applying for available vacancies.

29.04 Separation Allowance

(a) A Separation Allowance will be provided for Permanent Employees with at least one (1) year of continuous service with the Employer. The Separation Allowance will apply to Permanent Employees who have not secured ongoing employment with the Employer or with a successor Employer.

If alternate employment has not been offered to the Employee within a radius of forty (40) kilometers of the Employee's work location and in a bargaining unit position with the same or better base pay, an Employee may choose to either receive Separation Allowance or be posted to another available position.

This will be the Employee's choice.

Eligible Permanent Employees will be entitled to receive a Separation Allowance at their regular rate of pay according to the following schedule.

In addition, an Employee will be eligible for reimbursement for expenses incurred for retraining, career counseling and/or job search assistance for up to six (6) months after termination under this Article. The maximum allowable reimbursement for an eligible Employee will be one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) plus an additional one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each full year of continuous service.

29.05 Upon payment of the Separation Allowance, an Employee's employment shall be terminated and the Employee shall have no further rights under this Agreement.

29.06 During the period of notice of staff reduction pursuant to Clause 29.02, the Employer will allow the affected Permanent Employee a reasonable amount of time off with pay to be interviewed by prospective external employers.

ARTICLE 30

SAFETY AND HEALTH

30.01 The Employer and the Union agree to cooperate on workplace health and safety issues. The parties acknowledge active participation of everyone is required to maintain appropriate health and safety standards.

- 30.02 An Employee shall immediately notify the Employer when she/he has an incident at work that results in injury or that had or has the potential of causing serious injury or when a serious hazard is identified. The Employer shall take immediate steps upon notification to address the identified incident or serious hazard. All other health and safety concerns should be identified to the Employer in a timely way. The Employer shall take timely and appropriate steps to address the health and safety concerns.
- 30.03 Where the Employer requires an Employee to undergo compulsory medical examination(s), the cost of such examination(s) shall be paid by the Employer.

GENERAL

- 31.01 Upon an Employee's request, the Employer will make reasonable arrangements to have an Employee's personnel file made available for the Employee to examine under Employer supervision. The Employee may request a representative of the Union to be present at the time of the examination.
- 31.02 The personnel file referred to in this Article is the personnel file of an Employee maintained by the Employer. Except as provided hereinafter this file shall contain copies of all documentation pertaining to the Employee. No information pertaining to interview records, documentation of security interviews (including notes, video and audio recordings), reference checks, or medical information shall be placed in this file.
- 31.03 An Employee who absents himself/herself from his employment and who has not obtained the approval of a senior official of the Employer shall, after three (3) consecutive work days of such unauthorized absence, be considered to have abandoned his/her position and will be deemed to have resigned, unless it is subsequently shown by the Employee that special circumstances prevented him/her from reporting to work.

ARTICLE 32

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

32.01 Definitions and Scope

- (a) A grievance is a difference arising out of the interpretation, application, operation or any contravention or alleged contravention of this Agreement or as to whether any such difference can be the subject of arbitration.
- (b) A Policy Grievance is a difference which seeks to enforce an obligation of the Employer to the Union or the Union or its members to the Employer. A policy grievance shall not be an obligation that may or could have been the subject of a grievance by an Employee.
- (c) A grievance of a Probationary Employee concerning dismissal for cause or termination on any basis the Employer may determine, or a grievance concerning a written reprimand or disciplinary suspension, may be subject to the Grievance Procedure except that it shall not be a subject of arbitration at Level 3.
- (d) A grievance of a Term or Casual Employee concerning dismissal for cause or termination on any basis the Employer may determine, or a grievance concerning a written reprimand or disciplinary suspension, may be subject to the Grievance Procedure except that it shall not be a subject of arbitration at Level 3.
- (e) A Permanent Employee who also holds a casual position within the scope of the bargaining unit will be considered a Permanent Employee for the purposes of application of this Article, except that a grievance concerning termination of the casual employment shall not be subject to Arbitration at Level 3.

32.02 Meetings During Grievance Procedure

Employees involved in grievance proceedings including arbitration shall be provided time off with pay for grievance meetings with the Employer that occur at their work location during their normal working hours. The travel expenses for Employees attending grievance proceedings away from the Employee's work location shall be paid by the Union.

Grievance Process

An effort shall be made to settle issues arising from the application of this Agreement fairly and promptly through discussion between the parties to avoid the need for formal grievances. In the event this process does not resolve the issue, the following grievance procedure shall apply.

Level 1

If an Employee or a group of Employees has a grievance, the Employee or group of Employees shall submit to the Employer's designated Level 1 Officer a written statement of the grievance within fourteen (14) days of the date that the Grievor(s) became aware of, or reasonably should have become aware of, the alleged grievance.

The grievance when presented in writing must be signed by the Employee or group of Employees and the Union, and shall contain:

- (1) a summary of circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- (2) the provision(s) of the Agreement considered violated.
- (3) the particulars of the remedy sought.

The Employer's Level 1 Officer or their designate shall meet with the parties and the Grievor(s) within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the grievance and shall render a decision in writing within seven (7) days of this meeting. Upon request by either party, a meeting will be held prior to the Level 1 grievance hearing for the purpose of clarification and/or resolution of the issue(s) in dispute.

Level 2

With the approval of the Union in writing, an Employee not satisfied with the reply at Level 1 shall, within fourteen (14) days of receipt of that decision submit his/her grievance in writing to the Employer's designated Level 2 Officer.

The Employer's Level 2 Officer or their designate shall meet with the parties and the Grievor(s) within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the grievance and shall render a decision in writing within seven (7) days of this meeting. Upon request by either party, a meeting will be held prior to the Level 2 grievance hearing for the purpose of clarification and/or resolution of the issue(s) in dispute.

32.04 Variance From Grievance Procedure

The level of commencement of a grievance may be varied up to and including Level 2 by written agreement between the Employer and the Union.

32.05 Grievances involving dismissal, suspension without pay and demotion shall be commenced at Level 2.

32.06 Policy Grievance

A Policy Grievance shall be submitted to the other Party within fourteen (14) days of the date upon which the alleged violation of the Collective Agreement has occurred, or within fourteen (14) days from the date upon which the aggrieved Party first became aware of the subject of the grievance.

The policy grievance shall contain:

- (1) a summary of circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- (2) the provision(s) of the Agreement considered violated.
- (3) the particulars of the remedy sought.

Policy grievances shall be commenced at Level 2.

32.07 Level 3 - Arbitration

- (a) If a settlement is not reached through the above proceedings, an Employee with the approval of the Union (in the case of an Employee grievance), the Union (in the case of a Union grievance) and the Employer (in the case of an Employer grievance) may refer the grievance to arbitration by notice in writing that must be given within fourteen (14) days of receipt of the reply at the previous stage or level to which the grievance was advanced. Notice to the Employer shall be given to the President of the Employer.
- (b) The submission of a grievance to arbitration shall be to an Arbitration Board of three (3) members, one (1) to be appointed by the Union, one (1) to be appointed by the Employer and a third, who shall act as Chairman, to be mutually agreed upon by the other two (2), or to a single arbitrator, or to a mediator-arbitrator.

- (c)
 - (i) The notice referred to in Sub-clause 32.07 (a) above shall indicate which system of arbitration the party wishes to follow, and state the name of its appointee to an arbitration board or suggest one or more names of persons it is willing to accept as a single arbitrator, or mediator-arbitrator, as the case may be;
 - (ii) Upon receipt of the notice referred to in Sub-clause 32.07 (c) above, the other Party shall respond within seven (7) days, indicating which system of arbitration it finds acceptable in respect to the grievance. If the other Party does not respond within the said seven (7) days, the grievance will be dealt with by an Arbitration Board. If it is not agreed that a single arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator shall be used, the other Party shall state the name of its appointee to an Arbitration Board.

The Party initiating the submission of the grievance to arbitration under 32.07 (c) (i) above shall then, within seven (7) days, state the name of its appointee to an Arbitration Board. If the other Party fails to appoint its nominee to an Arbitration Board within seven (7) days, its nominee will be appointed by the Director of Mediation Services upon request of the Party submitting the grievance to arbitration. If the other Party agrees to a single arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator, it shall suggest one or more names of persons it is willing to accept as arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator.

- (d) Each Party to this Agreement shall bear its own costs of arbitration, including the costs of its appointees to the Board. The Parties shall bear equally the costs of arbitration board chairmen, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators.
- (e) The Employer shall grant an Employee leave of absence with pay for the purpose of attending the arbitration of his/her grievance.
- (f) The Employer shall grant leave of absence with pay to a witness appearing under notice to attend at arbitration proceedings.

32.08

Power of Boards of Arbitration

- (a) Arbitration Boards, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators are empowered to decide grievances between the Parties or persons bound by the Collective Agreement.

- (b) Arbitration Boards, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators shall not add to, alter, modify or amend any part of the terms of the Collective Agreement by their decision, nor make any decision inconsistent with it nor to deal with any other matter that is not a proper matter for grievance under the Collective Agreement.
- (c) Arbitration Boards, single arbitrators and mediator-arbitrators shall confine their decisions solely to the precise issue submitted to them and shall have no authority to make a decision on any other issue not so submitted.
- (d) When disciplinary action against an Employee is involved, the Arbitration Board, single arbitrator or mediator-arbitrator may vary the penalty as is considered just and reasonable under the circumstances.
- (e) Where a grievance is heard by a three (3) member Board, the decision of a majority of the members is the decision of the Board, but if there is no majority, a decision of the Chairman governs and his/her decision is the decision of the Arbitration Board.

32.09 Arbitration Decisions

Arbitration decisions shall be final and binding on the Parties and all other interested persons.

32.10 Procedures and Time Limits

- (a) Time limits and procedures contained in this grievance procedure are mandatory. Failure to pursue a grievance within the prescribed time limits and in accordance with the prescribed procedures shall result in abandonment of the grievance. Failure to reply to a grievance in a timely fashion shall advance the grievance to the next level. Grievances so advanced shall be subject to time limits as if a reply had been made on the last allowable day of the preceding level in the procedure.
- (b) Time limits in this Article may be extended by written agreement between the Employer and the Union.

ARTICLE 33

RESPECT IN THE WORKPLACE

- 33.01 There shall be no discrimination, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced in respect of any Employee by either party by reason of age, race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, religious belief, gender, sexual orientation, marital or family status, disability or any other prohibited grounds as provided in the Alberta Human Rights Act, nor by reason of membership or non-membership or activity in the Union nor in respect of an Employee's or Employer's exercising any right conferred under this Collective Agreement or any law of Canada or Alberta.
- 33.02 The parties agree to cooperate in ensuring that Employees are able to work in an environment free from discrimination, harassment or violence.
- 33.03 The Employer's investigation procedure will not limit an Employee's right to seek redress through any other available procedure including:
- (a) Grievance procedure; and
 - (b) Alberta Human Rights Commission.

ARTICLE 34

JOB OPPORTUNITIES

- 34.01 All permanent vacant positions to be filled shall be posted internally for five (5) business days. Job postings will include the job title, location, primary responsibilities, compensation level and indication that it is a bargaining unit position. The requirement to post may be waived under certain circumstances, including situations where:
- (a) a suitable candidate has been displaced through position abolishment,
 - (b) a suitable candidate has filled the position on a temporary basis for six months or more where the temporary position was initially filled through the internal bulletin process, or
 - (c) the position was posted within the previous three month period and not filled.

- 34.02 If candidates are equally qualified, preference will be given to internal applicants over external applicants.
- 34.03 If a Permanent Employee fills a position on a temporary basis for a set term, their permanent status is retained and they will be returned to their former or comparable position within forty (40) kilometers and at their previous rate of pay.

ARTICLE 35

TERM AND EFFECTIVE DATE

- 35.01 This Agreement shall be effective from April 1, 2011 until March 31, 2014, and shall remain in effect thereafter until a replacement Agreement is established under the Public Service Employee Relations Act.
- 35.02 This Agreement may be amended during its term through mutual agreement in writing between the Employer and the Union.

APPENDIX "A"

SALARY/PAY SCHEDULE

1. The Employer retains the sole discretion to operate and amend compensation programs, such as variable pay or other forms of incentive/performance pay as an addition to the Base Pay conditions covered in this Appendix.

2. Base Pay Conditions: April 1, 2011 – March 31, 2014

(a) Employees shall be paid within the following base pay ranges. The Employer retains the sole discretion to place a newly hired Employee within the applicable base pay range based on the Employer's assessment of the Employee's competencies.

(b) Pay Ranges Effective April 1, 2011: Increase Base Pay Maximum rates by three percent (3%).

Base Pay Minimum rates adjusted accordingly.

(c) An Employee whose salary falls below the base pay maximum rate for his/her position as of April 1, 2011 shall receive a general wage increase of three percent (3%) effective April 1, 2011. (d) Pay Ranges Effective April 1, 2012: Increase Base Pay Maximum rates by three percent (3%).

Base Pay Minimum rates adjusted accordingly.

(e) An Employee whose salary falls below the base pay maximum rate for his/her position on as of April 1, 2012 shall receive a general wage increase of three percent (3%) effective April 1, 2012. Adjustments to base salary rates will not result in base pay rates in excess of the base pay maximum rate of the Employee's pay range.

(f) Pay Ranges Effective April 1, 2013: Increase Base Pay Maximum rates by three percent (3%).

Base Pay Minimum rates adjusted accordingly.

- (g) An Employee whose salary falls below the base pay maximum rate for his/her position on as of April 1, 2013 shall receive shall receive a general wage increase of three percent (3%) effective April 1, 2013. Adjustments to base salary rates will not result in base pay rates in excess of the base pay maximum rate of the Employee's pay range.
- 3.
- (a) An Employee's progression within the salary range shall be based on performance.
 - (b) An Employee whose salary falls below the base pay maximum rate for his/her position shall receive an additional salary adjustment of one point five percent (1.5%) or progression to the base pay maximum rate, whichever is less, effective April 1, 2011. This increase may be withheld in instances where there are significant, documented concerns with respect to the Employee's performance.
 - (c) An Employee whose salary falls below the base pay maximum rate for his/her position shall receive an additional salary adjustment of one point five percent (1.5%) or progression to the base pay maximum rate, whichever is less, effective April 1, 2012. This increase may be withheld in instances where there are significant, documented concerns with respect to the Employee's performance.
 - (d) An Employee whose salary falls below the base pay maximum rate for his/her position shall receive an additional salary adjustment of one point five percent (1.5%) or progression to the base pay maximum rate, whichever is less, effective April 1, 2013. This increase may be withheld in instances where there are significant, documented concerns with respect to the Employee's performance.
 - (e) Adjustments to base salary rates will not result in base pay rates in excess of the base pay maximum of the Employee's pay range.
 - (f) Additional increases for movement through the range and lump-sum payments for Employees at or above the base pay maximum rates may be awarded at the discretion of management effective April 1, 2011, April 1, 2012, April 1, 2013 or through the course of the year, budget permitting. Such additional adjustments will be considered to recognize exceptional performance and/or to address issues of equity within the branch or business unit.

4. If an Employee's salary or hourly rate is above the base pay maximum rate for his/her role, the Employee's salary shall remain unchanged until future increases in the base pay maximum rates result in a maximum rate that exceeds the Employee's salary or hourly rate.
5. However, Employees whose salaries exceed the base pay maximum rates for their roles effective April 1, 2011 will receive a one-time lump-sum payment equal to three percent (3.0%) of their straight time earnings for the period of April 1, 2010 through to March 31, 2011.

RE: Workforce Reduction/Core Transition

In the event of a major workforce reduction, ATB will provide the Union with advance notice of not less than ninety (90) calendar days prior to the effective date. The notice will outline the nature of the reduction, including the number and location of affected Employees. A major workforce reduction is one where thirty (30) or more permanent Employees are impacted by position abolishment at any one time.

A joint Union-Management Committee will be established to explore options to maintain job security for permanent Employees impacted by a major workforce reduction and to manage the required changes in a manner that recognizes the needs and interests of the affected Employees. The Committee may discuss the application of and potential amendments to Article 29, Staff Reductions. This may include potential options such as voluntary severance, or extended notice periods. The parties may also discuss whether there are options to consider the length of service in the identification of impacted associates. In the event that the parties do not reach agreement within thirty (30) days of the date that the Union receives notice of the workforce reduction, the provisions of Article 29 will apply.

The parties are committed to working collaboratively to support employees whose positions are abolished as a result of changes such as the implementation of the new banking system.

Once the scope and magnitude of impact of the new banking system on permanent associates is known, the parties will discuss whether it is appropriate to establish a joint committee to discuss the application and potential amendments to Article 29 or whether the impacts should be addressed in another forum.

RE: Appendix “B” – Job Evaluation

1. An Employee may request a review of the pay grade allocation of his/her job based on a material change to the duties associated with the job since it was allocated to its current pay grade or since the most recent review of the pay grade allocation. A minimum of twelve months must have elapsed since the most recent review of the job. Such requests will be submitted in writing to the Vice President of Human Resources and will include a summary of the changes to the job.
2. The review of the job will commence within thirty (30) days of receipt of the request by Human Resources. Within sixty (60) days of the receipt of the request, the Employee and the Union will be advised in writing of the outcome of the review.
3. If, after consultation with Human Resources, but in any event no later than thirty (30) calendar days from the receipt of the decision, the Union objects to the pay grade allocation, the Union may initiate a grievance on the matter. Such grievances will be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure. If the grievance is not resolved at Step 2, it may be advanced to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of Article 32 of the collective agreement.

If a difference concerning job evaluation is referred to arbitration, the arbitration board or arbitrator will take into consideration the duties of the job at the time the job evaluation request was initiated and the job evaluation plan as defined by the Employer. The arbitration board or arbitrator will not have regard to pay considerations and will not add to, detract from or amend the job evaluation plan. The determination of the arbitration board will be final and binding on the Union, the Employee and the Employer.

4. The Employer may also initiate a review of pay grade allocations for new or altered jobs as outlined in Appendix B of the agreement. If the review results in a change in pay grade allocation and the Union disagrees with the pay grade allocation as determined by the Employer, the Union may initiate a challenge of the pay grade allocation as outlined in paragraph 3 above.
5. Jobs will be evaluated based on the job evaluation plan. A copy of the job evaluation plan will be provided to the Union. Nothing in this agreement precludes the Employer from amending the job evaluation plan. Changes to the plan will be communicated to the Union in writing.
6. It is the Employer's right to determine the job that is to be performed and the performance standards/expectations relating to the job. Job evaluation will be based on the requirements of the job, as defined by the Employer.
7. The parties agree that the following provisions will remain in effect until March 31, 2013.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING

BETWEEN

ATB FINANCIAL
(hereinafter referred to as “the Employer”)

AND

ALBERTA UNION OF PROVINCIAL EMPLOYEES
(hereinafter referred to as “the Union”)

RE: Teleworking/Working from Home

The parties hereby agree to the following terms and conditions concerning Teleworking/Telecommuting based upon the following definition only:

Definition:

“Teleworking/Telecommuting” shall mean work performed by Employees who use computers and telecommunication equipment to work at home or at a remote site approved by the Employer. Equipment shall mean accompanying software, modems, rentals for broadband access/telephone, telephone/headset and office supplies. The Telework/Telecommuting performed is monitored electronically.

This Letter of Understanding shall apply to working under a “Work from Home” agreement which requires that:

- (a) Employee(s) volunteer and agree with the Employer to “Work from Home;” and
- (b) The Employer determines that the Employee is an appropriate candidate to “Work from Home.”

The Union and the Employer shall consult and agree on any other terms and conditions of a Letter of Understanding that will outline the affects on Employees.

No Employee shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement that may conflict with the terms of this Letter of Understanding or any other provisions of the Collective Agreement.

The parties agree that once negotiated, the Teleworking/Telecommuting Letter of Understanding shall form part of the Collective Agreement.

Terms of Agreement:

1. Should the Union or the Employer desire to discontinue the Teleworking agreement, either party shall provide sixty (60) calendar days written notice to the other party.
2. An Employee may discontinue Teleworking by providing sixty (60) calendar days written notice to the Employer or such shorter period as may be mutually agreed between the Employee and Employer.
3. In the event of an emergent situation, the Employer may terminate this agreement and the sixty (60) calendar days notice period shall not apply.
4. The sixty (60) calendar days notice period shall not apply when the Employee is removed from the agreement for cause.
5. The Employee shall be directed to report to an assigned work-site when "Work from Home" is discontinued in accordance with the above. If the Employee cannot be reassigned, Article 29 (Staff Reductions) shall apply.
6. An Employee may be temporarily reassigned to an alternate work-site for operational reasons.
7. Nothing in this Teleworking agreement prevents the Employer from disciplining or terminating an Employee in accordance with Article 24 (Disciplinary Action) of the Collective Agreement.
8. The Employer will visit the home office for business inspection purposes, however, the Employee will receive twenty-four (24) hours notice or such shorter period as mandated by law in advance of such visits. Such visits will occur during normal scheduled shifts except in cases of emergency.
9. An Employee shall not be entitled to shift and/or weekend differential except when directed by the Employer to work during hours that qualify for shift and/or weekend differential.
10. An Employee shall not be entitled to overtime payment except when directed by the Employer to work in excess of the normal hours of work as defined in Article 11 of the Collective Agreement.
11. An Employee shall be entitled to include travel time as part of their scheduled shift unless temporarily re-assigned or required to report to a location other than their home office for a full shift. The employee shall be reimbursed for travel expenses (kilometrage, parking etc.) in accordance with Employer Policy when business travel is required.

12. The Employee shall be available to attend work at ATB Financial sites for meetings, training, projects or performance appraisals etc. as directed by the Employer.
13. The Employee shall report all of their absences from work to their immediate supervisor or designate.
14. It is understood that dependent care provisions will be in place during hours of work.
15. ATB Financial will provide the computer and telecommunications equipment as listed above. ATB Financial will also provide a one-time payment of five hundred ($500.00) to reimburse the Employee for costs incurred to purchase a desk, chair, cross-shredder and fire extinguisher. ATB Financial may reclaim fifty percent (50%) of the one-time payment if the Employee discontinues "Work from Home" as listed above within the first 6 months.
16. The work from home Employee will be responsible for obtaining proper insurance coverage. ATB Financial will provide the work from home Employee with a $5 monthly allowance that will allow for the purchase of the work at home rider on their insurance.

Note: Should the number or title of any article referred to in this letter be amended through the collective bargaining process, the letter will be amended accordingly.

RE: Job Sharing

Job Sharing: is a work arrangement where two employees voluntarily share one position.

The parties hereby agree that a request for “Job Sharing” shall be made in writing to the Branch/Department Manager with a copy to Human Resources. Upon approval of such request the following principles shall apply:

- (a) The proposal will include the positions and individuals to whom it will apply. Any modifications must be specified in writing. The proposal will not negate any terms and conditions in the agreement.
- (b) Such a proposal may only be implemented where the Employer and the Employees have agreed in writing to the terms and may only be changed by mutual agreement. Wherever possible sixty (60) calendar days notice will be provided for any change in terms.
- (c) Once the proposal has been agreed to, a signed copy of the “Job Sharing” agreement will be provided to the Employee, the Employer and the Union.
- (d) The “Job Sharing” agreement shall continue until the Employer or the Employee(s) give notice to terminate.
- (e) Upon termination of the “Job Sharing” agreement, each Employee shall revert to their prior categorization and designation without any loss if available. If not available, Article 29 (Staff Reductions) shall apply.
- (f) The terms of this Letter of Understanding are not subject to the Grievance Procedure.

Note: Should the number or title of any article referred to in this letter be amended through the collective bargaining process; the letter will be amended accordingly.

RE: Payment of Legal Fees

This Letter applies to Employees who are subject to a criminal investigation or are charged criminally as a result of their conduct while performing their duties.

The parties agree:

1. The Employer will pay for up to two (2) hours of legal fees at Alberta Justice rates if an Employee is to be interviewed by an external agency at a criminal investigative interview that results from a matter arising during the course of their employment.
2. If an Employee is subject to criminal charges as a result of an incident or other matter that occurred in the normal course and performance of duties, the Employer may pay reasonable legal fees for the Employee if an internal review determines that the Employee acted honestly and in good faith and had reasonable grounds for believing that the conduct was lawful.

RE: Additional Location Supplement

The parties recognize that there may be instances where additional compensation may be warranted for specific locations on a temporary basis to address issues of recruitment and retention related to the local economic conditions.

In such cases, the Employer will determine the amount and method of the market adjustment and the appropriate duration. The Employer will notify the Union of the terms of the additional compensation.

Upon request of the Union within ten (10) days of receipt of notification from the Employer, the parties will meet to discuss the additional location supplement. If agreement cannot be reached, the supplement will not be implemented. The matter will not be subject to arbitration.
