Article 1

Purpose of Agreement

- 1.01 The purpose of this Agreement is to:
- (a) maintain and improve the relationship between the Employer, the employees and the Union;
 - (b) set forth certain terms and conditions of employment relating to pay, hours of work, employee benefits, and general working conditions affecting employees covered by this Agreement; and
 - (c) recognize the mutual value of joint discussions in all matters pertaining to terms and conditions of employment and working conditions.
- 1.02 The parties to this Agreement share a desire to improve the quality, to promote the well-being and increased productivity of the employees to the end that the Employer will be well and efficiently served in order to provide the best care possible and health protection to the residents of the Employer's operation. Accordingly, the parties are determined to establish, within the framework provided by law, an effective working relationship at all levels in which members of the Bargaining Unit are employed.

Article 2

Interpretation and Definitions

- 2.01 For the purpose of this Agreement:
- (a) "Agreement" means this Collective Agreement;
 - (b) "Allowance" means compensation payable to an employee in addition to his/her regular remuneration payable for the performance of the duties of his/ her position;
 - (c) "Bargaining Unit" means ~~all~~ employees of Pimaksliirvik Corporation in Chesterfield Inlet, Nunavut, excluding the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer, the Director of Care, the Advisor to the Chief Executive Officer, the Receptionist, summer students and term employees;
 - (d) "Casual employee" means an employee who is not assigned shifts on a regular basis but works on a 'call-in' basis. A Casual employee is assigned shifts as needed by the Employer to fill vacancies in the schedule on a weekly or daily basis;
 - (e) "Continuous employment" means uninterrupted employment over time:

When an employee ceases to be employed for a reason other than dismissal, abandonment of position, or termination on probation, and is re-employed within a period of four months, his/her periods of employment, excluding the period of absence, shall be considered as continuous employment with the employer;

- (f) "Day of rest" in relation to an employee means a day other than a holiday on which that employee is not ordinarily required to perform the duties of his/her position other than by reason of his/her being on leave of absence;
- (g) "Director of Care" means the Registered Nurse-in-Charge or her delegate;
- (h) "Employee" means a member of the Bargaining Unit;
- (i) "Employer" means the Pimaksirvik Corporation;
- (j) "Fiscal year" means the period of time from April 1 of one year to March 31 of the following year;
- (k) "Grievance" means an employment related complaint in writing that an employee, group of employees or the Union submits to the Employer or the Employer submits to the Union to be processed through the grievance procedure;
- (l) "Leave of absence" means absence from duty with the Employer's permission, either with or without pay;
- (m) The expression "may" is permissive and the expressions "shall" and "will" are imperative;
- (n) "Membership Fees" means the fees established pursuant to the By-Laws of the Union as the fees payable by the members of the Bargaining Unit, and shall not include any initiation fee, insurance premium, or any other levy;
- (o) "Overtime" means work performed by an employee in excess or outside of his/her regularly scheduled hours of work. For part-time employees, overtime means all hours worked in excess of the regular hours of work for a full-time employee in the same position;

- (r) "Permanent Employee" means an Employee who is assigned a certain number of shifts per pay period and includes:

- (i) "Permanent Full Time Employee" means any Permanent Employee who is employed in a full time permanent position; and
- (ii) "Permanent Part Time Employee" means any Permanent Employee with scheduled hours of work each pay period which are less than the average scheduled hours of work of a Permanent Full Time Employee;
- (s) "Probation" means a period of 898 hours worked (which may be extended as provided in this Agreement) starting when the Employer first hires a Permanent Employee;
- (t) "PSAC" means the Public Service Alliance of Canada;
- (u) "Rates of Pay" means the Rates of Pay set out in Appendix A;
- (v) "Representative" means a person who is authorized to represent the Union;
- (w) "Shift" means the number of continuous hours specified to be worked in a twenty four (24) hour period;
- (x) "Spouse" includes common-law spouse. A common-law spouse relationship exists when, for a continuous period of at least one year, an Employee has lived with a person, publicly represents that person to be their spouse, and lives and intends to continue to live with that person as if that person were their spouse;
- (y) "Supervisor" means the team leader who is on duty at the Employer's facility;
- (z) "Temporary Employee" is a casual employee who is temporarily assigned to a Permanent position, or a Permanent Employee who is temporarily assigned to another Permanent position. The length of a temporary assignment shall not be shorter than three (3) months and shall not be longer than twelve (12) months. A casual employee who becomes a Temporary Employee shall receive all of the benefits of a Permanent Employee for the length of the temporary assignment. At the end of the temporary assignment, the Casual Employee resumes his/her Casual Employee status, and the Permanent Employee resumes his/her previous Permanent Employee status.
- (aa) "Union" means the Public Service Alliance of Canada as represented by its agent the Nunavut Employees Union;
- (bb) "Week" for the purposes of this Agreement shall be deemed to commence at 8:01 AM on Sunday and terminate at 8:00 AM on the following Sunday.

2.02 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, expressions used in this Agreement; if defined in the Labour Standards Act, or in the Regulations thereof, have the same meaning as given to them in the Labour Standards Act.

Number and Gender

- 2.03 Wherever the singular, plural, masculine, feminine or neuter is used throughout this Agreement the same shall be construed as meaning the singular, plural, masculine, feminine or neuter where the fact or context requires this and with regard to the provisions of this Agreement.

Article 3
Final Provisions

- 3.01 The Employer recognizes the Public Service Alliance of Canada as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees in the Bargaining Unit.
- 3.02 The Employer will advise prospective employees prior to their employment that the Employer is unionized and that all employees who would be covered by this Agreement will be required to pay union dues.

Article 4
Application

- 4.01 The provisions of this Agreement apply to the Union, all employees and the Employer.
- 4.02 Part-time employees shall be entitled to all eligible benefits provided under this Agreement in the same proportion as their weekly hours of work compare to the standard work week.
- 4.03 The English text of this Agreement is official. If there is a contradiction between the English text and its translation into any other language, the English version shall govern.

Article 5
Security of Agreement

Future Legislation

- 5.01 In the event that any law passed by Parliament or the Nunavut Legislative Assembly renders null and void or alters any provision of this Agreement, the remaining provisions of the Agreement shall remain in effect for the term of the Agreement. When this occurs the Agreement shall be re-opened upon the request of either party and negotiations shall commence with a view to finding an appropriate substitute for the annulled or altered provision.

Conflict of Provisions

- 5.02 Where there is any conflict between the provisions of this Agreement and any policy or other document dealing with the terms and conditions of employment issued by the Employer, the provisions of this Agreement shall prevail.

Article 6
Management Rihts

- 6.01 Nothing in this Agreement shall affect the rights of the Employer to manage the business, except to the extent provided in this Agreement.

Article 7
Employer Policies

- 7.01 The Employer shall provide the Union with a copy of all Employer policies and other documents which are intended to clarify the interpretation or application of this Agreement.

Article 8
Dues Deduction

- 8.01 Effective the first pay period following the signing of this Agreement, the Employer will, as a condition of employment, deduct an amount equal to the amount of Membership Fees from the pay of all Employees in the Bargaining Unit.
- 8.02 The Public Service Alliance of Canada shall inform the Employer in writing of the authorized deduction to be checked off for each employee within the Bargaining Unit.
- 8.03 For the purpose of applying Article 8.01, deductions from pay for each Employee will occur on a bi-weekly basis.
- 8.04 No employee organization, other than the Public Service Alliance of Canada, shall be permitted to have Membership Fees deducted by the Employer from the pay of the employees in the Bargaining Unit.
- 8.05 The amounts deducted in accordance with Article 8.01 shall be remitted to the Comptroller of the PSAC by cheque within a reasonable period of time after deductions are made, and shall be accompanied by a list showing each employee and the Membership Fees deducted from each Employee.
- 8.06 The Employer may make deductions for other purposes from an Employee's pay upon the written request of the Employee.

- 8.07 The PSAC agrees to indemnify and save the Employer harmless against any claim or liability arising out of the application of this Article except for any claim or liability arising out of an error committed by the Employer.
- 8.08 The Employer agrees to identify annually on each employee's T4 slip the total amount of Membership Fees deducted for the applicable year.

Article 9 nion Representation

- 9.01 Upon reasonable advance notification, the Employer shall permit access to the main activity room, the Director of Care's office and the staff room of its facility for a Representative of the Union to:
- (a) meet with an Employee;
 - (b) meet with the Employer.

Appointment of Representatives

- 9.02 The Union has the right to appoint Employees as Representatives of the Union. The Union shall notify the Employer which Employees have been appointed as Representatives, and the positions held.

Union Bulletin Boards and Communications

- 9.03 The Employer shall provide bulletin board space at each worksite clearly identified for exclusive Union use.

Meeting Room

- 9.04 The Employer shall make available to the Union a meeting room, provided that such a meeting room is available and provided that the Employer is given at least five (5) calendar days advance notice, for the conducting of business related to the Bargaining Unit.

Union Information for New Employees

- 9.05 A Representative shall have the right to a private personal meeting with a new Employee during working hours at the Employer's facility for a period of up to fifteen (15) minutes. The Union shall advise the Director of Care, in advance of this meeting.

Time Off for Union Activities

- 9.06 Where operational requirements permit and with prior approval, the Employer may grant leave without pay to a reasonable number of employees to participate in Union activities.

Time-off for Representatives

- 9.07 (a) A Representative shall obtain the permission of his/her immediate supervisor before leaving his/her work to investigate a grievance, to meet with the Employer for the purpose of dealing with grievances, to meet with new employees and to attend meetings called by the Employer. These activities shall not exceed thirty (30) minutes. Such permission shall not be unreasonably withheld. Time spent at these activities shall be considered as time worked.
- (b) The Representative shall make every reasonable effort to report back to his/her supervisor before resuming his/her normal duties.

Article 10
Information

- 10.01 Upon signing of this Agreement, and in April and October of each year, the Employer shall provide the Union with the following information on each employee in the Bargaining Unit:

- (a) Name
- (b) Address
- (c) Job Title
- (d) Rate of Pay
- (e) Employment Status (full time, part-time or casual)

At the same time, the Employer shall also indicate if any Employees have been hired, or have had their employment terminated during that period.

- 10.02 The Employer shall notify the Union of all newly created positions within the Bargaining Unit.

Publication of Agreement

- 10.03 The union shall publish this Agreement. The Employer will pay for ten (10) copies of this Agreement. The Union shall provide the Employer with copies of this Agreement for all employees, and provide copies for new employees upon request of the Employer.

- 10.04 The Employer shall provide each employee, and each new employee upon hire, with a copy of this Agreement. Each employee shall sign an acknowledgement indicating that the Employee has received the Agreement.

Article 11 Human Rights

Freedom from Discrimination

- 11.01 The Employer, the Union and the employees agree that there shall be no discrimination, harassment, interference, restriction, or coercion exercised or practiced with respect to any person employed by the Employer (whether or not such person is a member of the Bargaining Unit) by reason of race, colour, ancestry, ethnic origin, citizenship, place of origin, creed, religion, age, disability (including previous, existing or perceived mental or physical disability and previous or existing dependency on alcohol or drugs), sex, sexual orientation, marital status, family status (being related to another by blood, marriage or adoption), pregnancy (including protection of a male on the basis that he may adopt), lawful source of income, conviction for which a pardon has been granted, union membership or activity, or for exercising their rights under this Agreement.

Freedom from Sexual Harassment

- 11.02 "Sexual harassment" means any conduct, comment, gesture or contact of a sexual nature:
- (a) that is likely to cause offence or humiliation to any employee;
 - (b) that might, on reasonable grounds, be perceived by that employee as placing a condition of a sexual nature on employment or on any opportunity for training or promotion.

- 11.03 Every employee is entitled to employment free of sexual harassment.
- 11.04 The Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subjected to sexual harassment. The employees and the Union agree to support and cooperate with the Employer in its efforts to prevent sexual harassment.
- 11.05 Complaints of sexual harassment shall be brought to the attention of the Employer at any level of management appropriate to the circumstances. Employees may be assisted by the Union in making a complaint.

Freedom from Workplace Violence

- 11.06 "Workplace violence" means any incident, in which an employee is abused, threatened or assaulted during the course of his/her employment, and includes but is not limited to all forms of harassment, bullying, intimidation and intrusive behaviours of a physical or emotional nature.

- 11.07 Every employee is entitled to employment free of workplace violence.
- 11.08 The Employer will make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subjected to workplace violence. The employees and the Union agree to support and cooperate with the Employer in its efforts to prevent workplace violence.
- 11.09 Complaints of workplace violence shall be brought to the attention of the Employer at any level of management appropriate to the circumstances. Employee may be assisted by the Union in making a complaint.

Article 12

Outside Employment and Other Activities

- 12.01 An employee shall be free to engage in any business, employment or activity outside his/her regularly scheduled hours of duty without interference from the Employer, except where:
- (a) a conflict of duties may develop between an employee's regular work and his/her outside interests; and
 - (b) certain knowledge and information available only to the employee place the individual in a position where he/she can exploit the knowledge or information for personal gain.
- 12.02 An Employee's outside business, employment or other activities cannot be used as a reason for failing to attend work when required, and cannot interfere with the Employee's responsibilities to the Employer.

Article 13

Discharge and)

Just Cause

- 13.01 No employee shall be subject to discharge or discipline except for just cause.

Progressive Discipline

- 13.02 The value of progressive discipline with the aim of being corrective in application is recognized by both parties.

Union Representation

- 13.03 When the employee is to receive discipline at a meeting, the Employer shall, prior to the meeting, notify the employee of his/her right to have a Union Representative attend the meeting either in person or by telephone.

- 13.04 The Employer agrees that communications between an employee and his/her Representative are confidential.

Written Confirmation

- 13.05 The reasons for the discipline or discharge shall be set out in writing. The reasons for discipline or discharge shall be provided to the employee (or delivered to the employee's last address provided to the employer) within twenty four (24) hours following the imposition of the discipline or discharge. The written reasons shall set out the grounds for the discipline or discharge.

Disciplinary Record

- 13.06 The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in the case of discipline or discharge against an employee any document from the file of that employee, that was not provided to the employee on or before the time that document was placed on the employee's file.
- 13.07 (a) The record of an employee shall not be used against him/her at any time after two (2) years following a disciplinary action, including letters of reprimand or any adverse reports, provided no additional disciplinary action was imposed within the two (2) year period.
- (b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a), all disciplinary action in regards to resident abuse will remain on the record for a period of four (4) years and will be removed after four (4) years, provided there has been no subsequent discipline during that four (4) year period.

Article 14

Confidentiality

- 14.01 All employees will be required to sign a Confidentiality Agreement with respect to medical, client and corporate information as a condition of employment, which Agreement continues to be in effect after termination of employment.

Article 15

Grievance and Arbitration

- 15.01 The Employer and the Union recognize that grievances may arise in respect of:
- (a) the interpretation, application, administration or alleged contravention of this Agreement, including whether or not a matter is arbitral;
- (b) an alleged violation of a term or condition of this Agreement;
- (c) disciplinary action resulting in reprimand, demotion or suspension;

- (d) discharge; or
- (e) letters or notations of discipline placed on an employee's personnel file.

15.02 The procedure for the final resolution of grievances is through the grievance procedure, and, if a grievance is not resolved, to arbitration.

Representation

15.03 If he/she so desires, an employee may be assisted and represented by the Union when presenting a grievance.

15.04 Where an employee has been represented by the Union in the presentation of his/her grievance, the Employer will provide the appropriate Representative of the Union with a copy of the Employer's decision at each level of the grievance procedure.

15.05 The Union shall have the right to initiate and present a grievance in accordance with the grievance procedure related to the application or interpretation of this Agreement. The Employer shall have the right to initiate and present grievances, which shall be filed directly with the Union, at its office in Iqaluit.

Procedures

15.06 An employee or the Union who wishes to present a grievance at any prescribed level in the grievance procedure shall transmit this grievance in writing to the Director of Care who shall:

- (a) forward the grievance to the representative of the Employer authorized to deal with grievances at the appropriate level; and
- (b) provide the employee or the Union (whichever presents the grievance) with a receipt stating the date on which the grievance was received by the Employer.

15.07 Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, a grievance shall be processed by recourse to the following steps:

- (a) First Level (Director of Care);
- (b) Final Level (Board of Directors); and
- (c) Arbitration.

15.08 The Union shall have the right to consult with the Employer with respect to a grievance at each or any level of the grievance procedure.

- 15.09 An employee may, by written notice to the Director of Care, withdraw his/her grievance provided that where the employee is being represented by the Union, the Union has, in writing, approved the withdrawal.

Time Limits

- 15.10 An Employee or the Union shall present a grievance in writing at the First Level no later than twenty one (21) calendar days after the date of the action or circumstances giving rise to the grievance.
- 15.11 The Employer shall reply in writing to a grievance within fourteen (14) calendar days at the First Level and within thirty (30) calendar days at the Final Level. The Employee or the Union shall provide the Employer with a receipt stating the date on which the reply was received by the Employee or the Union.
- 15.12 If an Employee or the Union is not satisfied with the Employer's reply at any level of the grievance procedure, the Employee or the Union may present a grievance at the next level of the procedure within twenty (20) calendar days after the Employer's reply at the previous level has been given in writing to him/her by the Employer, or where the Employer has not given a decision to the Employee within the time set out in Article 15.11 within twenty (20) calendar days after the day the reply was due.
- 15.13 The time limits stipulated in this Article may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. Grievances that are not presented or advanced within the time limits set out in this Article are abandoned, and may not later be presented or advanced.

Termination of Employment

- 15.14 When an Employee is dismissed, he/she shall be given notice in writing setting out the reasons for the dismissal. When an employee is dismissed the grievance procedure shall apply except that the grievance may be presented at the Final Level.

Arbitration

- 15.15 Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this Agreement including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this Agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in this Article, notify the other party in writing within twenty-one (21) days of the receipt of the reply at the Final Level, of his/her desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.
- 15.16 (a) The parties agree that arbitration referred to in Article 15.15 shall be by a single arbitrator.
- (b) The parties will attempt to come to an agreement on the selection of an Arbitrator within thirty (30) calendar days of the date on which notification by either party to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration was made, or such further period as may be mutually agreed upon by the parties.

- (c) In the event that the Employer and the Union are unable to agree upon the selection of the Arbitrator, the Minister of Labour of Canada shall be requested to appoint an Arbitrator, and it is agreed that the Arbitrator so appointed shall act as the single Arbitrator.

15.17 (a) The Arbitrator shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and shall issue a written decision and that decision is final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

- (b) The Arbitrator shall sign the award and copies shall be provided to the parties within three (3) months of the hearing.

15.18 The Arbitrator shall not have the authority to alter or amend any of the provisions of this Agreement, or to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, or to render any decision contrary to the terms and provisions of this Agreement.

15.19 In addition to the powers granted to arbitrators under the Canada Labour Code the Arbitrator may:

- (a) alter; replace or substitute any discipline imposed on an Employee with any other discipline which the Arbitrator considers fair and reasonable, except where this Agreement provides a specific disciplinary penalty;
- (b) determine that where the discharge of the Employee is not appropriate, direct the Employer to reinstate the Employee and pay to the Employee a sum equal to his/her wages lost by reason of his/her dismissal, or such less sum as in the opinion of the arbitrator is fair and reasonable, or make such order as he/she considers fair and reasonable having regard to the terms of this Agreement.

15.20 Where a party has failed to comply with any of the terms of the decision of the Arbitrator, either party or employee affected by the decision may, after the expiration of fourteen (14) calendar days from the date of the release of the decision or the date provided in the decision for compliance, whichever is later, file in the office of the Clerk of the Federal Court of Canada, a copy of the decision, exclusive of the reason therefore in the prescribed form, whereupon the decision may be entered in the same way as the judgement or an order of that court and may be enforceable as such.

15.21 The Employer and the Union shall each pay one-half (1/2) of the remuneration and expenses of the Arbitrator and each party shall bear its own expenses of every such arbitration.

Article 16

Paid Holidays

16.01 The following days are paid holidays for employees covered by this Agreement:

New Year's Day;
Good Friday;
Victoria Day;
Canada Day (July 1);
Nunavut Day;
Civic Holiday (first Monday in August);
Labour Day;
Thanksgiving Day;
Remembrance Day;
Christmas Day;
Boxing Day.

16.02 To be eligible for a paid holiday, an employee must have completed fifteen (15) days continuous service with the Employer. Any employee who is not at work as scheduled on the working day immediately preceding or following a paid holiday will not be eligible to receive holiday pay for that day, except with the approval of the Employer.

Holiday Falling on a Day of Rest

16.03 When a paid holiday under Article 16.01 coincides with an employee's day of rest, the paid holiday shall be moved to the employee's first working day following his/her day of rest or to another day mutually agreed upon between the employee and the Employer.

16.04 When a paid holiday for an employee is moved to another day under the provisions of Article 16.03:

- (a) work performed by an employee on the day from which the paid holiday was moved shall be considered as work performed on a day of rest; and
- (b) work performed by an employee on the day to which the paid holiday was moved, shall be considered as work performed on a paid holiday.

16.05 When the Employer requires an employee to work on a paid holiday, he/she shall be paid, in addition to the pay that he/she would have been granted had he/she not worked on the paid holiday, one and one-half (1½) times his/her hourly rate for all hours worked.

16.06 Where a paid holiday for an employee falls within a period of leave with pay the paid holiday shall not count as a day of leave.

Article 17
Leave - General

- 17.01 When an employee is in receipt of an allowance and is granted leave with pay, he/she is entitled during his/her period of leave to receive the allowance. When an employee is on leave of absence without pay, the employee is not entitled to any pay, allowance or benefits, unless specifically provided in this Agreement.
- 17.02 During the month of December in each year, the Employer shall inform each employee in the Bargaining Unit, in writing, the balance of their vacation leave which must be used by March 31, of the following year.
- 17.03 When the Employer rejects an employee's application for vacation leave the reasons for the rejection shall be provided to the employee in writing.

Article 18
Vacation Leave

- 18.01 Paid Vacation Days for Permanent Employees:
- (a) Paid vacation days are earned from April 1st to March 31st of each year;
 - (b) Paid vacation days are earned as follows:
 - (i) During the first three years of employment, vacation time will be earned at a rate of 1 ¼ day per month if the employee worked a minimum of 80 hours in that month, excluding hours of sick leave for a maximum of 15 Paid Vacation days per year;
 - (ii) From the fourth year of employment to the eighth year of employment, vacation leave will be earned at a rate of 1 ½ days per month if the employee worked a minimum of 80 hours in that month, excluding hours of sick leave for a maximum of 18 Paid Vacation days per year;
 - (iii) From the eighth year of employment vacation leave will be earned at a rate of 1 11/12 days per month if the employee worked a minimum of 80 hours in that month, excluding hours of sick leave for a maximum of 23 Paid Vacation days per year.
 - (c) for employee who work a normal 5, 6, 7, 7.5 or 8 hour day, the vacation day is paid at the rate of 5, 6, 7, 7.5 or 8 hours respectively;
 - (d) Vacation days may be taken after six months of continuous employment;
 - (e) Vacation days may not be advanced for any reason;

- (f) Northern Subsidy will be included in the Paid Vacation.
- 18.02 In the event a Permanent Employee is granted maternity or parental leave without pay their Paid Vacation days shall be paid out prior to the commencement of the leave based on the dollar value of the accumulated vacation pay benefit held by the Employer.
- 18.03 In the event the employee dies, is terminated or laid-off, the employee or, in the case of death, the employee's estate shall receive the employee's outstanding vacation entitlement based on the dollar value of the accumulated vacation pay benefit held by the Employer.
- 18.04 The number of employees being granted vacation at the same time is totally dependant upon the staffing/operational requirements of the Employer's facility.
- 18.05 For the purposes of vacation entitlement, seven (7) consecutive calendar days equals one (1) vacation week. Vacations must be taken in minimum of one (1) week blocks.
- 18.06 Vacation shall not accumulate from year to year and all vacation days must be taken by March 31. Vacation days which have not been taken by March 31, shall be paid out to the Employee.
- 18.07 Vacation days may only be paid out once each calendar year.

- 18.09 All vacations must be requested at least thirty (30) days in advance, and must be approved by the Employer before they can be taken. An employee's request for vacation leave will be responded to, in writing, by the Employer within a reasonable period of time. Requests received after a schedule has been posted, will not be granted. Where more than two permanent employees request the same vacation time off, priority shall be given to the date of the request.

Article 19

Sick Leave

- 19.01 Sick leave is used only to provide income protection for employees who are unable to work due to:
- (a) illness,
 - (b) injury,
 - (c) attendance at a scheduled medical test or appointment; and
 - (d) travel to a scheduled medical test or appointment as provided in this Article.

- 19.02 For each month in which a permanent employee receives pay for at least ten (10) working days, the employee shall accumulate sick leave at the following rates:
- (a) for permanent full-time employees, at the rate of 8.75 hours per month; and
 - (b) for permanent part-time employees, sick leave shall be prorated. Employees shall accumulate sick leave at the percentage of 8.75 hours per month that is equal to the percentage that the employee's weekly hours compare to 35.
- 19.03 All absences on account of illness, injury, or a scheduled medical test or appointment on a day that an employee is scheduled to work shall be charged against the employee's accumulated sick leave.
- 19.04 An employee's sick leave shall be charged for all hours the employee is absent from work because of illness or injury.
- 19.05 An employee's sick leave shall be charged for the length of the employee's shift on a day that an employee is scheduled to work when the employee is required to attend a scheduled medical test or appointment that is scheduled outside of Chesterfield Inlet, or for the length of the scheduled test or appointment when the appointment is scheduled in Chesterfield Inlet.
- 19.06 In order to receive sick leave benefits, an employee is required to complete a form requesting sick leave and submit it to the Employer.
- 19.07 In addition to Article 19.06, in order to receive sick leave benefits, an employee is required to produce a medical certificate from a qualified medical practitioner or community health nurse, certifying that the employee is unable to carry out his/her duties due to illness:
- (a) for sick leave in excess of three (3) working days;
 - (b) for any additional sick leave in a year when in the same year the employee has been granted nine (9) days sick leave.

The Employer has the right to waive this requirement by advising an employee that the employee is not required to provide a medical certificate.

- 19.08 In order to receive sick leave, and to allow the Employer to replace employees to meet the staffing needs of the Employer, the employee must make every reasonable effort to notify the Employer of illness before the beginning of the shift they are, scheduled to work:
- (a) For day shift and shorter day shift, as well as kitchen and maintenance employees, the employee must notify the Employer before 6:00 AM;
 - (b) For evening shift and shorter evening shift the employee must notify the Employer before 12:00 noon; and

- (c) For Night shift, the employee must notify the Employer before 4:30 PM.
- 19.09 Where an employee is granted a leave of absence without pay, or an employee is laid-off, and the employee returns to work upon expiration of such leave of absence or is recalled from lay-off, the employee shall retain any unused sick leave existing at the time of lay-off or commencement of leave of absence without pay.
- 19.10 When an employee is required by a qualified medical practitioner or community health nurse to travel outside of Chesterfield Inlet for a scheduled medical test or appointment, the employee will receive sick leave:
- (a) for the length of the employee's shift on a day that an employee is scheduled to work, for travel to the medical test or appointment, if the employee was scheduled to work on the day that the employee travels to the test or appointment, or the portion of that shift the employee is unable to work due to travel; and
 - (b) for the length of the employee's shift on a day that an employee is scheduled to work, for travel from the medical test or appointment, if the employee was scheduled to work on the day that the employee travels from the test or appointment, or the portion of that shift the employee is unable to work due to travel.
- 19.11 Where an employee travels from Chesterfield Inlet to a scheduled medical test or appointment and attends the medical test or appointment on the same day, the employee shall only receive sick leave for the length of the shift that the employee was scheduled to work on that day, or the portion of that shift the employee is unable to work due to travel.
- 19.12 Where an employee attends a scheduled medical test or appointment and travels to Chesterfield Inlet on the same day, the employee shall only receive sick leave for the length of the shift that the employee was scheduled to work on that day or the portion of that shift the employee is unable to work due to travel.
- 19.13 If an employee is scheduled to work on a paid holiday, and is unable to work for one of the reasons in Article 19.01, the employee shall be paid the pay that the employee would have been granted had the employee not worked on the paid holiday. The employee will also be paid the difference, if any, between that pay and the sick leave that the employee would have received on that day.
