ARTICLE 1- RECOGNITION

- 1.01 The Company recognizes the Union as the sole and exclusive bargaining agent with respect to wages, hours of work, and other working conditions, for all employees of Excel Cargo Handling Services Inc., excluding managers and those above the rank of manager at Toronto, AMF, Ontario.
- 1.02 The word Employee(s) as used in this agreement means any employee employed by the "Company" at the location hereinafter designated.

ARTICLE 2 - NO DISCRIMINATION/HARASSMENT

- 2.01 The Company and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination, that adversely affects specific employees or groups of employees, based on the prohibited grounds as defined in the Canadian Human Rights Act, or acts or behaviour that creates an intimidating, threatening, coercive, or hostile work environment.

The prohibitive grounds include: race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status, disability, conviction or which a pardon has been granted.

- 2.02 Sexual Harassment, which is prohibitive and defined by the Canada Labour Code as any conduct, comment, gesture, or contact of a sexual nature likely to cause offence or humiliation to any employee. This includes anything that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by the employee as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or any opportunity for training or promotion.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY

- 3.01 All dues deducted must be remitted to the Local Union Financial Secretary within five working days of the deductions along with a list of names and the amount of each deduction.
- 3.02 The Company will also supply a list of those members who did not have Union dues deducted and the reason why no deduction took place.

3.03 The Financial Secretary of the Local Union will notify the Company of any change in the amount of Union Dues to be deducted in line with constitutional requirement of the National Union.

3.04 Union Dues: When to Deduct and Amount to be Deducted

Union dues are payable from the first full pay received by the employee following the date of hire. Minimum amount of union dues shall be:

- ▶ two hours, twenty minutes straight-time pay for all members who work forty hours or more in a month. For those members who work less than forty hours in a month the minimum monthly dues will be equivalent to one hour and 10 minutes straight time pay.
- ▶ for those members paid by the hour, day, week or month, the dues shall be based on the amount earned per straight-time hour in the last payroll period worked before the dues are payable.

For those whose earnings vary, straight-time earnings shall be based on average earned per hour in the last month worked.

Amount Includes:

- ▶ any amounts considered regular pay
- ▶ incentive earnings

Amount Does Not Include:

- ▶ shift premiums-overtime premiums

Dues Are Payable When Member Receives Benefits in Lieu of Work Such As:

- ▶ supplemental unemployment benefits
- ▶ vacation pay
- ▶ holiday pay
- ▶ jury-duty pay
- ▶ bereavement pay

Dues Are Not Payable When A Member Receives:

- ▶ sick and accident benefits
- ▶ workers compensation benefits

ARTICLE 4 - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

- 4.01 The control and direction of the employee work force, including the right to hire, suspend or discharge for just cause, terminate, to reassign, to transfer or layoff because of lack of work or other legitimate reasons is vested solely in the Company.
- 4.02 Any of the reasonable rights, powers or authority, the Company had prior to the signing of this Agreement are retained by the Company, except those which are subject to the provisions of this Agreement.

ARTICLE 5 - DATA TO BE SUPPLIED TO UNION

- 5.01 The Company will supply to the Union committee with the following information at the end of every month and send a copy to the local Union office:
1. Employees who are in the bargaining unit regardless of whether or not they paid dues in the month.
 2. Employee's number and their hourly rate and classification.
 3. Employees transferred into or out of the Bargaining Unit.
 4. The number of hours worked in the month.
 5. Employees status (i.e. at work, on vacation, weekly sick benefits, LTD, WSIB, retired in the month, any other leave of absence) and the date of occurrence.
 6. Layoffs and recalls.
 7. Employees who have lost seniority.
 8. Names, addresses, and postal codes of all bargaining unit employees.

ARTICLE 6 - SENIORITY

- 6.01 The fundamental rules respecting seniority are designed to give employees an equitable measure of security based on length of service with the Company.
- 6.02 Seniority will be established and maintained for all employees from date of hire.
- 6.03 All employees names will appear on a seniority list as of their date of hire, including contract employees and be revised every six months and posted on Union notice boards. A copy of such list will be given to the Union Chairperson of the Committee. The Company will provide to the Local Union and the National Office an updated mailing list which shall include the name, address, phone number and postal code of all employees.
- 6.04 Employees will be regarded as probationary employees for the first ninety (90) calendar days of their employment, including part worked days. Seniority will start from the first date of hire and their name will appear on the Seniority List in order of the respective date of hire.
- There will be two seniority lists: a) station attendants, b) cargo agents. Bargaining unit leads and supervisors will be included on their respective seniority lists. Employees transferring or posting will take their seniority to the new classification.
- 6.05 In the event more than one employee is hired on the same date, the Company will randomly assign each employee with a seniority code number, this number will be used in determining each employee's seniority standing, ie. lowest seniority code number will be highest seniority standing on such date.

ARTICLE 7 - LOSS OF SENIORITY

7.01 Seniority rights shall cease for any of the following reasons:

1. If an employee voluntarily quits the employ of the Company.
2. If an employee is discharged for just cause and such employee is not reinstated pursuant to the provisions of the grievance procedure.
3. If an employee overstays a leave of absence or remains away from work without permission for a period of more than five (5) consecutive working days, the employee shall be subject to discipline up to and including discharge, unless the employee has a justifiable reason for such absence.
4. If an employee fails to report for work in accordance with a notice of recall, or within seven (7) working days after registered mailing date of such notice, whichever is later, unless a satisfactory reason is given.
5. If laid off, an employee will be retained on the seniority list for a period of thirty-six (36) months or for a period of time equal to their accumulated seniority at date of layoff whichever is greater.
6. If an employee transfers to a position outside the bargaining unit.

ARTICLE 8 - LAYOFFS AND RECALLS

8.01 The Company will give at least seven (7) days notice to employees and the Union of any contemplated layoffs.

8.02 Whenever it becomes necessary to decrease the working force, probationary employees will be the first laid off, if further layoffs are necessary, employees with the least amount of seniority shall be laid off, by classification, provided those remaining employees with more seniority are able and willing to do the work available. In the event of such a layoff all employees will be given five (5) working days notice of the layoff.

8.03 An employee from either classification may bump if he/she is qualified to perform the duties of the other classification, or may elect to be laid off with no loss of seniority.

- 8.04 The District Chairperson will be retained in the employ of the Company during their respective terms of office, notwithstanding their position on the seniority list, so long as the Company has work available which they are able and willing to perform.
- 8.05 Employees who have been laid off in accordance with the above provisions will be returned to work in line of seniority in which they were laid off provided they are able and willing to do the work available.
- 8.06 The Company will provide the Chairperson of the Union Committee with a list of employees to be laid off or recalled, also any cancellation of such notices.

ARTICLE 9 - WAGE ADMINISTRATION AND RATE PROTECTION

- 9.01 An employee who is upgraded shall have his/her wages adjusted on the date of such assignment.
- 9.02 An employee who is moved by the Company to a lower paying job shall maintain his/her rate of pay in effect at the time of such move for the life of the agreement. This rate protection will not apply to an employee moved from a temporary assignment, or to an employee who refuses to return to his/her formerly held job from which they were moved.
- 9.03 No job will be re-evaluated either upward or downward during the life of the agreement, except by mutual agreement.

ARTICLE 10 - JOB POSTING

- 10.01 In the event new jobs are created or vacancies occur within the bargaining unit, the Company will post such new jobs or vacancies for a period of five (5) working days, in order to allow bargaining unit employees to apply.
- 10.02 In filling vacancies in the cargo agent classification by a station attendant, the employee will have thirty (30) working days to work at the job to determine their ability to perform the work required.

10.03 In case the employee is not retained in the job by the Company, or the employee voluntarily elects to give up their rights to the job, providing it is within the thirty (30) day working day period mentioned in (2) above, the employee will be returned to his/her former job, and any other employee affected thereby will be returned to his/her job on a similar basis and thereafter the original job will be filled in accordance with this section of the agreement.

Employees wishing to upgrade their skills for future postings will make their intention known, in writing, to the management and Union. A program to initiate this request will be implemented as soon as possible.

ARTICLE 11 - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

11.01 The purpose of this Article is to establish a procedure for the settlement of all grievances.

11.02 Any employee having a grievance may first take the matter up with his/her committeeperson who will discuss said complaint with the supervisor concerned.

STEP I: If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within twenty-four (24) hours, the committeeperson will then submit the grievance in writing, to the manager. The manager shall give his/her decision in writing to the committeeperson within five (5) working days of the receipt of the grievance.

STEP II: Should the Union be dissatisfied with the manager's decision the Union may refer the grievance to a meeting of the Union committee and representatives of management, who shall meet within five (5) days of the request for such meeting. The Union National Representative and/or the Local Union representative shall be in attendance at this meeting.

11.03 If management's decision is not satisfactory to the Union, it may be referred to an arbitrator, provided written notice of the party's intention to refer the dispute to an arbitrator is given to the other party within ten (10) days after management's decision. Within five (5) days of the giving of written notice, both parties will exchange lists of three (3) proposed arbitrators. In the event that no name is common to both lists, either party may within ten (10) days after the lists have been exchanged request the Minister of Labour to appoint an arbitrator and shall provide the other party with a copy of such request. The Company and the Union will equally share the cost of the arbitrator.

11.04 The following special procedure shall be applicable to a grievance alleging improper discharge or suspension of an employee. The grievance may be lodged in writing through the Chairperson of the Committee to the management within two (2) working days after the receipt of the grievance. If the decision is not satisfactory to the employee or the Union, the matter may then proceed on the giving of the prescribed notice of appeal to an impartial arbitrator selected as herein provided.

11.05 The term working days when used in this Agreement for grievance procedure, shall exclude Saturdays, Sundays, holidays as defined herein.

11.06 The grievance procedure outlined in this Agreement shall apply equally to a grievance lodged by a group of employees, or to a Union policy grievance.

ARTICLE 12 - LEAVE OF ABSENCE

12.01 Upon application and one (1) week's notice, except in cases of emergency, leaves of absence will be granted employees without loss of seniority. Leaves of absence must be signed by the Company and a copy given to the Union Committee. The leave of absence will not be unreasonably denied.

12.02 Any employee of the Company elected or appointed to a full-time position in the Local Union or National Union, CAW will be granted a leave of absence by the Company. Such leaves will remain in effect until notice to cancel such leave is given by the Union.

- 12.03 The Company will grant a leave of absence with pay to members of the Union to attend to union business outside the workplace and will bill the Union monthly for reimbursement.
- 12.04 The Chairperson of the Union Committee shall be granted a leave of absence of one (1) day per week to attend to any business arising from this Collective Agreement, paid for by the Company. The leave of absence will not be unreasonably denied.
- 12.05 Employees who are granted a leave shall have their seniority accrue while on such leave.
