THE PARTIES HERETO COVENANT AND AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING TERMS, CONDITIONS AND PROVISOS:

ARTICLE 1 - DEFINITIONS

1. Casual Employee - means any person hired by the TPA for a definite period of time, with a definite termination date, as set out in a casual position classification in Schedule "A" hereto.
2. Contractual Employee - means any person engaged by the TPA for the purpose of replacement of an employee who is on vacation, sick leave or other leaves of absence for the duration of such absences or for temporary assistance on special projects or heavy work loads. In the case of special projects or heavy work loads, such engagement shall not exceed two (2) months duration unless otherwise mutually agreed by the parties hereto.

ARTICLE 2 - PURPOSE

This agreement is entered into by the parties hereto in order to provide for orderly collective bargaining relations between the Toronto Port Authority and its employees in the bargaining unit. It is the desire of both parties to co-operate in maintaining harmonious relations between the Toronto Port Authority and its employees and to provide an amicable method of settling any differences or grievance concerning the general working conditions which may arise from time to time.

ARTICLE 3 - RECOGNITION AND NEGOTIATIONS

The TPA, or anyone authorized to act on its behalf, approve and recognize the Union as the sole collective bargaining agency for all their employees working in the position classifications set forth in Schedule "A" hereto. When new position classifications are created by the TPA that are similar to those in the bargaining unit, the parties hereto shall mutually agree whether or not such new classifications should be incorporated into the bargaining unit and shall agree on the rate of pay for such position classifications if so incorporated, it being distinctly understood and agreed that contractual employees as herein defined are specifically excluded. In the event of a dispute, the matter in dispute shall be referred to arbitration in accordance with Article 16 hereof. For purposes of this Agreement, Contractual employees are deemed not to be part of the bargaining unit.

The TPA hereby consents and agrees to negotiate with the Union through any authorized committee thereof in all matters affecting the relationship between the parties to this Agreement, looking towards a peaceful and amicable settlement of any differences that may arise between them. Supervisors or other management personnel whose regular jobs are not in the bargaining unit shall not work on any jobs which are included in the bargaining unit when qualified employees are available except for the purpose of instruction, experimenting, in emergencies when regular employees are not available, or in circumstances when regular employees are occupied with other work.

ARTICLE 4 - AGREEMENTS OUTSIDE THE CONTRACT

No employees shall be required or permitted to make any written or verbal agreement with the TPA or its representatives that is contrary to this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

All matters concerning the operation, administration and conduct of the TPA's business and affairs not limited by the terms of this Agreement shall be reserved to management and be its sole right and responsibility. The question of whether any of these rights is limited by this Agreement may be decided through the grievance and arbitration procedure.

ARTICLE 6 - STRIKES AND LOCKOUTS

During the lifetime of this Agreement, no strike shall be called or sanctioned by the Union, and no lockout shall be effected by the TPA in accordance with the Canada Labour Code.

The Union undertakes that, notwithstanding anything which may occur, it will to the best of its ability, assist in the continued maintenance and welfare of those services deemed by the TPA to be essential to the safety of the TPA's property, activities and services for the time being, under the direction of the TPA. The Union further undertakes, that it will not cause or sanction sympathetic or jurisdictional strikes of its members, and that it will do its best to prevent any strike by its members or any of them, and in the event of such strike occurring, the Union will use all reasonable efforts to cause the striking members to return to work. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Union from engaging in a strike when it is in a legal position to do so pursuant to the Canada Labour Code.

Should any member of the Union suffer physical injury as a result of crossing a picket line to comply with the provisions of this article, full compensation with respect to all expenses arising from such injury shall be paid by the TPA.

ARTICLE 7 - DISCRIMINATION

- a) There shall be no discrimination, interference, restriction or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any employees in the matter of hiring, wage rates, training, up-grading, promotion, transfer, layoff, discipline, or discharge by reason of age, political or religious affiliations, sex, sexual orientation, nor by reasons of his membership in a labour union.
- b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the requirement by the TPA that the retirement from service of employees in accordance with the terms of a pension plan is deemed not to be discrimination for reasons of age. Any Federal legislation mandatorily compelling the TPA to alter the compulsory retirement age of its employees shall be implemented.

ARTICLE 7 – DISCRIMINATION (cont'd)

- c) Relatives, as defined in Article 23(b), may be hired, promoted, transferred etc., unless the employee is to be supervised by the relative, or if it is believed that the hiring, promotion, transfer etc., of such a relative would cause a conflict in the working relationship.

ARTICLE 8 - UNION SECURITY

As a condition of employment for all employees in the bargaining unit and for casual employees when employed in the positions within the bargaining unit, the TPA will deduct from the wages of each employee each pay period a sum equal the regular dues charged by the Union to its members, and will remit to the Treasurer of the Union the total of all amounts so deducted not later than the fifteenth day of the following month.

It is understood that the foregoing will be amended as required should Local 416 enter into a direct remittance agreement with the Canadian Union of Public Employees.

The TPA agrees that special dues assessed by the Union upon its members in accordance with the Constitution and By-laws of the Union will be deducted from members of the Union upon proper notification to the TPA from the Union, and will remit to the Treasurer of the Union the total of all amounts so deducted not later than the fifteenth day of the following month.

ARTICLE 9 - NEW EMPLOYEES

The TPA shall acquaint new employees with the Union Agreement and shall, upon the hiring of a new employee in the bargaining unit, as soon as practicable, advise the Union in writing of such employee's name, address and classification.

New employees shall be presented with a copy of the agreement by the TPA on commencement of employment.

ARTICLE 10 - CORRESPONDENCE

All correspondence between the parties arising out of this agreement or incidental thereto, shall pass to and from the Manager, Human Resources and the President of the Union, with copies to the Chief Shop Steward.

ARTICLE 11 - LABOUR MANAGEMENT NEGOTIATIONS

- a) Bargaining Representatives

The authorized bargaining representatives of the Union shall have the right to appear before the TPA or its representatives from time to time for the purpose of making representation in respect to matters concerning this agreement. Such meetings shall be held at a time and place fixed by mutual agreement and as expeditiously as possible.

ARTICLE 11 - LABOUR MANAGEMENT NEGOTIATIONS (cont'd)

b) Representative of the Canadian Union

The Union shall have the right at any time to have the assistance of a representative of the Canadian Union of Public Employees when dealing or negotiating with the TPA.

c) Notice of Officers

The Union agrees to keep the TPA advised of the names of its officers, executive, stewards and negotiating committee upon their election or any change therein. When, in the normal process of a lay-off, the Chief Steward is displaced from his job, then he shall be deemed to have top seniority amongst employees covered by the Salaried Agreement for the purpose of Article 13 provided he is employed in a salaried position. The Chief Steward shall be entitled to displace another employee in an equal or lower rated job in a salaried position for which he then has the qualifications to perform, so that he shall be entitled to remain in some capacity in the employment of the TPA until his then current term of office expires, which for the purpose of this clause, shall not be in excess of three years from the meeting at which he was elected to his office.

d) Time Off for Meetings

When the TPA permits representatives of the Union to leave their employment temporarily in order to meet with the TPA or its representatives to carry on negotiations or grievances, or any other similar Union business, the representatives shall suffer no loss of pay for time lost from work by reason of attending such meetings.

ARTICLE 12 - SENIORITY

a) Seniority List

The TPA shall maintain a seniority list showing each employee's seniority. An up-to-date seniority list shall be sent to the Union and posted on all applicable bulletin boards in January of each year.

b) Seniority for New Employees

New employees shall be considered probationary for a period not to exceed six (6) months from the date of hiring. During the probationary period, employees shall be entitled to all rights and privileges secured by this agreement; except with respect to Pension or Sick Leave Plans, discharge or lay-off, which the Union shall not grieve. The employment of such probationary employees may be terminated at any time during the probationary period. After completion of the probationary period, seniority shall be effective from the original date of continuous employment or continuous casual employment in the case of a casual employee.

ARTICLE 12 – SENIORITY (cont'd)

c) Seniority During Absence

If an employee is absent from work because of sickness, accident, lay-off, maternity leave, or leave of absence approved by the TPA, he shall not lose seniority rights. During a period of lay-off an employee does not prejudice his seniority rights if he refuses a recall to a position in a lower salary group, except as set-out hereafter.

An employee shall lose his seniority in the event:

1. He is discharged for just cause and is not reinstated;
2. He resigns;
3. After a lay-off, he fails to return to work after receipt of seven (7) calendar days' notice by registered mail to do so, unless through sickness or other just cause and the TPA are so advised. It shall be the responsibility of the employee to keep the TPA informed of his current address;
4. He is laid off for a period longer than two (2) years;
5. He is absent from work without authorized leave for four (4) consecutive working days or more unless there was a reasonable justification for such absence without leave;
6. He is transferred out of the bargaining unit to another position within the Commission and a period of six (6) months has elapsed from the effective date of such transfer.

ARTICLE 13 - LAY-OFF AND REHIRING

In the cases of lay-offs within any classification covered by this agreement the following procedure will be followed:

- a) The TPA shall meet with the Union and discuss the proposed lay-off prior to the implementation thereof.
- b) Provided skills or special experience are not required, probationary employees in the department affected will be laid off first. Thereafter, seniority within the department shall govern the order of lay-off; provided the employee(s) so affected has (have) the qualifications and the ability to perform all of the work in the classification(s) into which he or she (they) is (are) moving.
- c) An employee who is displaced from his department may elect to be laid off or may elect to displace an employee with less overall seniority in a job in some other department except for the supervisory positions and provided the employee has the necessary qualifications and has the ability to perform all of the work in the position. Upon such displacement, the displacing employee will receive the rate established for the position he has entered. The displacing employee will also be entitled to the benefit of a three

(3) day familiarization period for the position he has entered.

ARTICLE 13 - LAY-OFF AND REHIRING (cont'd)

- d) Recall after lay-off shall be in the inverse order of the above.
- e) An employee who has taken another position as a result of a lay-off must return to his original position when it is re-activated.
- f) In the event of a lay-off, the TPA shall notify employees who are to be laid off not less than ten (10) working days before the lay-off is to be effective.

If the employee laid off has not had the opportunity to work ten (10) full days after notice of lay-off, he shall be paid in lieu of work for that part of ten (10) days during which work was not made available.

ARTICLE 14 - STAFF CHANGES

- a) When vacancies occur in the bargaining unit set out in Schedule "A", or any new position classifications are created and which, pursuant to the recognition clause (Article 2), have been incorporated into the bargaining unit, the TPA shall post a notice thereof on applicable bulletin boards and forward a copy to the Secretary of the Union at least five (5) working days prior to an appointment being made. Such notice shall contain the following information:

Nature of position; required knowledge and education or equivalent; ability and skills; permanent or casual; anticipated duration; and wage or salary rate.

The Department affected shall take all reasonable steps to provide such notice to all absent employees.

- b) In cases of staff changes the following factors shall govern:
 - i) Skill, ability, experience, qualifications, and education or equivalent;
 - ii) seniority.

When the factors in (i) are relatively equal, seniority shall govern. To assist in assessing the factors set out in (i), the TPA may require practical, oral and written tests. Such tests shall be consistent and not applied in an unreasonable or arbitrary manner. The particular results and tests shall be made available to the Union Grievance Committee during a grievance hearing concerning a staff change. On any arbitration concerning the TPA's selection, the TPA agrees to lead its evidence first if the Union so requests in advance of the arbitration hearing.

- c) The successful applicant will assume the duties of the new position within thirty (30) days of the vacancy date or receive the appropriate rate of pay if it is higher. The successful applicant shall be placed on a three (3) month probation in the new position, and the appointment shall become permanent at the end of the probationary period, conditional on satisfactory service. If the applicant's service during the probationary period is unsatisfactory, or he wishes to return to his former position, he shall be returned to his former position at his former salary, without loss of seniority, and all other employees affected shall be returned to their former positions in like fashion.

ARTICLE 14 - STAFF CHANGES (cont'd)

- d) The TPA shall give the Union notification, in writing whenever possible prior to all terminations of employment of employees in the bargaining unit, except for contractual employees as herein defined. Such notice shall contain the reasons for such terminations.
- e) An employee will be limited to one transfer each year to an equal rated or lower rated job.
- f) All applicants for job positions shall be notified in writing of the final disposition of their applications.
- g) With respect to job vacancies, or new permanent positions, both outside the bargaining unit, the TPA will use its best efforts to advise the Union of such positions. The Union agrees that no rights secured by this Agreement with respect to vacancies and new positions within the bargaining unit shall apply to positions outside the bargaining unit.
- h) An employee who is transferred out of the bargaining unit to another position within the Commission may be returned within a period of six (6) months from the effective date of such transfer to his former position and all other employees affected shall be returned to their former positions in like fashion.
- i) Disabled Employees' Preference

An employee covered by this agreement who through advancing years or disablement is unable to perform his regular duties, will be given the preference of any light work available provided there is a job opening and provided that such employee has the qualifications and the ability to perform all of the work in such job. Such employee will receive the salary payable at the time for the position to which he is assigned.

When two or more employees meet all of the above qualifications, and request consideration for the vacancy, the position will be filled by the most senior of the employees eligible for consideration.

ARTICLE 15 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

- a) Both the TPA and the Union emphasize the desirability of a satisfactory grievance procedure, the purpose of which will be to settle as many grievances as possible in a prompt and civil manner.
- b) The TPA acknowledges the right of the Union to appoint, or otherwise select, a Grievance Committee of three (3) members who shall be employees of the TPA. The TPA shall be informed of the names of the Committee's members and shall be informed promptly in writing of any changes in the Committee's membership. It is agreed that no more than two (2) of the committee members will be granted leave to attend meetings at any one time.

ARTICLE 15 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (cont'd)

- c) Prior to the formal filing of a grievance, an earnest effort may be made to settle the dispute informally by the aggrieved employee(s) together with his shop steward if he so desires, seeking a resolution from the immediate managerial supervisor within five (5) working days after the incident giving rise to the dispute became known, or should have become known to the employee.

Any settlement(s) of disputes dealt with in accordance with the above shall be without prejudice to either party in relation to the interpretation and application of this agreement.

- d) Disputes arising between the TPA and any employee(s) regarding the interpretation, meaning, operation or application of this agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this agreement has been violated, or should any other dispute arise, the matter(s) will, subject to (c) above, be considered to be a formal grievance and be dealt with as follows:

STEP 1

The aggrieved employee(s) shall submit a Local 416 Grievance Form to the immediate managerial supervisor signed by the employee(s) and the Steward, within five (5) working days after being refused redress by said supervisor, or in the event the process outlined above has not been followed, within five (5) working days after the incident giving rise to the grievance became known, or should have become known to the employee. Within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance the Department Manager and/or his designated representative will arrange to meet with the employee and his Steward. The Department Manager will issue a formal reply to the grievance within five (5) working days of this meeting.

STEP 2

Failing satisfactory settlement under Step 1, the Union may, within five (5) days after receipt of the step one reply, forward the grievance to the Manager, Human Resources, or his designated representative. At the earliest convenience of the parties, the Manager, Human Resources and the Director of the applicable area will arrange to meet with the Union to hear the grievance. The Manager, Human Resources, will issue a formal reply to the grievance within five (5) working days.

STEP 3

Failing satisfactory settlement under Step 2 the Union may, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Step 2 reply, refer the dispute to Arbitration in the manner set forth in Article 16.

- e) Where a policy grievance involving a question of general application or interpretation occurs concerning a group of employees, Step 1 may be by-passed and Step 2 proceeded with directly.

ARTICLE 15 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE (cont'd)

- f) Except where the parties otherwise agree, grievances settled satisfactorily within the time allowed shall date from the time that the grievance was filed.
- g) Any of the time limits set forth in this article may be extended by mutual agreement of the parties expressed in writing.
- h) Attendance for the Union at Step 2 of the grievance procedure shall include the employee(s), Grievance Committee, or other Local 416 or CUPE Representative as determined appropriate by Local 416 in the circumstances.
- i) Where in any stage of the foregoing procedure the Union fails to adhere to the time limits provided therein, and where in the instance of a particular grievance the TPA intends to strictly rely on said time limits, notice in writing to the Union must be issued declaring same, and where the Union fails to respond within five (5) additional working days to said notice by indicating it intends to proceed, the TPA shall be entitled to treat the grievance as abandoned and at an end.

Where in any stage of the foregoing procedure the TPA fails to adhere to the time limits provided therein, and where in the instance of a particular grievance the Union intends to strictly rely on said time limits, notice in writing to the TPA must be issued declaring same, and where the TPA fails to respond within five (5) additional working days to said notice by indicating it intends to comply, the Union shall be entitled to advance the matter to the next step.

- j) The TPA may, in respect of a dispute with the Union or any of its officers regarding the interpretation, meaning, operation or application of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that this agreement has been violated, or should any other dispute arise, consider the dispute to be a formal grievance and be dealt with as follows:

STEP 1

The Manager, Human Resources may within five (5) working days after the incident giving rise to the grievance became known, or should have become known to the TPA, file a formal grievance with redress sought, in writing with the President of Local 416. Within five (5) working days of receipt of the grievance the President of the Union and/or his delegate shall discuss the grievance with the Manager, Human Resources and/or his designated representative. The Union will issue a formal reply to the grievance within five (5) working days.

STEP 2

Failing satisfactory settlement under Step 1, the TPA may, within thirty (30) days after receipt of the Step 1 reply, refer the dispute to Arbitration in the manner set forth in Article 16.

ARTICLE 16 - ARBITRATION

a) Composition of Board of Arbitration

When either party requests that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the request shall be made in writing, addressed to the other party to the Agreement. Within ten (10) working days thereafter each party shall name an arbitrator to an Arbitration Board and notify the other party of the name and address of its appointee.

If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, or if the two appointees fail to agree upon a Chairman within fourteen (14) working days, the appointment shall be made by the Minister of Labour, Canada, upon the request of either party.

The parties may mutually agree to a single arbitrator.

b) Decisions of the Board

The decision of the Board of Arbitration shall be final and binding on all parties, but in no event shall the Board of Arbitration have the power to alter, modify, or amend this agreement in any respect. The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board. In the event that there is no majority, then the decision of the Chairman shall be the decision of the Board.

c) Expenses to the Board

Each party shall pay:

1. the fees and expenses of the arbitrator it appoints;
2. one-half the fees and expenses of the Chairman.

d) Amending of Time Limits

Any of the time limits set forth in this Article may be extended by agreement of the parties expressed in writing.

e) Witnesses

At any stage of the grievance or arbitration procedure, the parties may have the assistance of the employee(s) concerned as witnesses and any other witnesses, and all reasonable arrangements will be made to permit the conferring parties or the arbitrator(s) to have access to any part of the TPA's premises to view any working conditions which may be relevant to the settlement of the grievance.

f) Statement of Particulars

The party requesting the arbitration shall deliver to the other party at a reasonable time prior to the date set for the hearing a reasonable statement of the particulars of the claim being submitted to arbitration. The purpose of this statement of particulars is to allow the other party an opportunity to learn the case it must meet and it is understood that the party seeking arbitration is not bound to the contents therein.

ARTICLE 17 - DISCHARGE AND DISCIPLINE

- a) An employee may be dismissed or disciplined only for just cause and the Union shall be advised promptly in writing by the TPA of the reason for such dismissal or discipline.
- b) An employee considered by the Union to be unjustly discharged or suspended or otherwise disciplined shall be entitled to a hearing under Article 15, Grievance Procedure. Step 1 of the Grievance Procedure shall be omitted in cases of suspension and discharge.
- c) Should it be found that an employee has been unjustly suspended or discharged, such employee shall be immediately reinstated to his former position, without loss of seniority rating, and shall be compensated for all time lost in an amount equal to his normal earnings during the pay period next preceding such discharge or suspension, or by any other arrangement which is just and equitable in the opinion of the parties or in the opinion of the Board of Arbitration if the matter is referred to such a Board. Provided, however, that the Board of Arbitration shall not have the right to award punitive damages.

ARTICLE 18 - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

1. Work Periods

- a) A normal basic work week for employees shall be defined as eight (8) hours per day on five (5) consecutive days between 7:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday to Friday inclusive. Subject to the exceptions listed in Schedule "A" attached, it is understood and agreed that employees shall be granted one hour off for a lunch break within the eight hours per day.
- b) In the event an employee requests a lunch break of shorter or longer duration than provided for in (a) above, approval of such request will not be unreasonably withheld, subject to the requirements of the business.

Where such request is granted, the regularly scheduled end of shift will be adjusted accordingly.

Where a request is granted for any period exceeding 30 consecutive working days the TPA shall notify Local 416 of such changes.

- c) Changes in (a) may be made at any time by the mutual agreement of the parties hereto in writing.

 - b) When the TPA requires only one day to be worked, and the employee has the option of which day he or she chooses to work, the pay will be at the rate of time and one-half; but when the TPA choose the day to be worked, the pay will be at the rate applicable for the day.
 - c) An employee required to work on a paid holiday as listed in Article 19, herein, shall be paid at the rate of two times his standard rate of pay for all time worked and in addition shall be granted one (1) day off in lieu at his convenience where practical, except as part of annual vacation, unless the TPA agrees that it be taken as part of annual vacation, or, at the employee's option, he shall receive the equivalent in pay rather than a day off in lieu.
4. An employee entitled to overtime pay may substitute equivalent time off in lieu of payment at times mutually agreeable to the employee and the TPA.

5. Overtime Meal Allowance
