No employee covered by this Agreement shall suffer loss of seniority due to a layoff beyond their control for a period not exceeding six (6) months or for any period of absence resulting from leave of absence officially granted, injury or sickness, PROVIDED, HOWEVER, that these provisions shall not apply to any such employee who has voluntarily resigned or has been discharged for cause.

(a) Layoff

In the event of a layoff, employees shall be laid off in the reverse order of their bargaining unit-wide seniority, provided that an employee may bump a junior employee only in cases where the senior employee is qualified to fill the lower position.

(b) Recall

Employees shall be recalled to vacated positions for which they are qualified, in the order of their seniority, provided however, seniority for recall purposes shall only be maintained for a period of six (6) calendar months from the date of layoff.

(c) New Employees

No new employees shall be hired following a layoff until those who were laid off have been given reasonable opportunity of recall as follows. The Employer shall make every reasonable attempt to contact employees in order of their seniority, and employees shall be recalled in such order providing that they respond within the stipulated time limits. Upon making contact with an employee, the Employer shall specify the time when the employee shall report for work. An employee who does not respond within 48 hours of the Employer's initial attempt to make contact or who refuses to report for work shall be removed from the respective seniority list. An employee shall report to work at the time specified by the Employer or, in extenuating circumstances and with the approval of the Employer, within two weeks or such other time as may be agreed by the Employer, of the Employer's initial attempt to make contact. Each employee on layoff will be responsible for keeping the Employer notified of a current contact point through which the employee can be reached.

(d) Advance Notice of Layoff

Except in cases of inclement weather, strikes, lockouts or other circumstances beyond the control of the Employer, the Employer shall notify employees who are to be laid off at least ten (10) working days prior to the effective day of layoff. If an employee has not had the opportunity to work during the ten (10) days referred to above, the employee shall be paid for those days for which work was not made available.

- (e) Where the Employer intends a major layoff of employees it shall give to the Union and those employees who will be affected by the layoff at least sixty (60) calendar days' prior written notice thereof. For the purposes of this Clause 11.5(e) the words "major layoff" mean a 10% or more reduction in the work force within the bargaining group due to a reduction in the budget of the Employer. This Clause 11.5(e) does not apply if the reduction of the work force is due to some other body or employer taking over a department or part of the operation or business of the Employer.

11.6 Supervision

For an employee to be considered a supervisor all of the following conditions must be met:

- (a) The authority to supervise must be delegated by the Department Head and may not merely presume on the employee's greater experience and skill.
- (b) The employee must be authorized to assign work to the supervised employee(s).
- (c) The employee must be authorized to direct the course and oversee the details of the supervised employee's work.
- (d) The employee must be responsible for the quality and quantity of the supervised employee's work.
- (e) The supervised employee must be under a duty to obey the orders of the supervisor.
- (f) Rate of pay for the supervisor shall be one step above the maximum step in the range of the highest rated supervised position.

11.7 Changes Affecting the Agreement

The Employer agrees that any reports or recommendations made to the Board of Directors dealing with matters covered by this Agreement, will be communicated to the Union at such interval before they are dealt with by the Board of Directors as to afford the Union reasonable opportunity to consider them and make representations to the Board of Directors concerning them and, further, that if employees are deprived of employment by an implementation of such change, they shall receive priority consideration for other employment with the Employer.

11.8 Directives Interpreting the Agreement

The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of any published directive that tends to interpret, explain or apply the provisions of this Agreement.

11.9 Human Resources Records

- (a) A copy of any written material concerning any disciplinary action (including reprimands) affecting an employee shall be given to the employee as soon as possible after it is recorded in the employee's personal file.
- (b) On and after 1979 March 19, an employee shall be given a copy of any document placed in the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in the file, that employee shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure. The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing arising from a disciplinary grievance any document from the file of an employee the existence of which the employee was not aware of at the time of filing.
- (c) Upon receiving permission from the Administrator, Human Resources or designate, an employee may review the contents of their personnel file provided that such review is in the presence of a person authorized by the Administrator, Human Resources.

11.10 Disabled Employees

Effective 2001 September 21, the Employer and the Union agree to cooperate with each other in making every reasonable effort to provide opportunities for older or partially disabled employees to retain employment, recognizing the Employer is not obliged to create work as part of the accommodation process.

11.11 Occupational Health and Safety

- (a) The Employer and the Union agree that all parties, including employees, have a responsibility to provide and maintain a safe work environment and to work cooperatively to support and develop safe work practices that will not place individual employees, co-workers, the public or the Employer at risk.
- (b) All relevant regulations of the Workers' Compensation Act shall be observed and adhered to.
- (c) An Occupational Health and Safety Committee shall be established consisting of four (4) representatives of the Employer and four (4) Union-appointed representatives. The Committee shall discuss matters related to occupational health and safety and shall make recommendations to the Chief Administrative Officer.

11.12 Labour Management Committee – Teamsters

Effective 2001 September 21:

On the request of either the Employer or the Union, three (3) representatives from each party shall meet at least once every two (2) months until this Agreement is terminated for the purpose of discussing issues relating to the workplace that affect the parties or any employee bound by this Agreement. Where the Union wishes additional representatives to attend, leave may be granted upon the approval of the Administrator, Human Resources.

The purpose of the Labour Management Committee - Teamsters is to promote the cooperative resolution of workplace issues, to respond and adapt to changes in the economy, to foster the development of work-related skills, and to promote workplace productivity.

12. ABSENCE FROM DUTY OF UNION OFFICIALS

The Employer agrees that:

- (a) Where permission has been granted by the Administrator, Human Resources, to an employee representing the Union to leave their employment temporarily for the purpose of settling a grievance, the said members shall suffer no loss of pay for the time so spent.
- (b) Time off without pay shall be granted to official representatives of the Union upon application to and by permission of the Administrator, Human Resources when it becomes necessary to transact business with the Employer in connection with matters affecting members of the Union (effective 2001 September 21, including Shop Steward attendance at arbitrations).

- (c) A maximum of three (3) employees will be permitted time off without loss of pay while engaged in direct negotiations for the renewal of a collective agreement; provided, however, in the event the Employer and Union join with other Employers and Unions in joint negotiations, the number will be reduced to reflect the Union's policy in Joint Negotiations Committee bargaining. The time off for which payment is allowed under this Clause does not include days or part days involving Union caucus alone.

In the event it is impractical to release any one or more of the three (3) persons assigned to union negotiations due to Departmental commitments, the situation will be made known to the Union immediately. If suitable substitution cannot be arranged, either the negotiations will proceed with such employees as can be effectively released, or the negotiations will be delayed until the appropriate persons are available.

- (d) The Union shall provide the Employer with a list of its Shop Stewards. This list shall be kept current by the Union at all times.
- (e) The Employer agrees that any full-time officer of the Union who is on leave of absence for the purpose of performing duties as an officer of the Union shall not lose seniority in the services of the Employer and shall continue to accumulate seniority while performing such duties. Upon retirement from the duties as an officer of the Union, such former Union officer shall be entitled to return to a position within the class of positions to which the employee's former position was allocated and for which the employee is qualified, if any position within such class is held by an employee with less seniority. If all of the positions within such class are held by employees with more seniority or have been abolished, such former Union officer shall be entitled to return to any other vacant position for which the employee is qualified.

13. GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

13.1 Grievances

- (a) Any difference concerning the dismissal, discipline or suspension of any employee or the interpretation, application or operation of this Agreement or any alleged violation thereof, including any question as to whether any matter is arbitrable, shall be dealt with without stoppage of work in the following manner:

Step 1

Within fifteen (15) working days of the date on which the incident giving rise to the grievance occurred or of the date when the employee(s) first became aware of the incident, whichever is later, the aggrieved employee(s) shall first take up the matter with their immediate supervisor, or in the supervisor's absence the Division Head or Department Head. Within ten (10) working days of receiving the grievance, the immediate supervisor and the grievor shall meet to attempt to resolve the matter. At the option of the aggrieved employee a Shop Steward or Union representative may be present at the meeting.

Step 2

If the matter is not satisfactorily resolved within ten (10) working days of the meeting date set out in step one above, the aggrieved employee together with a Shop Steward or other Union representative shall, within ten (10) working days, meet and discuss the matter with the Department Head.

Step 3

If the grievance is not settled within ten (10) working days of the meeting with the Department Head, the matter shall, within ten (10) working days, be referred to the Administrator, Human Resources and the Union Business Representative.

Step 4

If the grievance is not settled within ten (10) working days of being referred to the Administrator, Human Resources and the Union Business Representative the matter shall, within ten (10) working days, be referred to the Chief Administrative Officer.

Step 5

If the matter is not settled in Step 4 above within ten (10) working days of being referred to the Chief Administrative Officer, the matter may be referred by either party to a Board of Arbitration as provided for in Clause 13.3 for final and conclusive determination.

- (b) (i) If the grievance has not advanced to the next stage under Step 2, 3, 4 or 5 within the stated time limits and the onus for delay is upon the Union, then the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and all rights of recourse to the grievance procedure shall be at an end.

- (ii) If the grievance has not advanced to the next stage under Steps 2, 3, 4 or 5 within the stated time limits and the onus for the delay is on the Employer, then the grievance will be deemed to have succeeded and all appropriate steps to remedy the matter shall be taken forthwith by the Employer.
 - (iii) Extensions to the time limits as contained herein may be made by mutual consent of the parties.
- (c) The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee, the existence of which the employee was not aware of at the time of filing.

13.2 General Application Dispute

When a "dispute", as defined in the Industrial Relations Act, arises between the parties, including any difference concerning the interpretation, application, operation or alleged violation of this Agreement which does not specifically involve an employee, the Union may submit the matter, in writing, to the Administrator, Human Resources. If a satisfactory settlement is not reached with the Administrator, Human Resources within ten (10) working days, such matter may be referred to the Chief Administrative Officer at step 4 of Clause 13.1.

If a satisfactory settlement is not reached with the Chief Administrative Officer within ten (10) working days, such matter may be referred to Arbitration under Clause 13.1, step 5, and as provided for in Clause 13.3.

13.3 Arbitration

A Board of Arbitration shall consist of one (1) person to be mutually appointed by the Employer and the Union, unless either party indicates that they want a three (3) person Board of Arbitration which shall consist of one (1) person appointed by each party and a chairperson to be selected by the two so appointed.

Where the parties are using a one (1) person Board of Arbitration, the Employer and the Union shall mutually agree on the person within fourteen (14) calendar days of the referral under Clause 13.1(a), Step 5.

Where the parties are using a three (3) person Board of Arbitration, the Employer and the Union shall appoint their respective representative within seven (7) calendar days of the referral under Clause 13.1(a), Step 5. The two representatives shall select a chairperson within a further seven (7) calendar days.

Where the parties are unable to agree on a person to be a single Arbitrator or a chairperson, as the case may be, either party may apply to the Minister of Labour to make the appointment.

In all other respects, the provisions of the Industrial Relations Act shall apply. The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on both parties. Each party shall bear the expenses of the arbitrator appointed by such party and shall pay half the expenses of the chairperson.

13.4 Dismissal and Suspension

An employee who alleges wrongful dismissal, discipline, or suspension by the Employer shall be entitled to have such grievance settled in accordance with the grievance procedure set forth in Clause 13. If the employee is found by a Board of Arbitration appointed under the provisions of Clause 13 to be dismissed, suspended or otherwise disciplined for other than proper cause, the Board of Arbitration may:

- (a) direct the Employer to reinstate the employee and pay to the employee a sum equal to the wages lost by reason of the dismissal, suspension or other discipline, or such lesser sum as in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration is fair and reasonable; or
- (b) make such order as it considers fair and reasonable, having regard to the terms of this Agreement.

An employee who is reinstated by a Board of Arbitration shall be entitled to reinstatement without loss of seniority.

14. TECHNOLOGICAL CHANGE

- 14.1 During the term of this Agreement, any disputes arising in relation to adjustment to technological change shall be discussed between the bargaining representatives of the two parties to this Agreement.

Where the Employer introduces, or intends to introduce, a technological change, that:

- (a) affects the terms and conditions, or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Agreement applies; and
- (b) alters significantly the basis upon which this Agreement was negotiated, either party may, if the dispute cannot be settled in direct negotiations, refer the matter directly to an Arbitration Board constituted under 13.3 of this Agreement, by-passing all other steps in the grievance procedure.

- 14.2 The Arbitration Board shall decide whether or not the Employer has introduced, or intends to introduce a technological change, and upon deciding that the Employer has, or intends to introduce a technological change, the Arbitration Board:
- (a) shall inform the Minister of Labour of its finding; and
 - (b) may then or later make any one or more of the following orders:
 - (i) that the change be made in accordance with the terms of this Agreement unless the change alters significantly the basis upon which this Agreement was negotiated;
 - (ii) that the Employer will not proceed with the technological change for such period, not exceeding ninety (90) days, as the Arbitration Board considers appropriate;
 - (iii) that the Employer reinstate any employee displaced by reason of the technological change;
 - (iv) that the Employer pay to that employee such compensation in respect of the displacement as the Arbitration Board considers reasonable.
- 14.3 The Employer will give to the Union in writing at least ninety (90) days' notice of any intended technological change that:
- (a) affects the terms and conditions or security of employment of a significant number of employees to whom this Agreement applies; and
 - (b) alters significantly the basis upon which this Agreement was negotiated.

15. CLASSIFICATION AND EVALUATION

The classification, evaluation, reclassification and revaluation of positions covered by this Agreement shall be determined in accordance with a procedure set forth in the Job Evaluation Agreement between the Employer and the Union.

Effective 2001 September 21:

- (a) In any case where it is claimed that the duties, responsibilities or required qualifications of a position have been significantly changed, or have become sufficiently dissimilar from the type of duties, level of responsibilities or required qualifications as described in the class specification for the class to which the position is currently assigned so as to warrant reclassification, either the Employer or the Union or the incumbent employee may at any time initiate a request for reclassification of such position in accordance with the provisions of the Job Evaluation Agreement.

- (b) The decision of the Employer shall be subject to the Review and Appeal Procedures set forth in the Job Evaluation Agreement. In any case where reclassification is agreed to by the parties or awarded on appeal, it shall take effect from the date the request was initiated by the Employer, by the Union or by the incumbent employee as the case may be (requests are deemed to be initiated once all the paperwork has been received by the Human Resources Department).

16. GENERAL PROVISIONS

16.1 Employment Equity

The Employer and the Union agree with employment equity programs which will assist visible minorities, persons with disabilities, First Nations people, and women in gaining entry into employment and which will provide opportunities for advancement.

16.2 Notice Boards

Space will be provided on existing notice boards for posting of Union notices, or additional notice boards will be provided where practical to do so. All Union notices must be signed by an authorized representative of the Union and be approved by the Administrator, Human Resources before posting. Notices not properly authorized will be removed.

16.3 Employment of Students

Effective 2001 September 21:

The Union agrees that the Employer shall have the right to employ students in any Federal or Provincial make-work program, and to pay only wages set out in the conditions governing such programs. Students employed under this Clause shall not be used to replace any Regular Employee.

Employees hired for recognized education co-op programs, work experience programs, or specialized projects for which grant funding is not available, but which the parties agree are within the intent of this Clause, shall be deemed Student Employees.

17. WORKPLACE HUMAN RIGHTS

Effective 2001 September 21:

The Employer and the Union recognize their respective obligations under the Human Rights Act and no form of discrimination under the Act will be tolerated in the workplace.

Any complaint alleging discrimination shall be dealt with at the employee's choice either in accordance with appropriate policy or through the grievance procedure.

If the employee also chooses to pursue the complaint through Human Rights, the grievance or policy process will be considered to be held in abeyance until the complaint process is concluded.

18. MISCELLANEOUS MATTERS

- (a) It is agreed between the parties hereto that Schedule "A", "B", "C", "D", and "E" and the Letters of Understanding Re Grant Employment, Job Sharing, and Employee-Funded Long Term Disability Plan annexed hereto shall form part of this Agreement.
- (b) Employees previously employed by member municipalities and hired by the Employer for a newly acquired function shall be granted seniority equal to that acquired with their former employer but this seniority would be applicable to that function only as set out in the letters patent

A copy of this request shall be forwarded to the Administrator, Human Resources and the Union.
2. The employee with whom it is contemplated the position shall be shared must be qualified to perform the duties and responsibilities of the position.
3. Where an employee's request is approved and results in an acceptable job sharing arrangement, the Administrator, Human Resources shall provide each affected employee with a letter covering the terms and conditions of the Job Sharing arrangement signed by the Employer and Union.

4. Under normal circumstances, the regular daily and weekly hours of the position shall remain unchanged as a result of the Job Sharing arrangement unless otherwise varied by the terms and conditions as provided by the letter referred to in paragraph 3 above.
5. Notwithstanding the Department Head's sole discretion to approve a request, where an employee's request is denied, the Union may request a meeting with the Department Head and Administrator, Human Resources to discuss the matter.

III. Duration

1. Each Job Sharing arrangement shall be for a maximum period of one (1) year unless extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.
2. A Job Sharing arrangement may be terminated earlier than expected by either of the employees or by the Employer provided thirty (30) calendar days' written notice has been served to the other parties, unless otherwise provided for in the letter referred to in paragraph II, item 3. Other employees temporarily appointed to fill positions vacated as a direct result of Job Sharing shall be advised at the time of their temporary appointment that their term in the position could be cut short as a result of an early cancellation.
3. Upon the expiry or termination of the Job Sharing arrangement, the Regular Full-Time Employee shall revert to working in his/her position on a full-time basis under the terms and conditions applicable to Regular Full-Time Employees unless some other Job Sharing arrangement has been agreed upon.

IV. Employee Status and Working Conditions

1. A Regular Full-Time Employee in a Job Sharing arrangement shall continue to maintain the status of a Regular Full-Time Employee during the period of time covered by the Job Sharing arrangement and shall accumulate seniority in proportion to the scheduled hours compared to the full-time hours of the position. Such an employee shall be entitled to exercise bidding rights as a Regular Full-Time Employee and to use accumulated seniority for all applicable purposes including layoff, bumping and recall.

2. The general principles with respect to wage rates, employee benefit entitlements and premium payments for Regular Full-Time Employees in Job Sharing arrangements are as follows:
 - (a) Wages shall be paid in accordance with the ratio that the employee's scheduled weekly hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
 - (b) Paid leave benefits, such as Vacation, Public Holidays, Sick Leave, and Gratuity shall be earned on a proportionate basis (in the case of Compassionate Leave paid on a proportionate basis) in accordance with the ratio that the employee's scheduled weekly hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
 - (c) The employee's share of the premium payments for Health and Welfare benefits, such as Medical, Extended Health, Dental and Group Life (including Accidental Death and Dismemberment (AD&D)) shall increase proportionately as the number of scheduled weekly hours decrease in relation to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
3. In accordance with the general principles outlined in paragraph 2, except as otherwise stated, the following shall apply to Regular Full-Time Employees:
 - (a) Vacation Entitlement

The employee's annual vacation entitlement shall be prorated according to the number of weekly hours the employee is scheduled to work in comparison to the full-time hours of the position being shared. It is understood that the Employer shall not adjust the start date of the employee for the period of time spent in the Job Sharing arrangement and as such any future vacation entitlement shall not be delayed as a result of time spent in a Job Sharing arrangement.
 - (b) Supplementary Vacation

Supplementary vacation shall not be prorated as a result of an employee participating in a Job Sharing arrangement.

(c) Public Holidays

- (i) Where an employee's normal hours of work are based on a five (5) day week, the employee shall take public holidays as they occur. The employee's public holiday entitlement and pay shall be earned on a proportionate basis in accordance with the ratio that the employee's scheduled weekly hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.
- (ii) Where the employee has not received sufficient public holiday hours as part of their work schedule or been credited with sufficient hours as a result of the proration or made alternate arrangements to the satisfaction of the department to use public holiday hours to which they were entitled as a result of the proration, the employee's public holiday account shall be credited with the appropriate number of hours at year end.
- (iii) Where the employee has received an overage on the number of paid hours, the employee may be scheduled to work without pay to make up the equivalent number of overpaid hours. Where the Employer is not able to schedule work for the employee, arrangements shall be made to deduct the overage either from the employee's compensating time off account or from the employee's normal pay and such deduction is to be done at year end or at the expiry of the Job Sharing arrangement, whichever is the earlier.

(d) Medical Services Plan, Extended Health, Dental and Group Life

The Employer shall pay a prorated share of the premiums for the above-noted benefits based on the proportion of the employee's new scheduled hours compared to the full-time hours of the position being shared and the premiums normally paid by the Employer for a full-time employee. The employee shall pay the balance in order to maintain full coverage.

An example of the calculation of the Employer's share is as follows:

$$\text{Employer's share} = 17.5 \text{ (schedule hours)} / 35 \text{ (normal full-time hours)} \times 60\% \text{ (employer's portion of premium)} = 30\% \text{ of premium}$$

(e) Sick Leave and Gratuity

For the period of the Job Sharing arrangement, the employee shall have sick leave and gratuity days credited on a prorated basis, calculated on the same proportionate basis as the employee's new scheduled hours bears to the full-time hours of the position being shared.

(f) Royal Trust Savings Plan (RTSP)

The employee shall continue to be entitled to RTSP on the basis of one and one half percent (1½%) of the reduced earnings.

(g) Superannuation

Where an employee is contributing to superannuation and enters a Job Sharing arrangement, the employee shall be required to continue making payments toward superannuation. The cost sharing arrangement shall continue on the same percentage basis applied to the reduced earnings.

(h) Increments

A Regular Full-Time Employee sharing a position shall be eligible for increments upon the completion of the equivalent period of service applicable to a Regular Full-Time Employee in a similar classified position.

V. Auxiliary and Regular Part-Time Employees

Auxiliary and/or Regular Part-Time Employees sharing a portion of a regular full-time position as a result of a Job Sharing agreement shall continue to be treated in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Collective Agreement.

VI. Termination

Either party may cancel this Letter of Understanding by providing at least thirty (30) calendar days' written notice to the other party. Notwithstanding such cancellation, all Job Sharing arrangements in effect at the time of cancellation shall continue under the individual terms agreed upon.

The Employer and the Union agree that the following terms and conditions shall apply to employees who have completed the qualifying period and are enrolled in the employee-funded Long Term Disability Plan:

For as long as this Letter of Understanding remains in effect, the Employer agrees to administer the enrollment of employees in the employee-funded Long Term Disability Plan including making payroll premium deductions for employees.

1. Employment Status

- (a) All Regular Full-Time Employees who have completed the six (6) month probationary period and all Regular Part-Time Employees who regularly work twenty (20) or more hours each week and who have completed six (6) months of employment shall become members of the employee-funded Long Term Disability Plan.
- (b) An employee who does not have sufficient Sick Leave credits to cover the ninety (90) day eligibility period, shall be deemed to be on an unpaid leave of absence for the remaining balance of the eligibility period. Medical, Extended Health, Dental, and Group Life/AD&D coverage shall continue during the ninety (90) day eligibility period in accordance with the cost-sharing arrangements agreed to in the Collective Agreement.

- (c) An employee who has been granted a Long Term Disability benefit and has been absent from work beyond the two (2) year own occupation portion of the LTD Plan shall have the employment relationship ended save and except the employee will continue to be eligible for the Long Term Disability Plan as determined by the carrier and further the employee shall retain a residual right to apply for a posted vacancy as an internal candidate for the following one (1) year period.
- (d) Where it is medically determined, that an employee is not anticipated to return to work, prior to the expiry of the two (2) year own occupation portion of the LTD Plan, the employee will be advised that their position may be posted in accordance with Article 11.4. Should the employee recover prior to the expiry of the two (2) year own occupation portion then they would be entitled to return to a comparable position.

2. Benefits

Thereafter the employee shall pay the full premiums for Medical, Extended Health, Dental and Group Life. If the Group Life Plan includes a premium waiver, no premiums will be payable as long as that provision is in effect.
- (b) Employees shall not earn other benefits such as, vacation pay, public holidays, sick leave and gratuity, while in receipt of LTD benefits. Where an employee returns to regular employment within the two (2) year period referred to in paragraph 1(c), the time absent will be included in the calculation of the employee's seniority and eligibility for future vacation entitlement only.

3. Pensionable Service

The Employer shall request and upon receiving approval from the Superannuation Commissioner, the period of Long Term Disability will be considered as pensionable service.

4. Certification of Disability

The Employer may require an employee to periodically provide medical certification during the period of disability and the date when the employee is expected to be able to return to regular duties. Such certification may be required, in an acceptable form, from the employee's physician. Where the Employer or the Medical Consultants of the Employer require a Medical Assessment, it shall be at the Employer's expense. Failure to provide proper medical certification may result in the employee being denied coverage under paragraphs 2 and 5 of this Letter of Understanding.

5. Return to Work (Rehabilitation)

- (a) Where the Employer and the employee's physician determine it advisable, employees may be assigned, either on a part-time or a full-time basis, to another position commensurate with the employee's skill, knowledge, ability and medical condition, and where mutually agreed between the Employer and the Union, posting and seniority requirements may be waived.
- (b) Employees who return to employment on a part-time basis or to light duties shall be considered to be on one (1) absence for the purposes of the Long Term Disability Plan.

6. Other Employment

Where an employee in receipt of Long Term Disability benefits, is gainfully employed in any capacity whatsoever, unless otherwise agreed or unless the employment is approved as rehabilitative employment, the employee shall not have access to any of the Sick Leave.

7. WCB and Disability

Where the Workers' Compensation Board ceases paying temporary disability benefits to an employee and the employee is unable to return to work, the time absent on WCB shall be subtracted from the two (2) year time period set out in paragraph 1(c) for an employee to return to work.

8. Amendments/Cancellation of the LTD Plan

- (a) The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a copy of the LTD Plan and to keep the Employer informed of any changes to the Plan. Any changes to the ninety (90) day eligibility period or the two (2) year own occupation period shall not alter those time frames as they appear in this Letter of Understanding, unless the Employer agrees in writing to amend the time frames.
- (b) In the event that the LTD Plan is terminated, this Letter of Understanding will terminate on the same date. However, this Letter of Understanding will continue to apply to any employee who continues to receive LTD benefits after the termination date until such time that all such employees have exhausted their remaining rights under this Letter of Understanding. A change in carrier shall not be considered a termination of the Plan.
