- 13.2 Through mutual agreement between the Employee and the Employer, overtime worked by the Employee may be compensated through time off with pay in lieu of salary payment. Compensating time off shall be scheduled by mutual agreement between the Employer and Employee within six (6) months of when the overtime is worked. If mutual agreement on scheduled time off will not result in debanking all accumulated entitlement to compensating time off within this six (6) month period, the Employer shall have the discretion to schedule compensating time off in the following six (6) months or to pay out the accumulated entitlement as salary. Payouts shall be at one and one-half (1.5) times the Employee's regular hourly salary for each hour of overtime worked.

When a day designated as a Paid Holiday falls on a Part-time Permanent or Term Employee's regularly scheduled day of rest, the Employee shall be granted an additional day off with prorated pay (for example a Part-time Employee working 60% of the Full-time hours would be paid 60% of one days' pay for the additional day off in lieu of the holiday).

The Employee shall be granted vacation entitlement at the rate of one-twelfth (1/12) of the above hours of entitlement for each month of service to the end of the calendar year in which vacation is granted, provided that when employment commences on or before the fifteenth (15th) day of any month, s/he shall be granted vacation entitlement from the first date of that month and when employment commences on or after the sixteenth (16th) day of any month, s/he shall be granted vacation entitlement from the first day of the following month.
 - (c) Part-time Permanent or Term Employees shall receive vacation on a prorated basis (for example a Part-time Employee working 60% of the Full-time hours will receive 60% of the vacation entitlement).

A minimum of two (2) weeks vacation (three (3) weeks if service is greater than five (5) years) is required to have been taken in order for a payout to be considered.

- 15.6 Where a Permanent or Term Employee is allowed to take any leave of absence, other than sick leave, in conjunction with a period of vacation leave, the vacation leave shall be deemed to precede the additional leave of absence, except in the case of maternity leave which may be authorized before or after vacation leave.
- 15.7 A maximum of five (5) days (prorated for part-time employees) of vacation entitlement is eligible to be carried forward to the following year. Vacation that is carried forward must be used by December 31, of the following calendar year. Additional vacation carry forward is subject to Employer approval and must be used within the next calendar year.

- 15.12 Unless otherwise permitted by this Agreement, an Employee shall not be paid in cash in lieu of vacation earned, except upon termination in which case s/he shall receive vacation pay for such vacation earned but not taken.
- 15.13 Upon termination of employment, the Employer is authorized to deduct an amount from the Employee's final pay equal to the amount of unearned vacation days that have been utilized.

Employees within the scope of this Agreement shall be covered by the same Employer's Benefit Plan as applies to the Employer's employees who are outside the scope of this Agreement including amendments that may occur from time-to-time.

- 19.2 The benefit plan premiums will be eighty-five percent (85%) paid by the Employer, fifteen percent (15%) paid by the Employee for Permanent and Term Employees in full – time positions.

The Employer's premium payment for Permanent or Term employees in Part-time positions shall be reduced on a prorata basis according to normal hours of work for the Extended Health Care, Dental, Employee and Family Assistance, and Alberta Health Care plans. For example, the Employer's premium payment for an Employee working 60% of the Full-time hours would be fifty-one percent (51%) of the total premium cost (85% X .60). The Employee would pay the remaining forty-nine percent (49%). The terms of the policies of insurance and plan conditions shall not be considered as incorporated in this Agreement by reference or by necessary intendment. Differences respecting any matters related to the administration and application of the benefit plan therefore are not subject to the grievance and arbitration provisions of this Agreement. The Union shall be provided with a copy of the benefit plans, upon request.

- 19.4 Casual Employees who have worked fourteen hundred and fifty (1450) hours, exclusive of overtime, in a twelve (12) month period shall thereafter, in lieu of receiving benefits pursuant to this Article, be allowed, in addition to regular salary, pay at one percent (1%) of regular salary.

2. An Employee's progression within the salary range for the Employee's Salary Classification shall be based on the following conditions:
 - (a) Employees will be eligible for salary step progression on January 1 of each year.
 - (b) Permanent and Term Employees hired prior to July 1 in a calendar year will be eligible for a salary step progression review during January of the following calendar year. Permanent and Term Employees hired from July 1 to the end of the calendar year will be eligible for a salary step progression review during the January that follows their completing one (1) year of service. Casual Employees will be eligible for a salary step progression review during the January that follows each accumulation of 1885 hours worked. Salary step increases resulting from this review will be effective on January 1.
 - (c) Employees must have satisfactory performance to qualify for salary step progression. If an Employee's performance is not satisfactory at the time of the January review, the date of the Employee's salary step increase will be delayed until satisfactory performance is achieved.

- (d) Work experience is one of the factors that qualifies an Employee for salary step progression. Therefore, if a Permanent or Term Employee is absent for an accumulated period of time equalling one hundred and thirty (130) work days or more in any continuous twelve (12) month period due to leaves of absence, including maternity, parental or adoption leave, Personal Leave days, General Illness or WCB, the Employee's salary review following their return to work will be postponed.

If the one hundred and thirty (130) work days of absence in a continuous twelve (12) month period occurs within a single calendar year, the Employee's review will be delayed by one (1) year to the subsequent January review. If the one hundred and thirty (130) work days of absence in a continuous twelve (12) month period occurs over two (2) calendar years, the Employee's review will be delayed by one (1) year to the subsequent January review, based on the calendar year in which the majority of the absence occurs.

The one hundred and thirty (130) work days will be appropriately prorated for a part-time Employee.

- 3. Conversion of annual salary rates to hourly rates will be determined by dividing annual salaries by 1892 hours. Daily rates will be determined by dividing annual salaries by 261 days.

Compressed or Flexible Hours of Work

1. This letter of understanding is on a without prejudice basis. It sets forth terms and conditions of employment to be observed where the Employer utilizes any form of compressed or flexible system of normal hours of work.
2. The Parties agree that Employees and the Employer may examine the feasibility of entering into a compressed or flexible work week system. Provided that services are not adversely affected and there are no operational difficulties, the Employer may implement a flextime or compressed work week system of hours of work, but participation by an Employee in such systems shall be voluntary. The Employer reserves the right to give final approval regarding any Employee's participation in either flextime or a compressed system of hours of work.
3. The Employer has the sole right to determine the number of Employees who are required to be at work. However, upon entering into a flextime system, the Employees are entitled to have the first opportunity to plan their work schedule, within the flextime system, whereby they may arrange their starting times, lunch periods and finishing times on a daily basis, in keeping with the Employer's operational requirements.

4. An Employee participating in a flextime system of hours of work will be allowed a ten (10) hour carry over, either in the way of a bank or a deficit, and regular monthly salary shall be paid provided the Employee's time is within these limits and the variance is approved by the Employer. An Employee may not accumulate a bank in excess of ten (10) hours, and if at the end of any month his deficit is more than ten (10) hours, he shall be deducted for those hours that are in excess of ten (10) hours. Hours shall not be banked unless the Employee has actually worked more than normal hours of work.
5. The banked hours may be taken, as time off with pay. Employee preference in this regard shall be honoured where operational requirements permit.
6. Authorized overtime hours worked outside of flex or core times may not be used to cover off deficits pursuant to Section (4) above.
7. In the event the flextime or compressed work week system of hours of work does not result in the provision of a satisfactory service, or is deemed by the Employer to be impractical for other reasons, the Employer may require a return to normal hours of work in which case Employees shall be provided advance notice of two (2) weeks.
8. An Employee who is working according to a flexible or compressed work week system may opt for normal hours of work by providing the Employer advance notice of two (2) weeks.
9. Employees working according to a compressed work week system of hours of work will have benefits and entitlements which are expressed in terms of daily or weekly entitlements, converted to produce the equivalent hours of benefits and entitlements as they would have had if the work week had not been compressed. This will result in no loss or gain in Employee benefits and entitlements.
10. Casual employees are excluded from compressed and flexible work arrangements
11. Where applicable these provisions shall have force and effect in lieu of Articles 12 and 13 of this Collective Agreement.

12. During the life of the Collective Agreement, the Union or the Employer can give notice to withdraw from the Letter of Understanding with three (3) months written notice.

13. This Letter of Understanding is subject to review when the Collective agreement is due for negotiation.

Continued Operation of the Benefit Administration Progression Series

The Employer will continue operation of the Benefit Administration Progression Series. The position of Benefit Clerk will be the entry level posted position for the purposes of the Benefit Administration Progression Series. Advancement through the Benefit Assistant and Benefit Specialist levels will then be based on progression criteria established for the Benefit Administration Progression Series. Benefit Assistant and Benefit Specialist positions will not be posted but will be filled through this progression.

While the Benefit Administration Progression Series will be continued as set out above, the administrative conditions of the program and criteria for progression shall continue to operate by policy outside the scope of this Agreement. The policy may be amended from time-to-time and shall not form part of the collective agreement and will not be considered as incorporated by reference.

Participation in the Incentive Pay Plan

The parties agree that Employees will have the right to decide if they wish to participate in the Employer's Incentive Pay Plan. Conditions for this Employee choice shall be as follows:

1. The Incentive Plan will operate according to the Employer's Incentive Pay Plan Policy as amended from time-to-time, and will continue in effect unless the majority of Bargaining Unit Employees vote to discontinue participation. The Incentive Pay Plan Policy shall not form part of the collective agreement and will not be considered as incorporated by reference.
2. These conditions on implementation of the Incentive Pay Plan shall be separate and apart from ratification of a new collective agreement. The ratification vote on terms of a new collective agreement and the Employee vote on the above Incentive Pay Plan conditions shall be separate and not linked to one another in any manner.
3. Employees shall not vote on participation in the plan more than once in any calendar year. In the event Employees vote to discontinue participation in the plan, such discontinuance shall take effect in the next following calendar year.

Upon receipt of the union's list, the employer may add positions to be included in the review.
6. The Committee shall not have authority to make a decision but may make joint recommendations to their respective principles.
7. Recommendations by the Committee as a whole, or by committee members to their respective principals, are not binding on either party.

8. In the event the Committee is unable to issue a joint recommendation, the Committee members may report their respective recommendations back to their principals.
