30.03 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in a hearing relating to disciplinary action any document from the file of an employee the content of which the employee was not aware of at the time of filing or within a reasonable period thereafter.

30.04 Any document or written statement related to disciplinary action, which may have been placed on the personal file of an employee shall be destroyed after two (2) years have elapsed since the disciplinary action was taken, provided that no further disciplinary action has been recorded during this period.

ARTICLE 31 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

31.01 Subject to and as provided in Section 62 of the Parliamentary Employment and Staff Relations Act, an employee who feels that he/she has been treated unjustly or considers himself/herself aggrieved by any action or lack of action by the Employer is entitled to present a grievance in the manner prescribed in clause 31.04 except that:

a) where there is another administrative procedure provided by or under any Act of Parliament to deal with his/her specific complaint, such procedure must be followed;

and

b) where the grievance relates to the interpretation or application of this Collective Agreement or an Arbitral Award, he/she is not entitled to present the grievance unless he/she has the approval of and is represented by the Alliance.

b) Level 2 – Senior management in the applicable service or his/her authorized representative;

c) Final level – Parliamentary Librarian or his/her authorized representative.

31.03 The Employer shall designate a representative at each level in the grievance procedure and shall inform each employee to whom the procedure applies of the name or title of the person so designated together with the name or title and address of the immediate supervisor to whom a grievance is to be presented. This information shall be communicated to employees by means of notices posted by the Employer in places where such notices are most likely to come to the attention of the employees to whom the grievance procedure applies, or otherwise as determined by agreement between the Employer and the Alliance.

31.04 An employee who wishes to present a grievance at a prescribed level in the grievance procedure, shall transmit this grievance to his/her immediate supervisor who shall forthwith:

a) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at the appropriate level;

b) provide the employee with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received by him/her.

31.05 Where it is necessary to present a grievance by mail, the grievance shall be deemed to have been presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to have been received by the Employer on the date it is delivered to the appropriate office. Similarly the Employer shall be deemed to have delivered a reply at any level on the date on which the letter containing the reply is postmarked, but the time limit within which the grievor may present his/her grievance at the next higher level shall be calculated from the date on which the Employer's reply was delivered to the address shown on the grievance form.

31.06 A grievance of an employee shall not be deemed to be invalid by reason only that it is not in accordance with the form supplied by the Employer.

31.07 An employee may be assisted and/or represented by the Alliance when presenting a grievance at any level.

a) Where an employee wishes to present a grievance, the employee shall do so in the manner prescribed in section 31.04 and on the approved form:

(i) where the grievance does not relate to termination of employment, demotion, or denial of appointment or classification, at the first level of the grievance process;

and

(ii) where the grievance relates to termination of employment, demotion, or denial of appointment or classification, at the final level of the grievance process.

b) A grievance shall be presented by an employee:

31.09 An employee may present a grievance, other than a grievance presented under section 31.08a)(ii), at a level higher than the first level in the grievance process, not later than:

a) the tenth (10th) day after the day on which the employee received a reply to the grievance at the preceding lower level;

or

b) where the employee does not receive a reply to the grievance, the thirtieth (30th) day after the last day on which the employer was required to reply to the grievance at the preceding lower level.

31.10

a) Subject to 31.10b), where a grievance has been presented by an employee at any level in the grievance process in accordance with sections 31.08 and 31.09, the authorized representative of the employer at that level shall serve on the employee a reply to the grievance in writing not later than the fifteenth (15th) day after the day on which the grievance was presented at that level.

b) Where a grievance that relates to classification has been presented in the manner referred to in subsection-31.08b)(ii), the authorized representative of the employer at the final level shall serve on the employee a reply to the grievance in writing not later than the thirtieth (30th) day after the day on which the grievance was presented at that level.

c) An employee may wish to be assisted or represented by an employee organization in the presentation of a grievance. If the employee organization agrees to the request a copy of the reply of the authorized representative of the employer shall be served on the authorized representative of the employee organization named by the employee at the address given in the statement.

31.11 Where an employee has been represented by the Alliance in the presentation of his/her grievance, the Employer will provide the appropriate representative of the Alliance with a copy of the Employer's decision at each level of the grievance procedure at the same time that the Employer's decision is conveyed to the employee.

31.12 The decision given by the Employer at the Final Level in the grievance procedure shall be final and binding upon the employee unless the grievance is a class of grievance that may be referred to adjudication.

31.13 In determining the time within which any action is to be taken as prescribed in this procedure, Saturdays, Sundays and designated paid holidays shall be excluded.

31.14 The time limits stipulated in this procedure may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee and, where appropriate, the Alliance representative.

31.15 Where it appears that the nature of the grievance is such that a decision cannot be given below a particular level of authority, any or all the levels, except the final level, may be eliminated by agreement of the Employer and the employee, and, where applicable, the Alliance.

31.16 An employee may abandon a grievance by written notice to his/her immediate supervisor.

31.17 An employee who fails to present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits shall be deemed to have abandoned the grievance, unless he/she was unable to comply with the prescribed time limits due to circumstances beyond his/her control.

31.18 No person who is employed in a managerial or confidential capacity shall seek by intimidation, by threat of dismissal or by any other kind of threat to cause an employee to abandon his/her grievance or refrain from exercising his/her right to present a grievance as provided in this Collective Agreement.

31.19 Where an employee has presented a grievance up to and including the final level in the grievance procedure with respect to:

a) the interpretation or application in respect of the employee of a provision of a collective agreement or an arbitral award;

and his/her grievance has not been dealt with to his/her satisfaction, he/she may refer the grievance to adjudication in accordance with the provisions of the Parliamentary Employment and Staff Relations Act.

31.20 Where a grievance that may be presented by an employee to adjudication is a grievance relating to the interpretation or application in respect of him/her of a provision of a Collective Agreement or an arbitral award, the employee is not entitled to refer the grievance to adjudication unless the bargaining agent for the bargaining unit to which the Collective Agreement or arbitral award applies signifies:

a) its approval of the reference of the grievance to adjudication;

and

b) its willingness to represent the employee in the adjudication proceedings

31.21 Either party may, if it so desires, consult with the other party with respect to a grievance at each level of the grievance procedure.

32.01 The Alliance and the Employer recognize the right of employees to work in an environment free from harassment and agree that sexual harassment and abuse of authority will not be tolerated in the workplace.

32.02 An employee, who feels he/she or she has suffered harassment, may seek redress through the confidential complaints procedure of the Harassment in the Workplace Policy of the Library of Parliament, or, through the filing of a grievance under the provisions of Article 31 of this collective agreement. In the latter instance, the grievance will be referred immediately to the final level of the grievance procedure.

ARTICLE 33 – HEALTH AND SAFETY

An employee shall take all reasonable and necessary precautions to ensure his/her own safety and the safety of his/her fellow employees. The working environment and facilities will be maintained in a clean and sanitary condition by the Employer.

33.02 Leave of absence with pay up to six (6) months will be granted by the Employer to any employee on account of physical injury and/or mental strain received in the performance of his/her duties which is compensable under provisions of the Government Employees Compensation Act and approved by the Workers' Compensation Board. This leave will not be charged against any of the employees' sick leave credits.

a) Where an employee deems it unsafe for him/her to undertake work alone and the situation presents a clear and definite hazard to life and limb, it shall be his/her responsibility to notify his/her supervisor, or if that is not possible, to summon help as is required. If neither course of action is possible, and if the situation still presents a clear and definite hazard to life and limb, he/she may refuse to complete the job, pending the elimination or lessening of the hazardous situation. Nevertheless, if the perceived hazard does not present a situation of imminent danger, the complaint shall be referred to the Health and Safety Committee.

b) Notwithstanding the above and where it can be shown that the situation did not present a clear and definite hazard to life and limb, the employee may be subject to the appropriate disciplinary measure.
