- (b) thirty (30) days after the Employer's decision was due.

7.7 Amending of Time Limits

The time limits fixed in this grievance procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties, but the same must be in writing. Where a grievance or a reply is presented by mail, it shall be deemed to be presented on the day on which it is postmarked and it shall be deemed to be received on the day it was delivered to the appropriate office of the Employer or the Union.

7.8 Dismissal or Suspension Grievances

In the case of a dispute arising from an employee's dismissal or suspension, the grievance may commence at Step 2 of the grievance procedure within ten (10) days of the date on which the dismissal or suspension occurred, or within ten (10) days of the employee receiving notice of dismissal or suspension.

7.9 Policy Grievance

Where either party to this agreement disputes the general application, interpretation, or alleged violation of an article of this agreement, the dispute shall be discussed initially with the Employer or the Union, as the case may be, within sixty (60) days of the occurrence. Where no satisfactory agreement is reached, either party may submit the dispute to arbitration, as set out in Article 8 of this agreement.

7.10 Technical Objections to Grievances

It is the intent of both parties to this agreement that no grievance shall be defeated merely because of a technical error other than time limitations in processing the grievance through the grievance procedure. To this end an arbitration board shall have the power to allow all necessary amendments to the grievance and the power to waive formal procedural irregularities in the processing of a grievance in order to determine the real matter in dispute and to render a decision according to equitable principles and the justice of the case.

7.11 Failure to Act

If the President of the Union, or his/her designate, does not present a grievance to the next higher level within the prescribed time limits, the grievance will be deemed to be abandoned. However, the Union shall not be deemed to have prejudiced its position on any future grievance.

7.12 Effective Date of Settlements

Unless otherwise agreed to by the parties, settlements reached at any step of the grievance procedure in this article, other than 7.9, shall be applied retroactively to the date of the occurrence of the action or situation which gave rise to the grievance, but not prior to the effective date of the agreement in effect at the time of the occurrence or the date set by a board of arbitration.

7.13 Deviation from Grievance Procedure

- (a) The Employer agrees that, after a written grievance has been initiated by the Union, the Employer's representatives will not negotiate with the grievor in respect to the grievance resolution, without the consent of the Union. The only grievance resolution binding on the parties is one signed by the authorized union and employer representatives.
- (b) In the event that, after having initiated a written grievance through the grievance procedure, an employee endeavours to pursue the same grievance through any other channel, then the Union agrees that, pursuant to this article, the grievance shall be considered to have been abandoned.

ARTICLE 8 - ARBITRATION

8.1 Notification

Where a difference arises between the parties relating to the interpretation, application or administration of this agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable, or where an allegation is made that a term or condition of this agreement has been violated, either of the parties may, after exhausting the grievance procedure in Article 7, notify the other party within thirty (30) days of the receipt of the reply at the second step, of its desire to submit the difference or allegation to arbitration.

8.2 Appointment of the Arbitrator

Where a party to the collective agreement has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, the Union and the Employer shall agree on a single arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree on a single arbitrator, one shall be selected from the following list:

- Brian Foley
- Joan Gordon
- David McPhillips

8.3 Composition of the Board of Arbitration

When a party has requested that a grievance be submitted to arbitration, it shall indicate to the other party to the agreement within seven (7) days of its intention to submit the matter in dispute to one of the three named single arbitrators; should either party not agree to submit the dispute to a single arbitrator, both parties shall then have seven (7) days to name their appointee to a three-person board of arbitration.

8.4 Failure to Appoint

If the recipient of the notice fails to appoint an arbitrator, the appointment shall be made pursuant to Section 86 of the Labour Relations Code.

8.5 Arbitration Procedure

The arbitration board or single arbitrator may determine its own procedure in accordance with the Labour Relations Code and shall give full opportunity to all parties to present evidence and make representations. It shall hear and determine the difference or allegation and make every effort to render a decision within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the hearing.

8.6 Decision

The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Board. Where there is no majority decision, the decision of the Chair shall be the decision of the Board. The decision of the Arbitration Board or single arbitrator shall be final, binding and enforceable on the parties pursuant to the Labour Relations Code. The Board or single arbitrator shall have the power to dispose of a discharge or discipline grievance by any arrangement which it deems just and equitable. However, the Board or single arbitrator shall not have the power to change this agreement or to alter, modify or amend any of its provisions.

8.7 Disagreement on Decision

Should the parties disagree as to the meaning of the decision of the Board or single arbitrator, either party may apply to the Chair of the Board or the single arbitrator to reconvene the Board or single arbitrator to clarify the decision, which it shall make every effort to do within seven (7) days.

8.8 Expenses of Arbitration Board

Each party shall pay:

- (a) the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator it appoints; and
- (b) one-half (½) of the fees and expenses of the Chair or single arbitrator.

8.9 Amending Time Limits

The time limits fixed in the arbitration procedure may be altered by mutual consent of the parties but the same must be in writing.

8.10 Expedited Arbitration

(a) The parties may meet to review outstanding grievances filed at arbitration to determine those grievances suitable for this process, and shall set dates and locations for hearings of groups of grievances considered suitable for expedited arbitration.

(b) All grievances shall be considered suitable for and resolved by expedited arbitration except grievances in the nature of:

- (1) dismissals;
- (2) rejection on probation;
- (3) suspensions in excess of twenty (20) workdays;
- (4) policy grievances;
- (5) grievances requiring substantial interpretation of provision of the collective agreement;
- (6) grievances requiring presentation of extrinsic evidence;
- (7) grievances where a party intends to raise a preliminary objection; and
- (8) demotions.

By mutual agreement a grievance falling into any of these categories may be placed into the expedited arbitration process.

(c) The arbitrators listed in Article 8.2 shall be appointed to hear and resolve grievances under the expedited arbitration process.

(d) The Arbitrator shall hear the grievances and shall render a decision within two (2) working days of such hearings. No written reasons for the decision shall be provided beyond that which the Arbitrator deems appropriate to convey a decision.

(e) Expedited arbitration awards shall be of no precedential value and shall not thereafter be referred to by the parties in respect of any other matter.

(f) All settlements of expedited arbitration cases prior to hearing shall be without prejudice.

(g) A grievance determined by either party to fall within one (1) of the categories listed in (b) above may be removed from the expedited arbitration process at any time prior to hearing and forwarded to a regular arbitration hearing pursuant to Article 8.3.

The parties shall equally share the cost of the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator and hearing rooms.

ARTICLE 9 - DISMISSAL, SUSPENSION AND DISCIPLINE

9.1 Dismissal and Suspension

The Employer may dismiss or suspend any employee for just cause. Notice of dismissal or suspension shall be in writing and shall set forth the reasons for dismissal or suspension.

9.2 Dismissal and Suspension Grievance

A copy of the written notice of dismissal or suspension shall be forwarded to the President of the Union or his/her designate within five (5) days of the action being taken.

9.3 Evaluation Reports

Where a formal appraisal of an employee's performance is carried out, the employee shall be given sufficient opportunity to read and review the appraisal. Provision shall be made on the form for an employee to sign it. The form shall provide for the employee's signature in two (2) places, one indicating that the employee has read and accepts the appraisal, and the other indicating that the employee disagrees with the appraisal. The employee shall sign in one of the places provided. No employee may initiate a grievance regarding the contents of an evaluation report unless the signature indicates disagreement with the appraisal. An employee shall, upon request, receive a copy of this evaluation report at the time of signing. An evaluation report shall not be changed after an employee has signed it, without the knowledge of the employee, and any such changes shall be subject to the grievance procedure of this agreement. At the employee's discretion, he/she shall have seven (7) days in which to review the evaluation report before signing.

9.4 Personnel File

An employee, or the President of the Union or his/her designate with the written authority of an employee, shall be entitled to review an employee's personnel file, in the office in which the file is normally kept, in order to facilitate the investigation of a grievance. The employee or the President, as the case may be, shall give the Employer adequate notice prior to having access to such files.

9.5 Right to Have Steward Present

- (a) An employee shall have the right to have his/her steward present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the employee believes might be the basis of disciplinary action. Where a supervisor intends to interview an employee for disciplinary purposes the supervisor shall make every effort to notify the employee in advance of the purpose of the interview in order that the employee may contact his/her steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.
- (b) A steward shall have the right to consult with a staff representative of the Union and to have a local union representative present at any discussion with supervisory personnel which the steward believes might be the basis of disciplinary action against the steward, providing that this does not result in an undue delay of the appropriate action being taken.

9.6 Rejection during Probation

- (a) The Employer may reject any new employee on probation for just cause.
- (b) Except as provided below, all new employees shall be on probation for a period of sixty (60) workdays on the job.
- (c) The right is reserved to the Employer to shorten or eliminate the probationary period for an individual employee in recognition of prior employment with the Employer, related work experience or demonstrated aptitude.
- (d) The test of just cause for rejection shall be a test of suitability of the probationary employee for continued employment in the position to which he/she has been appointed provided that the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.
- (e) Where an employee feels he/she has been aggrieved by the decision of the Employer to reject the employee during the probationary period, he/she may appeal the decision through the grievance procedure as per Article 7 of this agreement starting at Step 2.

9.7 Abandonment of Position

An employee who fails to report for duty for three (3) consecutive working days without informing the Employer of the reason for his/her absence will be presumed to have abandoned his/her position. An employee shall be afforded the opportunity within ten (10) working days to rebut such presumption and demonstrate that there were reasonable grounds for not informing the Employer.

9.8 Right to Grieve Other Disciplinary Action

Disciplinary action grievable by the employee shall include written censures, letter of reprimand and adverse reports or performance evaluation. An employee shall be given a copy of any such document placed on the employee's file which might be the basis of disciplinary action. Should an employee dispute any such entry in his/her file, he/she shall be entitled to recourse through the grievance procedure and the eventual resolution thereof shall become part of his/her personnel record.

The Employer agrees not to introduce as evidence in any hearing any document from the file of an employee the existence of which the employee was not aware at the time of filing.

ARTICLE 10 - SENIORITY

10.1 Seniority Defined

For the purpose of this agreement, "service seniority" shall be the length of continuous service as a permanent employee with the YMCA Child Care Service.

10.2 Seniority List

The Employer shall maintain three (3) seniority lists recording the name, start date, classification and category of each permanent employee. Permanent employees shall accrue seniority on one (1) of the three (3) following lists:

- Preschool Age Child Care Centres
- School Age Child Care Centres - Zone 1
- School Age Child Care Centre - Zone 2

Up-to-date seniority lists shall be prepared on a semi-annual basis in May and December and sent to the President of the Union or his/her designate and mailed to each of the centres. The seniority lists shall be deemed to be accurate and binding on the parties and all employees in the bargaining unit within thirty (30) days of their delivery to the Union.

10.3 Loss of Seniority

An employee will lose all his/her seniority rights and his/her employment is terminated where:

- (a) he/she is discharged for just cause and is not reinstated;
- (b) subject to Article 10.4, he/she voluntarily terminates his/her employment;
- (c) he/she is on layoff for more than twelve (12) months; or
- (d) when he/she abandons his/her position subject to Article 9.7.

10.4 Re-Employment

A permanent employee who resigns his/her position and within sixty (60) days is re-employed as a permanent employee shall be granted a leave of absence without pay covering those days absent and shall retain all provisions and rights in relation to seniority and other fringe benefits.

10.5 Same Seniority

When two (2) or more permanent employees have the same seniority and when mutual agreement cannot be reached, then seniority shall be determined by chance.

10.6 Bridging of Service

If a permanent employee terminates as a result of a decision to raise a dependent child or dependent children or to take care of an ailing spouse or aging parent, and is re-employed, upon application he/she shall be credited with length of service accumulated at time of termination for the purpose of benefits based on service seniority. The following conditions shall apply:

- (a) the employee must have been a permanent employee with at least one (1) year of service seniority at time of termination;
- (b) the resignation must indicate the reason for termination;
- (c) the break in service shall be for no longer than five (5) years; and during that time the employee must not have been engaged in remunerative employment for more than six (6) months;
- (d) the previous length of service shall not be reinstated until successful completion of the probationary period on re-employment.

ARTICLE 11 - APPOINTMENTS, PROMOTIONS AND TRANSFERS

11.1 Appointments Procedure

- (a) All appointments, promotions and transfers shall be based on merit. The factors used to determine merit shall be education, skills, knowledge, experience, years of continuous employment and any other matters which are necessary or desirable having regard to the nature of the duties to be performed and consistent with the position description requirements.
- (b) Where two or more applicants have qualifications, ability and experience which are equal, the applicant with the greater seniority shall be awarded the position.

11.2 Job Notices

- (a) When a permanent or temporary vacancy of more than three (3) months duration occurs which the Employer intends to fill, or a new position is created within the bargaining unit, the Employer shall notify the Union and each work unit in writing. The employees will have ten (10) calendar days after the notice to each work unit has been given to apply for the vacant position. The Employer is not required to consider applications submitted after the period of ten (10) calendar days has expired. Each centre must mark or date stamp notices of vacancy the date they are received. Notice in writing as set out above must be given each work unit with respect to all permanent positions which the Employer intends to fill except those made pursuant to Article 11.3.
- (b) Such notice shall contain the following information: Nature of position, qualifications, experience, required knowledge and education, skills, wage or salary rate.

Such qualifications may not be established in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner.

11.3 Transfers without Notice

- (a) Lateral transfers or voluntary demotions may be granted, without notice under Article 11.2, for compassionate or medical grounds to permanent employees who have completed their probationary period.
- (b) It is understood by the parties that the employees shall not be required to transfer from one geographic location to another except on the employee's request, as follows;
 - (1) on a temporary basis, in cases where it is unsafe for the unborn child of a pregnant employee; or
 - (2) as per Article 31 - Harassment.

For the purposes of this article, a geographic location shall be interpreted as meaning an area within a ten (10) kilometre radius of the employee's primary work location.

11.4 Probation

Upon appointment or promotion to a posted position an employee will serve a probationary period of ninety (90) calendar days in the position to which he/she is appointed or promoted.

During the probationary period, the Employer may remove the employee from the position if the employee is found to be unsuitable for continued employment in the position to which he/she has been appointed, provided that the factors involved in suitability could reasonably be expected to affect work performance.

Upon successful completion of probation, a permanent employee shall be confirmed in the position by the Employer. If the employee is found to be unsuitable in the new position within ninety (90) days he/she shall be returned to his/her former position.

The probationary period does not include vacation days and sick leave. A probationary period may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union.

11.5 Trial Period

Should any new positions that would fall within the bargaining unit be established by the Employer, the Employer agrees to follow the procedures and principles outlined in Article 11 in the hiring for the position.

When a vacancy is filled by an existing regular employee, the employee shall be declared permanent in the new job after a period of three (3) calendar months. If the employee is unable to perform the duties of the new job classification or the employee, at any time during the trial period, wishes to return to his/her former position, he/she shall be returned to his/her former position and wage/salary rate without loss of seniority. In the event that the successful applicant proves unsatisfactory in the position during the trial period, the Employer may, with the agreement of the Union, extend the period for a further three (3) months. Any other employee promoted or transferred because of rearrangement of positions shall be returned to his/her position and wage or salary rate without loss of seniority.

11.8 Right to Grieve Appointments Procedure

Where an employee feels he/she has been aggrieved by any decision of the Employer related to promotion, demotion or transfer, the employee may grieve the decision at Step 2 of the grievance procedure in Article 7 of this agreement within ten (10) working days of being notified of the results of the Selection Panel. Where a grievance has been filed, the Employer will advise the applicant selected by the Employer for the position that the transfer or placement cannot be considered permanent until the grievance has been resolved.

11.9 Temporary Vacancies

- (a) Vacancies of a temporary nature, which exceed or are expected to exceed three (3) months shall be posted as per Article 11.2.
- (b) Employees who fill a temporary vacancy which exceeds three (3) months will receive all of the rights and entitlements of the collective agreement for which they are eligible.
- (c) Temporary vacancies shall not exceed twelve (12) months without the agreement of the Union, or as specifically permitted in this agreement.

Accepting a temporary vacancy does not change the status of an employee.

ARTICLE 12 - LAYOFF AND RECALL

12.1 Layoff

(a) Layoff

- (1) In the event of a layoff not covered by the provisions of (b) and (c) below, permanent employees in an affected child care centre shall be laid off in reverse order of seniority within a classification and a category, provided the remaining employees at the centre have the required qualifications to do the remaining work. If such is not the case, the Employer may layoff out of order of seniority only for the purpose of retaining employees with the required qualifications.
- (2) In lieu of layoff, affected employees who have the required qualifications will be assigned in order of seniority to any vacancies in the same classification and in the same category on the same seniority list.
- (3) Displaced employees who are not assigned to vacancies shall be given notice of layoff. Employees who have been given notice of layoff will be canvassed to determine whether they wish to accept severance pay and termination of employment in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.6, whether they wish to exercise their bumping rights or whether they wish their names to be placed on the recall list. This process shall be completed within seven (7) days of the Employer's notice to the employee of layoff.
- (4) A displaced permanent employee shall have the right to utilize his/her seniority to bump the least senior employee in either the same or a lower classification and in either the same or a lower category on the same seniority list, provided the bumping employee has the qualifications to do the work of the bumped employee. Any permanent employee bumped as a result of this process shall have the same right to utilize his/her seniority.

(b) Layoff on Closure of a Child Care Centre

In the event of the closure of a child care centre, the following layoff procedure shall apply:

- (1) The President of the Union will be notified in writing of the plan to close the centre, prior to notice being given to any employee of an impending layoff. A representative of the Union will meet with a representative of the Employer to identify potential vacancies and bumping options and to consider alternatives to layoff and bumping.
- (2) Affected employees who have the required qualifications will be assigned in order of seniority to any vacancies in the same classification and in the same category on the same seniority list.
- (3) Displaced employees who are not assigned to vacancies shall be given notice of layoff. Employees who have been given notice of layoff will be canvassed to determine whether they wish to accept severance pay and termination of employment in accordance with the provisions of Article 12.6, whether they wish to exercise their bumping rights or whether they wish their names to be placed on the recall list. This process shall be completed within seven (7) days of the Employer's notice to the employee of layoff.
- (4) A displaced permanent employee from the affected child care centre shall have the right to utilize his/her seniority to bump the least senior employee in either the same or a lower classification and in either the same or a lower category on the same seniority list, provided the bumping employee has the qualifications to do the work of the bumped employee. Any permanent employee bumped as a result of this process shall have the same right to utilize his/her seniority.

(c) Seasonal Layoffs

A seasonal shutdown is a temporary shutdown which occurs during summer vacation, Christmas Break or Spring Break. In the event of the seasonal shutdown of a child care centre, the following procedure shall apply:

- (1) Permanent employees in the affected child care centres shall elect whether they wish to be laid off or whether they wish to be employed in another child care centre on the same seniority list.
- (2) Permanent employees who elect to be laid off shall be issued a Record of Employment indicating layoff for shortage of work.
- (3) An employee subject to seasonal layoff shall be entitled to schedule any earned vacation entitlement prior to the issuance of a layoff notice pursuant to (2) above.
- (4) Permanent employees who elect to work shall be assigned to any vacant position in the same or a lower classification which becomes available at other child care centres on the same seniority list. The Employer shall attempt to assign employees to positions with similar work schedules. Where an employee is assigned in lieu of layoff, the employee shall be paid the rate of the position to which the employee is assigned. The provisions of Article 24.5 do not apply to an assignment in lieu of layoff under this clause.
- (5) Upon re-opening of the child care centre, permanent employees shall be reassigned or recalled in order of seniority to the affected child care centre.

12.2 Pre-Layoff Canvass

- (a) Prior to the layoff of regular employees under Article 12.1 the Employer may canvass employees in order to invite:
- (1) placement into vacant, regular position in the employee's classification; or
 - (2) placement into a vacant regular position in another classification for which she/he is qualified and would not be a promotion; or
 - (3) placement on the casual call-in and recall lists with no loss of seniority; or
 - (4) resignation with severance as provided in Article 12.6.
- (b) Where an employee selects an option or accepts an offer of placement, once confirmed in writing, such acceptance is final and binding upon the employee and subject to the agreement of the Employer.
- (c) Responses from employees to the Pre-Layoff Canvass will only be received by the Employer for consideration if submitted within seven (7) days of issuance of a written notice to the employee or group of employees.

12.3 Recall

- (a) Permanent employees on layoff pursuant to Article 12.1(a) or (b) shall be recalled in order of seniority on the same seniority list to the same or a lower classification and the same or a lower category, provided they have the required qualifications to do the work. Laid-off employees shall elect in writing which locations, the minimum hours of work and classifications to which they wish to be recalled, and will only be offered recall to those positions which match these criteria. Such election may not be changed more than once during the recall period. Employees who do not submit such an election will be considered to have elected recall to any available position subject to their seniority, category and classification.
- (b) When a layoff occurs, a recall list shall be established for each seniority list and an employee's name shall remain on the recall list until:
- (1) twelve (12) months from his/her date of layoff;
 - (2) he/she accepts a recall; or
 - (3) he/she refuses recall on two separate occasions to a position to which he/she has elected to be recalled,
- whichever occurs first.
- (c) New employees shall not be hired until qualified employees on the recall list have been given an opportunity of recall in accordance with (a) above.
- (d) Laid off employees must ensure that the Employer is notified of where the employee can be contacted at all relevant times. Notice of recall may be made by telephone, telegram, registered mail or by direct personal contact. Employees will be given seventy-two (72) hours from the time the notice was initiated by the Employer in which to acknowledge receipt of the notice and indicate acceptance of the recall.
- (e) Employees who have accepted recall must report on the date required by the Employer, or such other date as might be mutually agreed to.

(f) If a laid off permanent employee wishes to work as a substitute at any of the centres on his/her seniority list, he/she will so advise the Employer and the supervisor(s) of the affected centre(s) in writing. The provisions of the collective agreement regarding substitutes shall apply to all substitute work performed by a permanent employee under this clause. Substitute work will not be considered a recall for the purposes of Article 12.3(a). An employee shall have his/her recall period extended for an additional thirty (30) days for each calendar month in which he/she earns ten (10) days' pay under this clause.

12.4 Initiation of Grievance

Grievances concerning layoffs and recalls shall be initiated at Step 2 of the grievance procedure.

12.5 Advance Notice

(a) The Employer shall provide advance written notice to permanent employees who are to be laid off during seasonal closures, according to the following;

The Employer shall notify permanent employees who are to be laid off at least twenty-eight (28) days prior to the effective date of layoff.

12.6 Severance Benefit

If an employee is laid off for a period in excess of twelve (12) months and the employee's employment is therefore terminated, a permanent employee who had been employed for a minimum of one (1) year prior to layoff shall be eligible for severance benefit at the end of the layoff or in lieu of layoff on the following basis:

 - (1) after one (1) year of service but less than two (2) years of service - one (1) week's pay;
